NEW TESTAMENT

OF

OUR LORD AND SAVIOUR

JESUS CHRIST

PREFACE.

THE English Version of the New Testament here presented to the reader is a Revision of the Translation published in the year of Our Lord 1611, and commonly known by the name of the Authorised Version.

That Translation was the work of many hands and of several generations. The foundation was laid by William Tyndale. His translation of the New Testament was the true primary Version. The Versions that followed were either substantially reproductions of Tyndale's translation in its final shape, or revisions of Versions that had been themselves almost entirely based on it. Three successive stages may be recognised in this continuous work of authoritative revision: first, the publication of the Great Bible of 1539-41 in the reign of Henry VIII; next, the publication of the Bishops' Bible of 1568 and 1572 in the reign of Elizabeth; and lastly, the publication of the King's Bible of 1611 in the reign of James I. Besides these, the Genevan Version of 1560, itself founded on Tyndale's translation, must here be named; which, though not put forth by authority, was widely circulated in this country, and largely used by King James' Translators. Thus the form in which the English New Testament has now been read for 270 years was the result of various revisions made between 1525 and 1611; and the present Revision is an attempt, after a long interval, to follow the example set by a succession of honoured predecessors.

I. Of the many points of interest connected with the Translation of 1611, two require special notice; first, the Greek Text which it appears to have represented; and secondly, the character of the Translation itself.

1. With regard to the Greek Text, it would appear that, if to some extent the Translators exercised an independent judgement, it was mainly in choosing amongst readings contained in the principal editions of the Greek Text that had appeared in the sixteenth century. Wherever they seem to have followed a reading which is not found in any of those editions, their rendering may probably be traced to the Latin Vulgate. Their chief guides appear to have been the later editions of Stephanus and of Beza, and also, to a certain extent, the Complutensian Polyglott. All these were founded for the most part on manuscripts of late date, few in number, and used with little critical skill. But in those days it could hardly have been otherwise. Nearly all the more ancient of the documentary authorities have become known only within the last two centuries; some of the most important of them, indeed, within the last few years. Their publication has called forth not only improved editions of the Greek Text, but a succession of instructive discussions on the variations which have been brought to light, and on the best modes of distinguishing original readings from changes introduced in the course of transcription. While therefore it has long been the opinion of all scholars that the commonly received text needed thorough revision, it is but recently that materials have been acquired for executing such a work with even approximate completeness.

2. The character of the Translation itself will be best estimated by considering the leading rules under which it was made, and the extent to which these rules appear to have been observed.

The primary and fundamental rule was expressed in the following terms:—‘The ordinary Bible read in the Church, commonly called the Bishops’ Bible, to be followed, and as little altered as the truth of the Original will permit.’ There was, however, this subsequent provision:—‘These translations to be used, when they agree better with the text than the Bishops’ Bible: Tindale’s, Matthew’s, Coverdale’s, Whitchurch’s, Geneva.’ The first of these rules, which was substantially the same as that laid down at the revision of the Great Bible in the reign of Elizabeth, was strictly observed. The other rule was but partially followed. The Translators made much use of the Genevan Version. They do not however appear to have frequently returned to the renderings of the other Versions named in the rule, where those Versions differed from the Bishops’ Bible. On the other hand, their work shews evident traces of the influence of a Version not specified in the rules, the Rhemish, made from the Latin Vulgate, but by scholars conversant with the Greek Original.

Another rule, on which it is stated that those in authority laid great stress, related to the rendering of words that admitted of different interpretations. It was as follows:—‘When a word hath divers significations, that to be kept which hath been most commonly used by the most of the ancient fathers, being agreeable to the propriety of the place and the analogy of the faith.’ With this rule was associated the following, on which equal stress appears to have been laid:—‘The old ecclesiastical words to be kept, viz. the word Church not to be translated Congregation, &c.’ This latter rule was for the most part carefully observed; but it may be doubted whether, in the case of words that admitted of different meanings, the instructions were at all closely followed. In dealing with the more difficult words of this class, the Translators appear to have paid much regard to traditional interpretations, and especially to the authority of the Vulgate; but, as to the large residue of words which might properly fall under the rule, they used considerable freedom. Moreover they profess in their Preface to have studiously adopted a variety of expression which would now be deemed hardly consistent with the requirements of faithful translation. They seem to have been guided by the feeling that their Version would secure for the words they used a lasting place in the language; and they express a fear lest they should 'be charged (by scoffers) with some unequal dealing towards a great number of good English words,' which, without this liberty on their part, would not have a place in the pages of the English Bible. Still it cannot be doubted that they carried this liberty too far, and that the studied avoidance of uniformity in the rendering of the same words, even when occurring in the same context, is one of the blemishes in their work.

A third leading rule was of a negative character, but was rendered necessary by the experience derived from former Versions. The words of the rule are as follows:—'No marginal notes at all to be affixed, but only for the explanation of the Hebrew or Greek words which cannot without some circumlocution so briefly and fitly be expressed in the text.' Here again the Translators used some liberty in their application of the rule. Out of more than 760 marginal notes originally appended to the Authorised Version of the New Testament, only a seventh part consists of explanations or literal renderings; the great majority of the notes being devoted to the useful and indeed necessary purpose of placing before the reader alternative renderings which it was judged that the passage or the words would fairly admit. The notes referring to variations in the Greek Text amount to about thirty-five.

Of the remaining rules it may be sufficient to notice one, which was for the most part consistently followed:—'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' The Translators had also the liberty, in 'any place of special obscurity,' to consult those who might be qualified to give an opinion.

Passing from these fundamental rules, which should be borne in mind by any one who would rightly understand the nature and character of the Authorised Version, we must call attention to the manner in which the actual work of the translation was carried on. The New Testament was assigned to two separate Companies, the one consisting of eight members, sitting at Oxford, the other consisting of seven members, sitting at Westminster. There is no reason to believe that these Companies ever sat together. They communicated to each other, and likewise to the four Companies to which the Old Testament and the Apocrypha had been committed, the results of their labours; and perhaps afterwards reconsidered them: but the fact that the New Testament was divided between two separate bodies of men involved a grave inconvenience, and was beyond all doubt the cause of many inconsistencies. These probably would have been much more serious, had it not been provided that there should be a final supervision of the whole Bible, by selected members from Oxford, Cambridge, and Westminster, the three centres at which the work had been carried on. These supervisors are said by one authority to have been six in number, and by another twelve. When it is remembered that this supervision was completed in nine months, we may wonder that the incongruities which remain are not more numerous.

The Companies appear to have been occupied in the actual business of revision about two years and three quarters.

Such, so far as can be gathered from the rules and modes of procedure, is the character of the time-honoured Version which we have been called upon to revise. We have had to study this great Version carefully and minutely, line by line; and the longer we have been engaged upon it the more we have learned to admire its simplicity, its dignity, its power, its happy turns of expression, its general accuracy, and, we must not fail to add, the music of its cadences, and the felicities of its rhythm. To render a work that had reached this high standard of excellence still more excellent, to increase its fidelity without destroying its charm, was the task committed to us. Of that task, and of the conditions under which we have attempted its fulfilment, it will now be necessary for us to speak.

II. The present Revision had its origin in action taken by the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury in February 1870, and it has been conducted throughout on the plan laid down in Resolutions of both Houses of the Province, and, more particularly, in accordance with Principles and Rules drawn up by a special Committee of Convocation in the following May. Two Companies, the one for the revision of the Authorised Version of the Old Testament, and the other for the revision of the same Version of the New Testament, were formed in the manner specified in the Resolutions, and the work was commenced on the twenty-second day of June 1870. Shortly afterwards, steps were taken, under a resolution passed by both Houses of Convocation, for inviting the co-operation of American scholars; and eventually two Committees were formed in America, for the purpose of acting with the two English Companies, on the basis of the Principles and Rules drawn up by the Committee of Convocation.

The fundamental Resolutions adopted by the Convocation of Canterbury on the third and fifth days of May 1870 were as follows:—

‘1. That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorised Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken.

‘2. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorised Version.

‘3. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where in the judgement of the most competent scholars such change is necessary.

‘4. That in such necessary changes, the style of the language employed in the existing Version be closely followed.

‘5. That it is desirable that Convocation should nominate a body of its own members to undertake the work of revision, who shall be at liberty to invite the co-operation of any eminent for scholarship, to whatever nation or religious body they may belong.'

The Principles and Rules agreed to by the Committee of Convocation on the twenty-fifth day of May 1870 were as follows:—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.

'3. Each Company to go twice over the portion to be revised, once provisionally, the second time finally, and on principles of voting as hereinafter is provided.

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.

'5. To make or retain no change in the Text on the second final revision by each Company, except two thirds of those present approve of the same, but on the first revision to decide by simple majorities.

'6. In every case of proposed alteration that may have given rise to discussion, to defer the voting thereupon till the next Meeting, whensoever the same shall be required by one third of those present at the Meeting, such intended vote to be announced in the notice for the next Meeting.

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.

'8. To refer, on the part of each Company, when considered desirable, to Divines, Scholars, and Literary Men, whether at home or abroad, for their opinions.'

These rules it has been our endeavour faithfully and consistently to follow. One only of them we found ourselves unable to observe in all particulars. In accordance with the seventh rule, we have carefully revised the paragraphs, italics, and punctuation. But the revision of the headings of chapters and pages would have involved so much of indirect, and indeed frequently of direct interpretation, that we judged it best to omit them altogether.

Our communications with the American Committee have been of the following nature. We transmitted to them from time to time each several portion of our First Revision, and received from them in return their criticisms and suggestions. These we considered with much care and attention during the time we were engaged on our Second Revision. We then sent over to them the various portions of the Second Revision as they were completed, and received further suggestions, which, like the former, were closely and carefully considered. Last of all, we forwarded to them the Revised Version in its final form; and a list of those passages in which they desire to place on record their preference of other readings and renderings will be found at the end of the volume. We gratefully acknowledge their care, vigilance, and accuracy; and we humbly pray that their labours and our own, thus happily united, may be permitted to bear a blessing to both countries, and to all English-speaking people throughout the world.

The whole time devoted to the work has been ten years and a half. The First Revision occupied about six years; the Second, about two years and a half. The remaining time has been spent in the consideration of the suggestions from America on the Second Revision, and of many details and reserved questions arising out of our own labours. As a rule, a session of four days has been held every month (with the exception of August and September) in each year from the commencement of the work in June 1870. The average attendance for the whole time has been sixteen each day: the whole Company consisting at first of twenty-seven, but for the greater part of the time of twenty-four members, many of them residing at great distances from London. Of the original number four have been removed from us by death.

At an early stage in our labours, we entered into an agreement with the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge for the conveyance to them of our copyright in the work. This arrangement provided for the necessary expenses of the undertaking; and procured for the Revised Version the advantage of being published by Bodies long connected with the publication of the Authorised Version.

III. We now pass onward to give a brief account of the particulars of the present work. This we propose to do under the four heads of Text, Translation, Language, and Marginal Notes.

1. A revision of the Greek text was the necessary foundation of our work; but it did not fall within our province to construct a continuous and complete Greek text. In many cases the English rendering was considered to represent correctly either of two competing readings in the Greek, and then the question of the text was usually not raised. A sufficiently laborious task remained in deciding between the rival claims of various readings which might properly affect the translation. When these were adjusted, our deviations from the text presumed to underlie the Authorised Version had next to be indicated, in accordance with the fourth rule; but it proved inconvenient to record them in the margin. A better mode however of giving them publicity has been found, as the University Presses have undertaken to print them in connexion with complete Greek texts of the New Testament.

In regard of the readings thus approved, it may be observed that the fourth rule, by requiring that 'the text to be adopted' should be 'that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating,' was in effect an instruction to follow the authority of documentary evidence without deference to any printed text of modern times, and therefore to employ the best resources of criticism for estimating the value of evidence. Textual criticism, as applied to the Greek New Testament, forms a special study of much intricacy and difficulty, and even now leaves room for considerable variety of opinion among competent critics.

Different schools of criticism have been represented among us, and have together contributed to the final result. In the early part of the work every various reading requiring consideration was discussed and voted on by the Company. After a time the precedents thus established enabled the process to be safely shortened; but it was still at the option of every one to raise a full discussion on any particular reading, and the option was freely used. On the first revision, in accordance with the fifth rule, the decisions were arrived at by simple majorities. On the second revision, at which a majority of two thirds was required to retain or introduce a reading at variance with the reading presumed to underlie the Authorised Version, many readings previously adopted were brought again into debate, and either re-affirmed or set aside.

Many places still remain in which, for the present, it would not be safe to accept one reading to the absolute exclusion of others. In these cases we have given alternative readings in the margin, wherever they seem to be of sufficient importance or interest to deserve notice. In the introductory formula, the phrases 'many ancient authorities,' 'some ancient authorities,' are used with some latitude to denote a greater or lesser proportion of those authorities which have a distinctive right to be called ancient. These ancient authorities comprise not only Greek manuscripts, some of which were written in the fourth and fifth centuries, but versions of a still earlier date in different languages, and also quotations by Christian writers of the second and following centuries.

2. We pass now from the Text to the Translation. The character of the Revision was determined for us from the outset by the first rule, 'to introduce as few alterations as possible, consistently with faithfulness.' Our task was revision, not re-translation.

In the application however of this principle to the many and intricate details of our work, we have found ourselves constrained by faithfulness to introduce changes which might not at first sight appear to be included under the rule.

The alterations which we have made in the Authorised Version may be roughly grouped in five principal classes. First, alterations positively required by change of reading in the Greek Text. Secondly, alterations made where the Authorised Version appeared either to be incorrect, or to have chosen the less probable of two possible renderings. Thirdly, alterations of obscure or ambiguous renderings into such as are clear and express in their import. For it has been our principle not to leave any translation, or any arrangement of words, which could adapt itself to one or other of two interpretations, but rather to express as plainly as was possible that interpretation which seemed best to deserve a place in the text, and to put the other in the margin.

There remain yet two other classes of alterations which we have felt to be required by the same principle of faithfulness. These are,—Fourthly, alterations of the Authorised Version in cases where it was inconsistent with itself in the rendering of two or more passages confessedly alike or parallel. Fifthly, alterations rendered necessary by consequence, that is, arising out of changes already made, though not in themselves required by the general rule of faithfulness. Both these classes of alterations call for some further explanation.

The frequent inconsistencies in the Authorised Version have caused us much embarrassment from the fact already referred to, namely, that a studied variety of rendering, even in the same chapter and context, was a kind of principle with our predecessors, and was defended by them on grounds that have been mentioned above. The problem we had to solve was to discriminate between varieties of rendering which were compatible with fidelity to the true meaning of the text, and varieties which involved inconsistency, and were suggestive of differences that had no existence in the Greek. This problem we have solved to the best of our power, and for the most part in the following way.

Where there was a doubt as to the exact shade of meaning, we have looked to the context for guidance. If the meaning was fairly expressed by the word or phrase that was before us in the Authorised Version, we made no change, even where rigid adherence to the rule of translating, as far as possible, the same Greek word by the same English word might have prescribed some modification.

There are however numerous passages in the Authorised Version in which, whether regard be had to the recurrence (as in the first three Gospels) of identical clauses and sentences, to the repetition of the same word in the same passage, or to the characteristic use of particular words by the same writer, the studied variety adopted by the Translators of 1611 has produced a degree of inconsistency that cannot be reconciled with the principle of faithfulness. In such cases we have not hesitated to introduce alterations, even though the sense might not seem to the general reader to be materially affected.

The last class of alterations is that which we have described as rendered necessary by consequence; that is, by reason of some foregoing alteration. The cases in which these consequential changes have been found necessary are numerous and of very different kinds. Sometimes the change has been made to avoid tautology; sometimes to obviate an unpleasing alliteration or some other infelicity of sound; sometimes, in the case of smaller words, to preserve the familiar rhythm; sometimes for a convergence of reasons which, when explained, would at once be accepted, but until so explained might never be surmised even by intelligent readers.

This may be made plain by an example. When a particular word is found to recur with characteristic frequency in any one of the Sacred Writers, it is obviously desirable to adopt for it some uniform rendering. Again, where, as in the case of the first three Evangelists, precisely the same clauses or sentences are found in more than one of the Gospels, it is no less necessary to translate them in every place in the same way. These two principles may be illustrated by reference to a word that perpetually recurs in St. Mark's Gospel, and that may be translated either 'straightway,' 'forthwith,' or 'immediately.' Let it be supposed that the first rendering is chosen, and that the word, in accordance with the first of the above principles, is in that Gospel uniformly translated 'straightway.' Let it be further supposed that one of the passages of St. Mark in which it is so translated is found, word for word, in one of the other Gospels, but that there the rendering of the Authorised Version happens to be 'forthwith' or 'immediately.' That rendering must be changed on the second of the above principles; and yet such a change would not have been made but for this concurrence of two sound principles, and the consequent necessity of making a change on grounds extraneous to the passage itself.

This is but one of many instances of consequential alterations which might at first sight appear unnecessary, but which nevertheless have been deliberately made, and are not at variance with the rule of introducing as few changes in the Authorised Version as faithfulness would allow.

There are some other points of detail which it may be here convenient to notice. One of these, and perhaps the most important, is the rendering of the Greek aorist. There are numerous cases, especially in connexion with particles ordinarily expressive of present time, in which the use of the indefinite past tense in Greek and English is altogether different; and in such instances we have not attempted to violate the idiom of our language by forms of expression which it could not bear. But we have often ventured to represent the Greek aorist by the English preterite, even where the reader may find some passing difficulty in such a rendering, because we have felt convinced that the true meaning of the original was obscured by the presence of the familiar auxiliary. A remarkable illustration may be found in the seventeenth chapter of St. John's Gospel, where the combination of the aorist and the perfect shews, beyond all reasonable doubt, that different relations of time were intended to be expressed.

Changes of translation will also be found in connexion with the aorist participle, arising from the fact that the usual periphrasis of this participle in the Vulgate, which was rendered necessary by Latin idiom, has been largely reproduced in the Authorised Version by 'when' with the past tense (as for example in the second chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel), even where the ordinary participial rendering would have been easier and more natural in English.

In reference to the perfect and the imperfect tenses but little needs to be said. The correct translation of the former has been for the most part, though with some striking exceptions, maintained in the Authorised Version: while with regard to the imperfect, clear as its meaning may be in the Greek, the power of expressing it is so limited in English, that we have been frequently compelled to leave the force of the tense to be inferred from the context. In a few instances, where faithfulness imperatively required it, and especially where, in the Greek, the significance of the imperfect tense seemed to be additionally marked by the use of the participle with the auxiliary verb, we have introduced the corresponding form in English. Still, in the great majority of cases we have been obliged to retain the English preterite, and to rely either on slight changes in the order of the words, or on prominence given to the accompanying temporal particles, for the indication of the meaning which, in the Greek, the imperfect tense was designed to convey.

On other points of grammar it may be sufficient to speak more briefly.

Many changes, as might be anticipated, have been made in the case of the definite article. Here again it was necessary to consider the peculiarities of English idiom, as well as the general tenor of each passage. Sometimes we have felt it enough to prefix the article to the first of a series of words to all of which it is prefixed in the Greek, and thus, as it were, to impart the idea of definiteness to the whole series, without running the risk of overloading the sentence. Sometimes, conversely, we have had to tolerate the presence of the definite article in our Version, when it is absent from the Greek, and perhaps not even grammatically latent; simply because English idiom would not allow the noun to stand alone, and because the introduction of the indefinite article might have introduced an idea of oneness or individuality, which was not in any degree traceable in the original. In a word, we have been careful to observe the use of the article wherever it seemed to be idiomatically possible: where it did not seem to be possible, we have yielded to necessity.

As to the pronouns and the place they occupy in the sentence, a subject often overlooked by our predecessors, we have been particularly careful; but here again we have frequently been baffled by structural or idiomatical peculiarities of the English language which precluded changes otherwise desirable.

In the case of the particles we have met with less difficulty, and have been able to maintain a reasonable amount of consistency. The particles in the Greek Testament are, as is well known, comparatively few, and they are commonly used with precision. It has therefore been the more necessary here to preserve a general uniformity of rendering, especially in the case of the particles of causality and inference, so far as English idiom would allow.

Lastly, many changes have been introduced in the rendering of the prepositions, especially where ideas of instrumentality or of mediate agency, distinctly marked in the original, had been confused or obscured in the translation. We have however borne in mind the comprehensive character of such prepositions as 'of' and 'by,' the one in reference to agency and the other in reference to means, especially in the English of the seventeenth century; and have rarely made any change where the true meaning of the original as expressed in the Authorised Version would be apparent to a reader of ordinary intelligence.

3. We now come to the subject of Language.

The second of the rules, by which the work has been governed, prescribed that the alterations to be introduced should be expressed, as far as possible, in the language of the Authorised Version or of the Versions that preceded it.

To this rule we have faithfully adhered. We have habitually consulted the earlier Versions; and in our sparing introduction of words not found in them or in the Authorised Version we have usually satisfied ourselves that such words were employed by standard writers of nearly the same date, and had also that general hue which justified their introduction into a Version which has held the highest place in the classical literature of our language. We have never removed any archaisms, whether in structure or in words, except where we were persuaded either that the meaning of the words was not generally understood, or that the nature of the expression led to some misconception of the true sense of the passage. The frequent inversions of the strict order of the words, which add much to the strength and variety of the Authorised Version, and give an archaic colour to many felicities of diction, have been seldom modified. Indeed, we have often adopted the same arrangement in our own alterations; and in this, as in other particulars, we have sought to assimilate the new work to the old.

In a few exceptional cases we have failed to find any word in the older stratum of our language that appeared to convey the precise meaning of the original. There, and there only, we have used words of a later date; but not without having first assured ourselves that they are to be found in the writings of the best authors of the period to which they belong.

In regard of Proper Names no rule was prescribed to us. In the case of names of frequent occurrence we have deemed it best to follow generally the rule laid down for our predecessors. That rule, it may be remembered, was to this effect, 'The names of the prophets and the holy writers, with the other names of the text, to be retained, as nigh as may be, accordingly as they were vulgarly used.' Some difficulty has been felt in dealing with names less familiarly known. Here our general practice has been to follow the Greek form of names, except in the case of persons and places mentioned in the Old Testament: in this case we have followed the Hebrew.

4. The subject of the Marginal Notes deserves special attention. They represent the results of a large amount of careful and elaborate discussion, and will, perhaps, by their very presence, indicate to some extent the intricacy of many of the questions that have almost daily come before us for decision. These Notes fall into four main groups: first, notes specifying such differences of reading as were judged to be of sufficient importance to require a particular notice; secondly, notes indicating the exact rendering of words to which, for the sake of English idiom, we were obliged to give a less exact rendering in the text; thirdly, notes, very few in number, affording some explanation which the original appeared to require; fourthly, alternative renderings in difficult or debateable passages. The notes of this last group are numerous, and largely in excess of those which were admitted by our predecessors. In the 270 years that have passed away since their labours were concluded, the Sacred Text has been minutely examined, discussed in every detail, and analysed with a grammatical precision unknown in the days of the last Revision. There has thus been accumulated a large amount of materials that have prepared the way for different renderings, which necessarily came under discussion. We have therefore placed before the reader in the margin other renderings than those which were adopted in the text, wherever such renderings seemed to deserve consideration. The rendering in the text, where it agrees with the Authorised Version, was supported by at least one third, and, where it differs from the Authorised Version, by at least two thirds of those who were present at the second revision of the passage in question.

A few supplementary matters have yet to be mentioned. These may be thus enumerated,—the use of Italics, the arrangement in Paragraphs, the mode of printing Quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament, the Punctuation, and, last of all, the Titles of the different Books that make up the New Testament,—all of them particulars on which it seems desirable to add a few explanatory remarks.

(a) The determination, in each place, of the words to be printed in italics has not been by any means easy; nor can we hope to be found in all cases perfectly consistent. In the earliest editions of the Authorised Version the use of a different type to indicate supplementary words not contained in the original was not very frequent, and cannot easily be reconciled with any settled principle. A review of the words so printed was made, after a lapse of some years, for the editions of the Authorised Version published at Cambridge in 1629 and 1638. Further, though slight, modifications were introduced at intervals between 1638 and the more systematic revisions undertaken respectively by Dr. Paris in the Cambridge Edition of 1762, and by Dr. Blayney in the Oxford Edition of 1769. None of them however rest on any higher authority than that of the persons who from time to time superintended the publication. The last attempt to bring the use of italics into uniformity and consistency was made by Dr. Scrivener in the Paragraph Bible published at Cambridge in 1870-73. In succeeding to these labours, we have acted on the general principle of printing in italics words which did not appear to be necessarily involved in the Greek. Our tendency has been to diminish rather than to increase the amount of italic printing; though, in the case of difference of readings, we have usually marked the absence of any words in the original which the sense might nevertheless require to be present in the Version; and again, in the case of inserted pronouns, where the reference did not appear to be perfectly certain, we have similarly had recourse to italics. Some of these cases, especially when there are slight differences of reading, are of singular intricacy, and make it impossible to maintain rigid uniformity.

(b) We have arranged the Sacred Text in paragraphs, after the precedent of the earliest English Versions, so as to assist the general reader in following the current of narrative or argument. The present arrangement will be found, we trust, to have preserved the due mean between a system of long portions which must often include several separate topics, and a system of frequent breaks which, though they may correctly indicate the separate movements of thought in the writer, often seriously impede a just perception of the true continuity of the passage. The traditional division into chapters, which the Authorised Version inherited from Latin Bibles of the later middle ages, is an illustration of the former method. These paragraphs, for such in fact they are, frequently include several distinct subjects. Moreover they sometimes, though rarely, end where there is no sufficient break in the sense. The division of chapters into verses, which was introduced into the New Testament for the first time in 1551, is an exaggeration of the latter method, with its accompanying inconveniences. The serious obstacles to the right understanding of Holy Scripture, which are interposed by minute subdivision, are often overlooked; but if any one will consider for a moment the injurious effect that would be produced by breaking up a portion of some great standard work into separate verses, he will at once perceive how necessary has been an alteration in this particular. The arrangement by chapters and verses undoubtedly affords facilities for reference: but this advantage we have been able to retain by placing the numerals on the inside margin of each page.

(c) A few words will suffice as to the mode of printing quotations from the Poetical Books of the Old Testament. Wherever the quotation extends to two or more lines, our practice has been to recognise the parallelism of their structure by arranging the lines in a manner that appears to agree with the metrical divisions of the Hebrew original. Such an arrangement will be found helpful to the reader; not only as directing his attention to the poetical character of the quotation, but as also tending to make its force and pertinence more fully felt. We have treated in the same way the hymns in the first two chapters of the Gospel according to St. Luke.

(d) Great care has been bestowed on the punctuation. Our practice has been to maintain what is sometimes called the heavier system of stopping, or, in other words, that system which, especially for convenience in reading aloud, suggests such pauses as will best ensure a clear and intelligent setting forth of the true meaning of the words. This course has rendered necessary, especially in the Epistles, a larger use of colons and semicolons than is customary in modern English printing.

(e) We may in the last place notice one particular to which we were not expressly directed to extend our revision, namely, the titles of the Books of the New Testament. These titles are no part of the original text; and the titles found in the most ancient manuscripts are of too short a form to be convenient for use. Under these circumstances, we have deemed it best to leave unchanged the titles which are given in the Authorised Version as printed in 1611.

We now conclude, humbly commending our labours to Almighty God, and praying that his favour and blessing may be vouchsafed to that which has been done in his name. We recognised from the first the responsibility of the undertaking; and through our manifold experience of its abounding difficulties we have felt more and more, as we went onward, that such a work can never be accomplished by organised efforts of scholarship and criticism, unless assisted by Divine help.

We know full well that defects must have their place in a work so long and so arduous as this which has now come to an end. Blemishes and imperfections there are in the noble Translation which we have been called upon to revise; blemishes and imperfections will assuredly be found in our own Revision. All endeavours to translate the Holy Scriptures into another tongue must fall short of their aim, when the obligation is imposed of producing a Version that shall be alike literal and idiomatic, faithful to each thought of the original, and yet, in the expression of it, harmonious and free. While we dare to hope that in places not a few of the New Testament the introduction of slight changes has cast a new light upon much that was difficult and obscure, we cannot forget how often we have failed in expressing some finer shade of meaning which we recognised in the original, how often idiom has stood in the way of a perfect rendering, and how often the attempt to preserve a familiar form of words, or even a familiar cadence, has only added another perplexity to those which already beset us.

Thus, in the review of the work which we have been permitted to complete, our closing words must be words of mingled thanksgiving, humility, and prayer. Of thanksgiving, for the many blessings vouchsafed to us throughout the unbroken progress of our corporate labours; of humility, for our failings and imperfections in the fulfilment of our task; and of prayer to Almighty God, that the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may be more clearly and more freshly shewn forth to all who shall be readers of this Book.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MATTHEW.

1 <sup>1</sup>THE book of the <sup>2</sup>generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brethren; 3 and Judah begat Perez and Zerah of Tamar; and Perez begat Hezron; and Hezron 4 begat <sup>3</sup>Ram; and <sup>3</sup>Ram begat Amminadab; and Amminadab begat Nahshon; and Nahshon begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; 6 and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David the king.

7 And David begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat <sup>4</sup>Asa; and <sup>4</sup>Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat <sup>5</sup>Amon; and <sup>5</sup>Amon begat Josiah; and Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon.

12 And after the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon, Jechoniah begat <sup>7</sup>Shealtiel; and <sup>7</sup>Shealtiel begat Zerubbabel; and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim 14 begat Azor; and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Mat-than; and Matthan begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Joseph 16 the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

So all the generations from <sup>17</sup> Abraham unto David are fourteen generations; and from David unto the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the <sup>6</sup>carrying away to Babylon unto the Christ fourteen generations.

Now the <sup>3</sup>birth <sup>2</sup>of Jesus 18 Christ was on this wise: When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the <sup>10</sup>Holy Ghost. And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But 20 when he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is <sup>11</sup>conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring 21 forth a son; and thou shalt call his name Jesus; for it is he that shall save his people from their sins. Now all this 22 is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

Behold, the virgin shall be 23 with child, and shall bring forth a son,

And they shall call his name <sup>12</sup>Immanuel; which is, being interpreted,

24 God with us. And Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took unto him his wife; and knew her not till she had brought forth a son: and he called his name JESUS.

2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, <sup>1</sup>wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, <sup>2</sup>Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we saw his star in the east, and are come to worship him. And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written <sup>3</sup>by the prophet, 6 And thou Bethlehem, land of Judah, Art in no wise least among the princes of Judah: For out of thee shall come forth a governor, Which shall be shepherd of my people Israel.

7 Then Herod privily called the <sup>1</sup>wise men, and learned of them carefully <sup>4</sup>what time the star appeared. And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search out carefully concerning the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word, that I also may come and worship him.

9 And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And they came into the house and saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped him; and opening their treasures they offered unto him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

Now when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. And he arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt; and was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt did I call my son. Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the <sup>1</sup>wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the borders thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had carefully learned of the <sup>1</sup>wise men. Then was fulfilled that which was spoken <sup>3</sup>by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

A voice was heard in Ramah,

Weeping and great mourning,

Rachel weeping for her children;

And she would not be comforted, because they are not.

But when Herod was dead, 19 behold, an angel of the Lord 20 appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young 21 child's life. And he arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the 22 land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; and being warned of God in a dream, he withdrew into the 23 parts of Galilee, and came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>1</sup> by the prophets, that he should be called a Nazarene.

3 And in those days cometh John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judæa, 2 saying, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.
 3 For this is he that was spoken of <sup>1</sup> by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make ye ready the way of the Lord,

Make his paths straight.

4 Now John himself had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then 5 went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing 7 their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said unto them, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath 8 to come? Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of <sup>2</sup> repentance: and think not to say 9 within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And 10 even now is the axe laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. I indeed baptize you <sup>3</sup> with 11 water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not <sup>4</sup> worthy to bear: he shall baptize you <sup>3</sup> with the Holy Ghost and with fire: whose fan is in his hand, and 12 he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

Then cometh Jesus from 13 Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John would have hinder- 14 ed him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer <sup>5</sup> it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffereth him. And 16 Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened <sup>6</sup> unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him; and lo, a voice 17 out of the heavens, saying, <sup>7</sup> This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Then was Jesus led up of 4 the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty 2 days and forty nights, he afterward hungered. And the 3 tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these 4 stones become <sup>1</sup>bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the <sup>5</sup>mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him into the holy city; and he set him on the <sup>2</sup>pin-nacle of the temple, and saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: And on their hands they shall bear thee up, Lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, Again it is written, Thou shalt not <sup>8</sup>tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil taketh him unto an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the king-doms of the world, and the <sup>9</sup>glory of them; and he said unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall <sup>10</sup>down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him <sup>11</sup>only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew <sup>13</sup>into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun <sup>14</sup>and Naphtali: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>3</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

And to them which sat in the region and shadow of death,

To them did light spring up. From that time began Jesus <sup>17</sup>to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

And walking by the sea of <sup>18</sup>Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers. And he saith <sup>19</sup>unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men. And they straightway <sup>20</sup>left the nets, and followed him. And going on from thence <sup>21</sup>he saw other two brethren, <sup>6</sup>James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. And they straight- <sup>22</sup>way left the boat and their father, and followed him.

And <sup>7</sup>Jesus went about in <sup>23</sup>all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the <sup>8</sup>gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people. And the <sup>24</sup>report of him went forth into all Syria: and they brought unto him all that were sick, holden with divers diseases and torments, <sup>9</sup>possessed with devils, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. And <sup>25</sup>there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judæa and from beyond Jordan.

And seeing the multitudes, <sup>5</sup>he went up into the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came unto him: and <sup>2</sup>he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spi- <sup>3</sup>rit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

- 4 <sup>1</sup>Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
- 6 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
- 6 Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
- 7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
- 8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.
- 10 Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the
- 11 kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against
- 12 you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.
- 13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under foot of men.
- 14 Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be
- 15 hid. Neither do men light a lamp, and put it under the bushel, but on the stand; and it shineth unto all that are in the house. Even so let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.
- 17 Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, 20 that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Ye have heard that it was 21 said to them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgement: but I say 22 unto you, that every one who is angry with his brother<sup>2</sup> shall be in danger of the judgement; and whosoever shall say to his brother, <sup>3</sup>Raca, shall be in danger of the council; and whosoever shall say, <sup>4</sup>Thou fool, shall be in danger <sup>5</sup>of the <sup>6</sup>hell of fire. If therefore 23 thou art offering thy gift at the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there 24 thy gift before the altar, and go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with 25 thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art with him in the way; lest haply the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge <sup>7</sup>deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou 26 shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the last farthing.

Ye have heard that it was 27 said, Thou shalt not commit adultery: but I say unto you, 28 that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if 29 thy right eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy whole body be cast 30 into <sup>1</sup>hell. And if thy right hand causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not thy 31 whole body go into <sup>1</sup>hell. It was said also, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: 32 but I say unto you, that every one that putteth away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, maketh her an adulteress: and whosoever shall marry her when she is put away committeth adultery.

 33 Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths: but I 34 say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the throne of God; nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor <sup>2</sup>by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair 35 white or black. <sup>3</sup>But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: and whatsoever is more than these is of <sup>4</sup>the evil one.
 36 Ye have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth: but I say 37 unto you, Resist not <sup>5</sup>him that is evil: but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if 38 any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy: but I say unto you, Love your 41 enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; that ye may 42 be sons of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For 43 if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the <sup>7</sup>publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren 44 only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them: else ye have no reward with your Father which is in heaven.

When therefore thou doest alms, sound not a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But when thou doest 45 alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: that thine alms may 46 be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee.

And when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites: for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shall recompense thee. And in praying use not vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do: for they think that they shall be heard for 8 their much speaking. Be not therefore like unto them: for 1 your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before 9 ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed 10 be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in 11 heaven, so on earth. Give us 12 this day <sup>2</sup>our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also 13 have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from <sup>3</sup>the evil 14 one.<sup>4</sup> For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.
 16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen of men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have received their reward.
 17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thy head, and wash 18 thy face; that thou be not seen of men to fast, but of thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall recompense thee.
 19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust doth consume, and where thieves 20 <sup>5</sup>break through and steal: but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth consume, and where thieves do not <sup>5</sup>break 21 through nor steal: for where thy treasure is, there will thy 22 heart be also. The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, <sup>23</sup> thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness! No man can serve two <sup>24</sup> masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say <sup>25</sup> unto you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than the food, and the body than the raiment? Be- <sup>26</sup> hold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by being <sup>27</sup> anxious can add one cubit unto his <sup>6</sup>stature? And why <sup>28</sup> are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: yet I say unto you, that even <sup>29</sup> Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the <sup>30</sup> grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Be not therefore <sup>31</sup> anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? For after all <sup>32</sup> these things do the Gentiles seek; for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But <sup>33</sup> seek ye first his kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Be not therefore <sup>34</sup> anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

- 7 Judge not, that ye be not 2 judged. For with what judgement ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured unto you. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me cast out the mote out of thine eye; and lo, the beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.
- 6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.
- 7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, who, if his son shall ask him for a loaf, will give him a stone; or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent?
- 11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him? All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye also unto them: for this is the law and the prophets.

and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many be they that enter in thereby. <sup>2</sup> For narrow is the gate, and straitened the way, that leadeth unto life, and few be they that find it.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their fruits ye shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but the corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by thy name, and by thy name cast out <sup>3</sup> devils, and by thy name do many <sup>4</sup> mighty works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. Every one therefore which heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, which built his house upon the rock: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon the rock. And every one that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and smote upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall thereof.

28 And it came to pass, when Jesus ended these words, the multitudes were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

8 And when he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, there came to him a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

8 And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

6 And when he was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, and saying, Lord,

6 my <sup>1</sup>servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously

7 tormented. And he saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 And the centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not <sup>2</sup>worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but only say <sup>3</sup>the word, and my <sup>1</sup>servant

9 shall be healed. For I also am a man <sup>4</sup>under authority, having under myself soldiers:

and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my <sup>5</sup>servant, Do this, and from the east and the west, and shall <sup>7</sup>sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven: but the sons of the kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the <sup>1</sup>servant was healed in that hour.

And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and ministered unto him. And when even was come, they brought unto him many <sup>8</sup>possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>9</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side. And there came <sup>10</sup>a scribe, and said unto him, <sup>11</sup>Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have <sup>12</sup>nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And another of the disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But Jesus saith unto him, Follow me; and leave the dead to bury their own dead.

And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves;

- 25 but he was asleep. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Save, Lord; we perish.
- 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.
- 27 And the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?
- 28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two <sup>1</sup>possessed with devils, coming forth out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man could pass by that way. And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? Now there was afar off from them a herd of many
- 30 swine feeding. And the <sup>2</sup>devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, and what was befallen to them that were <sup>1</sup>possessed with devils.
- 34 And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart from their borders.
- 9 And he entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came in to his own city. And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy, <sup>8</sup>Son, be of good cheer; thy sins are forgiven. And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth. And Jesus <sup>4</sup>knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is <sup>5</sup>easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and walk? But that ye may know <sup>6</sup>that the Son of man hath <sup>5</sup>power on earth to forgive sins (then saith he to the sick of the palsy), Arise, and take up thy bed, and go unto thy house. And he arose, and departed to his house. But when <sup>8</sup>the multitudes saw it, they were afraid, and glorified God, which had given such <sup>5</sup>power unto men.

And as Jesus passed by from <sup>9</sup>thence, he saw a man, called Matthew, sitting at the place of toll: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

And it came to pass, as he <sup>10</sup>sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples. And <sup>11</sup>when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your <sup>7</sup>Master with the publicans and sinners? But when he heard it, he said, <sup>12</sup>They that are <sup>8</sup>whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and <sup>13</sup>learn what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice: for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

Then come to him the <sup>14</sup>disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast <sup>9</sup>oft, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto <sup>15</sup>them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and 16 then will they fast. And no man putteth a piece of undressed cloth upon an old garment; for that which should fill it up taketh from the garment, and a worse rent is made. Neither do men put new wine into old wine-skins: else the skins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the skins perish: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved.

17 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples. And behold, a woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: for she said within herself, If I do but touch his garment, I shall be made whole. But Jesus turning and seeing her said, Daughter, be of good cheer; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

18 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute-players, and the crowd making a tumult, he said, Give place: for the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

19 But when the crowd was put forth, he entered in, and took her by the hand; and the damsel arose. And the fame hereof went forth into all that land.

20 And as Jesus passed by from thence, two blind men followed him, crying out, and saying, Have mercy on us, thou son of David. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and

Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it done unto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. But they went forth, and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

And as they went forth, behold, there was brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil. And when the devil was cast out, the dumb man spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel. But the Pharisees said, By the prince of the devils casteth he out devils.

And Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were distressed and scattered, as sheep not having a shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. And he called unto him his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness.

Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartho-Iomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus; 4 Simon the <sup>1</sup>Cananæan, and Judas Iscariot, who also <sup>2</sup> betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and charged them, saying,

Go not into any way of the Gentiles, and enter not into any city of the Samaritans: 6 but go rather to the lost sheep 7 of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out <sup>8</sup> devils: freely ye received, 9 freely give. Get you no gold, nor silver, nor brass in your 10 purses; no wallet for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the labourer is worthy of his food. 11 And into whatsoever city or village ye shall enter, search out who in it is worthy; and there 12 abide till ye go forth. And as ye enter into the house, 13 salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return 14 to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye go forth out of that house or that city, shake 15 off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgement, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and <sup>5</sup> harmless as doves. 17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you; yea and before governors and kings shall ye be brought for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles. But when they 19 deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, 20 but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you. And 21 brother shall deliver up brother to death, and the father his child: and children shall rise up against parents, and 22 cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved. But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone through the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

A disciple is not above his 24 master, nor a <sup>8</sup> servant above his lord. It is enough for the 25 disciple that he be as his <sup>7</sup> master, and the <sup>8</sup> servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house <sup>9</sup> Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household! Fear 26 them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I 27 tell you in the darkness, speak ye in the light: and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim upon the housetops. And be not 28 afraid of them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in <sup>10</sup> hell. Are 29 not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father: but the very 30 hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; ye 31 are of more value than many sparrows. Every one therefore 32 who shall confess <sup>11</sup> me before men, <sup>1</sup>him will I also confess before my Father which is in 33 heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I came to <sup>2</sup>send peace on the earth: I came not to <sup>2</sup>send peace, but 35 a sword. For I came to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her 36 mother in law: and a man's foes shall be they of his own 37 household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy 38 of me. And he that doth not take his cross and follow after me, is not worthy of me. He that <sup>3</sup>findeth his <sup>4</sup>life shall lose it; and he that <sup>5</sup>loseth his 39 <sup>4</sup>life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that 41 sent me. He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
 42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and preach in their cities.

he that cometh, or look we for another? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have <sup>6</sup>good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, who- <sup>6</sup>soever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me. And as <sup>7</sup>these went their way, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for <sup>8</sup>to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft raiment are in kings' houses. <sup>7</sup>But wherefore went <sup>9</sup>ye out? to see a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, of <sup>10</sup>whom it is written,

Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,

Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

Verily I say unto you, A- <sup>11</sup>mong them that are born of women there hath not arisen a greater than John the Baptist: yet he that is <sup>8</sup>but little in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from <sup>12</sup>the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and men of violence take it by force. For <sup>13</sup>all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. And <sup>14</sup>if ye are willing to receive <sup>9</sup>it, this is Elijah, which is to come. He that hath ears <sup>10</sup>to hear, <sup>15</sup>let him hear. But whereunto <sup>16</sup>shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the marketplaces, which call unto their fellows, and <sup>17</sup>say, We piped unto you, and

- ye did not dance; we wailed, 18 and ye did not <sup>1</sup>mourn. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He 19 hath a <sup>2</sup>devil. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom <sup>3</sup>is justified by her <sup>4</sup>works.
 20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his <sup>5</sup>mighty works were done, be-21 cause they repented not. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the <sup>6</sup>mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth 22 and ashes. Howbeit I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgement, than for you.
 23 And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven?
 thou shalt <sup>6</sup>go down unto Hades: for if the <sup>5</sup>mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in thee, it would have remained until 24 this day. Howbeit I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement, than for thee.
 25 At that season Jesus answered and said, I <sup>7</sup>thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst 26 reveal them unto babes: yea, Father, <sup>8</sup>for so it was well-27 pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth the Son, save the Father; neither doth any know the Father, save the Son, unto your souls. For my yoke <sup>30</sup> is easy, and my burden is light.

At that season Jesus went <sup>12</sup> on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck ears of corn, and to eat. But the Phari- <sup>2</sup> sees, when they saw it, said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which it is not lawful to do upon the sabbath.
 But he said unto them, Have <sup>3</sup> ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him; how <sup>4</sup> he entered into the house of God, and <sup>9</sup>did eat the shewbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for the priests? Or <sup>5</sup> have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? But I say unto you, <sup>6</sup> that <sup>10</sup>one greater than the temple is here. But if ye had <sup>7</sup> known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless. For the <sup>8</sup> Son of man is lord of the sabbath.

And he departed thence, and <sup>9</sup> went into their synagogue: and behold, a man having a <sup>10</sup> withered hand. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might accuse him. And he <sup>11</sup> said unto them, What man shall there be of you, that shall have one sheep, and if this fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out? How <sup>12</sup> much then is a man of more value than a sheep! Wherefore it is lawful to do good on the 13 sabbath day. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored 14 whole, as the other. But the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him. And Jesus perceiving it withdrew from thence: and many followed him; and he healed them all, 16 and charged them that they should not make him known: 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>1</sup>by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:
 I will put my Spirit upon him,
 And he shall declare judgement to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry aloud;

Neither shall any one hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break,

And smoking flax shall he not quench,

Till he send forth judgement unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles hope.

22 Then was brought unto him <sup>2</sup>one possessed with a devil, blind and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the dumb man spake and saw.

23 And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, Is this the 24 son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said,

This man doth not cast out <sup>3</sup>devils, but <sup>4</sup>by Beelzebub the 25 prince of the <sup>3</sup>devils. And knowing their thoughts he said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: and if Satan casteth out Satan, 26 he is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand? And if I <sup>4</sup>by Beelzebub cast out <sup>3</sup>devils, <sup>4</sup>by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I <sup>4</sup>by the Spirit 28 of God cast out <sup>3</sup>devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. Or how can one 29 enter into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. He that is not 30 with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. Therefore I say 31 unto you, Every sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven <sup>6</sup>unto men; but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven. And whosoever shall 32 speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this <sup>6</sup>world, nor in that which is to come. Either 33 make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit. Ye offspring of vipers, 34 how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The good 35 man out of his good treasure bringeth forth good things: and the evil man out of his evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. And I say unto 36 you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgement. For by thy 37 words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, <sup>1</sup>Master, we would see 39 a <sup>2</sup>sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it but the sign of Jonah the prophet: for as Jonah 40 was three days and three nights in the belly of the <sup>2</sup>whale; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the 41 heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, <sup>3</sup>a 42 greater than Jonah is here. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, <sup>3</sup>a 43 greater than Solomon is here. But the unclean spirit, when 44 he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it 45 not. Then <sup>4</sup>he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when <sup>4</sup>he is come, <sup>4</sup>he findeth it empty, 46 swept, and garnished. Then goeth <sup>4</sup>he, and taketh with 47 himself seven other spirits more evil than <sup>5</sup>himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth 49 his hand towards his disciples, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren! For whoso-50 ever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

On that day went Jesus 13 out of the house, and sat by the sea side. And there were 2 gathered unto him great multitudes, so that he entered into a boat, and sat; and all the multitude stood on the beach. And he spake to them many 3 things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he sowed, some 4 seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the 5 rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, <sup>6</sup>they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And others 7 fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up, and choked them: and others fell upon the 8 good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He that hath 9 ears, let him hear.

And the disciples came, and 10 said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? And he answered and said 11 unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For 12 whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath. Therefore speak I 13 to them in parables; because seeing they see not, and hearing they hear not, neither do 14 they understand. And unto them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive: 15 For this people's heart is waxed gross,

And their ears are dull of hearing,

And their eyes they have closed;

Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,

And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,

And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for 17 they hear. For verily I say unto you, that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear,

18 and heard them not. Hear then ye the parable of the 19 sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the evil one, and snatcheth away that which hath been sown in his heart. This is he that was sown by the way side.

20 And he that was sown upon the rocky places, this is he that heareth the word, and straightway with joy receiveth

21 it; yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a while; and when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway he

22 stumbleth. And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that heareth the word; and the care of the <sup>1</sup>world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. And he 23 that was sown upon the good ground, this is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who verily beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

Another parable set he be-24 fore them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field: but while men 25 slept, his enemy came and sowed <sup>2</sup>tares also among the wheat, and went away. But 26 when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. And the 27 <sup>3</sup>servants of the household-er came and said unto him, Sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? And he said

28 unto them, <sup>4</sup>An enemy hath done this. And the <sup>3</sup>servants say unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he saith, Nay; lest 29 haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. Let both grow to-30 gether until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Another parable set he be-31 fore them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field: which indeed is less 32 than all seeds; but when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and lodge in the branches thereof.

Another parable spake he 33 unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three <sup>1</sup>measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus in parables unto the multitudes; and without a parable spake he nothing unto them: 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>2</sup>by the prophet, saying,

I will open my mouth in parables;

I will utter things hidden from the foundation <sup>3</sup>of the world.

36 Then he left the multitudes, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. And he answered and said, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one;

39 and the enemy that sowed them is the devil: and the harvest is <sup>4</sup>the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in <sup>4</sup>the

41 end of the world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and them

42 that do iniquity, and shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears, let him hear.

44 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found, and hid; and <sup>5</sup>in his joy he goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a merchant seeking goodly pearls: and having found one 46 pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a <sup>6</sup>net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: which, when 48 it was filled, they drew up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but the bad they cast away. So shall it be in <sup>4</sup>the 49 end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the righteous, and shall cast them into 50 the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Have ye understood all these 51 things? They say unto him, Yea. And he said unto them, 52 Therefore every scribe who hath been made a disciple to the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

And it came to pass, when 53 Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence. And 54 coming into his own country he taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these <sup>7</sup>mighty works? Is 55 not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they 56 not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were <sup>8</sup>offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. 57 58 And he did not many <sup>1</sup>mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14 At that season Herod the tetrarch heard the report

2 concerning Jesus, and said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore do these powers work in him.

3 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's 4 wife. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to 5 have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a pro-

6 phet. But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, 7 and pleased Herod. Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever

8 she should ask. And she, being put forward by her mother, saith, Give me here in a charger the head of John the 9 Baptist. And the king was grieved; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them which sat at meat with him, he com-

10 manded it to be given; and he sent, and beheaded John in 11 the prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she 12 brought it to her mother. And his disciples came, and took up the corpse, and buried him; and they went and told Jesus.

13 Now when Jesus heard it, he withdrew from thence in a boat, to a desert place apart: and when the multitudes heard to him, saying, The place is desert, and the time is already past; send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food. But Jesus said 16 unto them, They have no need to go away; give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, 17 We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. And he said, 18 Bring them hither to me. And 19 he commanded the multitudes to <sup>3</sup>sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they 20 did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And 21 they that did eat were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

And straightway he con- 22 strained the disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side, till he should send the multitudes away. And after he had sent 23 the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and when even was come, he was there alone. But 24 the boat <sup>4</sup>was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch 25 of the night he came unto them, walking upon the sea. And when the disciples saw 26 him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is an apparition; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Je- 27 sus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be 28 thou, bid me come unto thee upon the waters. And he said, 29

Come. And Peter went down from the boat, and walked upon the waters,<sup>1</sup> to come to Jesus. But when he saw the wind<sup>2</sup>, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and took hold of him, and saith unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they were gone up into the boat, the wind ceased. And they that were in the boat worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

And when they had crossed over, they came to the land, unto Gennesaret. And when the men of that place knew him, they sent into all that region round about, and brought unto him all that were sick; and they besought him that they might only touch the border of his garment: and as many as touched were made whole.

Then there come to Jesus from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes, saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. And he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? For God said, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, He that speaketh evil of father or mother, let him<sup>3</sup> die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, That wherewith thou mightest have been profited by me is given to God; he shall not honour his father<sup>4</sup>. And he called to him the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: Not that which entereth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth out of the mouth, this defileth the man. Then came the disciples and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every<sup>7</sup> plant which my heavenly Father planted not, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they are blind guides. And if the blind guide the blind, both shall fall into a pit. And Peter answered and said unto him, Declare unto us the parable. And he said, Are ye also even yet without understanding? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever goeth into the mouth passeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings: these are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not the man.

And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David; my daughter is griev-

23 ously vexed with a <sup>1</sup>devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us. But he answered and said, I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel. But she came and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's <sup>2</sup>bread and cast it to the dogs. But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and he healed them: insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 And Jesus called unto him his disciples, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat: and I would not send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way.

ye? And they said, Seven, and a few small fishes. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; and he took the seven loaves and the fishes; and he gave thanks and brake, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. And he sent away the multitudes, and entered into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and tempting him asked him to shew them a sign from heaven. But he answered and said unto them, <sup>3</sup> When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the heaven is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather to-day: for the heaven is red and lowring. Ye know how to discern the face of the heaven; but ye cannot discern the signs of the times. An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

And the disciples came to the other side and forgot to take <sup>4</sup>bread. And Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. And they reasoned among themselves, saying, <sup>5</sup> We took no bread. And Jesus perceiving it said, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have no <sup>4</sup>bread? Do ye not yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many <sup>1</sup>baskets 10 ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many <sup>1</sup>baskets ye took 11 up? How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning <sup>2</sup>bread? But beware of the heaven of the 12 Pharisees and Sadducees. Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the heaven of <sup>2</sup>bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say <sup>3</sup>that the 14 Son of man is? And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah: and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But who 16 say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the 17 living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in 18 heaven. And I also say unto thee, that thou art <sup>4</sup>Peter, and upon this <sup>5</sup>rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against 19 it. I will give unto thee the Then said Jesus unto his dis- <sup>24</sup> ciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever <sup>25</sup> would save his <sup>8</sup>life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his <sup>8</sup>life for my sake shall find profited, if he shall gain the give in exchange for his <sup>8</sup>life?

 For the Son of man shall <sup>27</sup>

And after six days Jesus <sup>17</sup> taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart: and he <sup>2</sup> was transfigured before them:
 and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light. And be- <sup>3</sup> hold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him. And Peter an- <sup>4</sup> swered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three <sup>10</sup>tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. While he <sup>5</sup> was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

 6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and 7 were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and be not afraid.
 8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only.
 9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen 10 from the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah 11 must first come? And he answered and said, Elijah indeed cometh, and shall restore all 12 things: but I say unto you, that Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but did unto him whatsoever they listed. Even so shall the Son of man also suffer of them.
 13 Then understood the disciples that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.
 14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a man, kneeling to 15 him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is epileptic, and suffereth grievously: for oft-times he falleth into the fire, and oft-times into 16 the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could 17 not cure him. And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you?
 18 bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked him; and the

And while they <sup>3</sup>abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men; and they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised up. And they were exceeding sorry.

And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received the <sup>4</sup>half-shekel came to Peter, and said, Doth not your <sup>5</sup>master pay the <sup>4</sup>half-shekel? He saith, Yea. And when he came into the house, Jesus spake first to him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? the kings of the earth, from whom do they receive toll or tribute? from their sons, or from strangers? And when he said, From strangers, Jesus said unto him, Therefore the sons are free. But, lest we cause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a <sup>6</sup>shekel: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

In that hour came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who then is <sup>7</sup>greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And he called to him a little child, and set him in the midst of them, and said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the <sup>7</sup>greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

- 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name 6 receiveth me: but whoso shall cause one of these little ones which believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that <sup>1</sup>a great millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the 7 depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom 8 the occasion cometh! And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be 9 cast into the eternal fire. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the 10 <sup>2</sup>hell of fire. See that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.<sup>3</sup>

if he hear thee not, take with thee one or two more, that at the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may be established. And if he refuse to hear them, tell it unto the <sup>7</sup>church: and if he refuse to hear the <sup>7</sup>church also, let him be unto thee as the Gentile and the publican. Verily I say unto you, What things soever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and what things soever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

Then came Peter, and said to him, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? until seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but, Until <sup>8</sup>seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would make a reckoning with his <sup>9</sup>servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand <sup>10</sup>talents. But forasmuch as he had not wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The <sup>11</sup>servant therefore fell down and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that <sup>11</sup>servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the <sup>12</sup>debt. But that <sup>11</sup>servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him a hundred <sup>1</sup>pence: and he laid hold on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay what thou owest. So his fellow-servant fell down and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay that which was due. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were exceeding sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him unto him, and saith to him, Thou wicked <sup>2</sup>servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldst not thou also have had mercy on thy fellow-servant, even as I had mercy on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due. So shall also my heavenly Father do unto you, if ye forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

19 And it came to pass when Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judæa beyond Jordan; and great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there. And there came unto him <sup>3</sup>Pharisees, tempting him, and saying, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said, Have ye not read, that he which <sup>4</sup>made them from the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh? So that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses for your hardness of heart suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it hath not been so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, <sup>5</sup>except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: <sup>6</sup>and he that marrieth her when she is put away committeth adultery. The disciples say unto him, If the case of the man is so with his wife, it is not expedient to marry. But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, but they to whom it is given. For there are eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, which were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, which made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

And behold, one came to him and said, <sup>7</sup><sup>8</sup>Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, <sup>9</sup>Why askest thou me concerning that which is good? One there is who is good: but if thou wouldest enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? And Jesus said, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I observed: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wouldest be perfect, go, sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions.

23 And Jesus said unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, It is hard for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And when the disciples heard it, they were astonished exceedingly, saying, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them said to them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother,<sup>1</sup> or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive <sup>2</sup>a hundredfold, and shall inherit eternal life. shall be last that are first; and first that are last. For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a <sup>3</sup>penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing in the marketplace idle; and to them he said, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing; and he saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard. And when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a <sup>3</sup>penny. And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a <sup>3</sup>penny. And when they received it, they murmured against the householder, saying, These last have spent but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden of the day and the <sup>4</sup>scorching heat. But he answered and said to one of them, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a <sup>3</sup>penny? Take up that which is thine, and go thy way; it is my will to give unto this last, even as 16 unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? or is thine eye evil, be-16 cause I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last.

17 And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples apart, and in the way he said unto them, 18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and scribes; and they shall condemn him to 19 death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall be raised up.

20 Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshipping him, and asking a certain 21 thing of him. And he said unto her, What wouldest thou?
 She saith unto him, Command that these my two sons may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in 22 thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink? They say unto him, 23 We are able. He saith unto them, My cup indeed ye shall drink: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand, is not mine to give, but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indig-

 that the rulers of the Gentiles be among you: but whoso-be first among you shall be

And as they went out from 29 Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And behold, two 30 blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David. And 31 the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried out the-more, saying, Lord, have mercy on us, thou son of David.
 And Jesus stood still, and call- 32 ed them, and said, What will ye that I should do unto you?
 They say unto him, Lord, that 33 our eyes may be opened. And 34 Jesus, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes: and straightway they received their sight, and followed him.

And when they drew nigh 21 unto Jerusalem, and came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying unto them, 2 Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.
 And if any one say aught 3 unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.
 Now this is come to pass, that 4 it might be fulfilled which was spoken <sup>3</sup> by the prophet, saying,

Tell ye the daughter of 5 Zion,

Behold, thy King cometh unto thee,

Meek, and riding upon an ass,

And upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them, and brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? And the multitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.

12 And Jesus entered into the temple <sup>1</sup> of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he saith unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of robbers. And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple: and he healed them. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? And he left them, and went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned to the city, he hungered. And seeing <sup>2</sup> a fig tree by the way side, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only; and he saith unto it, Let there be no fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And immediately the fig tree withered away. And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How did the fig tree immediately wither away? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou taken up and cast into the sea, it shall be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one <sup>3</sup> question, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From men; we fear the multitude; for all hold John as a prophet. And they answered Jesus, and said, We know not. He also said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, 29 <sup>1</sup>Son, go work to-day in the vineyard. And he answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented himself, and went.

 30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: 31 and went not. Whether of the twain did the will of his father? They say, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before 32 you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye saw it, did not even repent yourselves afterward, that ye might believe him.
 33 Hear another parable: There was a man that was a householder, which planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country.
 34 And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his <sup>2</sup>servants to the husbandmen, 35 to receive <sup>3</sup>his fruits. And the husbandmen took his <sup>2</sup>servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other <sup>2</sup>servants more than the first: and they did unto them in like manner. But afterward he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son. But the husbandmen, when they saw the son, said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and take his inheritance.
 39 And they took him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. When therefore the lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, 42 Did ye never read in the scriptures,

The stone which the builders rejected,
 The same was made the head of the corner:
 This was from the Lord,
 And it is marvellous in our eyes?

Therefore say I unto you, 43 The kingdom of God shall be taken away from you, and shall be given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. <sup>4</sup>And he that falleth on 44 this stone shall be broken to pieces: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust. And when the chief 45 priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. And 46 when they sought to lay hold on him, they feared the multitudes, because they took him for a prophet.

And Jesus answered and 22 spake again in parables unto them, saying, The kingdom of 2 heaven is likened unto a certain king, which made a marriage feast for his son, and 3 sent forth his <sup>2</sup>servants to call them that were bidden to the marriage feast: and they would not come. Again he sent forth 4 other <sup>2</sup>servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have made ready my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast. But they made light of it, and 5 went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise: and the rest laid hold on 6 his <sup>2</sup>servants, and entreated them shamefully, and killed 7 them. But the king was wroth; and he sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, 8 and burned their city. Then saith he to his <sup>1</sup>servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not 9 worthy. Go ye therefore unto the partings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, 10 bid to the marriage feast. And those <sup>1</sup>servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good:

 and the wedding was filled 11 with guests. But when the king came in to behold the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding-12 garment: and he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding-garment? And he was 13 speechless. Then the king said to the <sup>2</sup>servants, Bind him hand and foot, and cast him out into the outer darkness; there shall be the weeping and 14 gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few chosen.
 15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they truth, and carest not for any 17 the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou?

 Is it lawful to give tribute un-them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. And <sup>22</sup> when they heard it, they mar-velled, and left him, and went their way.

On that day there came to <sup>23</sup> him Sadducees, <sup>5</sup> which say that there is no resurrection: and they asked him, saying, <sup>24</sup> <sup>3</sup> Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother <sup>6</sup> shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. Now there were with <sup>25</sup> us seven brethren: and the first married and deceased, and having no seed left his wife unto his brother; in like man- <sup>26</sup> ner the second also, and the third, unto the <sup>7</sup> seventh. And <sup>27</sup> after them all the woman died.
 In the resurrection therefore <sup>28</sup> whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.
 But Jesus answered and said <sup>29</sup> unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the <sup>30</sup> resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels <sup>8</sup> in heaven.
 But as touching the resurrec- <sup>31</sup> tion of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am <sup>32</sup> the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of <sup>33</sup> the dead, but of the living. And when the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.

But the Pharisees, when they <sup>34</sup> heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, gathered themselves together. And one <sup>35</sup> of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, <sup>36</sup> Master, which is the great commandment in the law?
 And he said unto him, Thou <sup>37</sup> shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the great and first commandment. <sup>1</sup>And a second like unto it is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hangeth the whole law, and the prophets.

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I put thine enemies underneath thy feet?

If David then calleth him Lord, how is he his son? And no one was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Then spake Jesus to the multitudes and to his disciples, saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat: all things therefore whatsoever they bid you, these do and observe: but do not ye after their works; for they say, and do not. Yea, they bind heavy burdens <sup>2</sup>and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with their finger. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: for they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, and love the chief place at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called of men, Rabbi. Woe unto you, ye blind <sup>16</sup>guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the <sup>9</sup>temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the <sup>9</sup>temple, he is <sup>10</sup>a debtor. Ye <sup>17</sup>fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the <sup>9</sup>temple that hath sanctified the gold? And, Whosoever <sup>18</sup>shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift that is upon it, he is <sup>10</sup>a debtor. Ye blind: <sup>19</sup>for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? He therefore that <sup>20</sup>swareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon. And he that sweareth by the <sup>9</sup>temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that sweareth <sup>22</sup>by the heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

- 23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye tithe mint and <sup>1</sup>anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, judgement, and mercy, and faith: but these ye ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone.
- 24 Ye blind guides, which strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel.
- 25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full from extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside thereof may become clean also.
- 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but inwardly ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.
- 29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and garnish the tombs of the righteous, and say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we should not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
- 31 Wherefore ye witness to yourselves, that ye are sons of them that slew the prophets.
- 32 Fill ye up then the measure
- 33 of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye offspring of vipers, how shall ye escape the judgement of <sup>2</sup>hell? Therefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: some of them shall ye kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city: that upon you <sup>35</sup> may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the righteous unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar. Verily <sup>36</sup> I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, <sup>37</sup> which killeth the prophets, and stoneth them that are sent unto her! how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left <sup>38</sup> unto you <sup>3</sup>desolate. For I say <sup>39</sup> unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

And Jesus went out from <sup>24</sup> the temple, and was going on his way; and his disciples came to him to shew him the buildings of the temple. But he answered and said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat on the <sup>3</sup> mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy <sup>4</sup>coming, and of <sup>5</sup>the end of the world? And <sup>4</sup> Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. For many <sup>5</sup> shall come in my name, saying, I am the Christ; and shall lead many astray. And <sup>6</sup> ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for these things must needs come to pass; but 7 the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines and earthquakes in divers 8 places. But all these things are the beginning of travail.

 9 Then shall they deliver you up unto tribulation, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all the nations for 10 my name's sake. And then shall many stumble, and shall deliver up one another, and 11 shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall arise, and shall lead many 12 astray. And because iniquity shall be multiplied, the love of the many shall wax cold.
 13 But he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.
 14 And <sup>1</sup>this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole <sup>2</sup>world for a testimony unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.
 15 When therefore ye see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of <sup>3</sup>by Daniel the prophet, standing in <sup>4</sup>the holy place (let him that 16 readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee 17 unto the mountains: let him that is on the housetop not go down to take out the things 18 that are in his house: and let him that is in the field not return back to take his cloke.
 19 But woe unto them that are with child and to them that 20 give suck in those days! And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on a sab-21 bath: for then shall be great tribulation, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor 22 ever shall be. And except those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

 Then if any man shall say 23 unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or, Here; believe <sup>5</sup>it not. For there shall arise 24 false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told 25 you beforehand. If therefore 26 they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the wilderness; go not forth: Behold, he is in the inner chambers; believe <sup>6</sup>it not. For as the lightning 27 cometh forth from the east, and is seen even unto the west; so shall be the <sup>7</sup>coming of the Son of man. Where- 28 soever the carcase is, there will the <sup>8</sup>eagles be gathered together.

But immediately, after the 29 tribulation of those days, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: and 30 then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
 And he shall send forth his 31 angels <sup>9</sup>with <sup>10</sup>a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Now from the fig tree learn 32 her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even so ye also, when ye see 33 all these things, know ye that <sup>11</sup>he is nigh, even at the doors.
 Verily I say unto you, This 34 generation shall not pass away, till all these things be accom-

35 plished. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words 36 shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, <sup>1</sup>neither the Son, 37 but the Father only. And as were the days of Noah, so shall be the <sup>2</sup>coming of the Son of 38 man. For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah 39 entered into the ark, and they knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall be the <sup>2</sup>coming of the Son 40 of man. Then shall two men be in the field; one is taken, 41 and one is left: two women shall be grinding at the mill; one is taken, and one is left.
 42 Watch therefore: for ye know not on what day your Lord 43 cometh. <sup>3</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be <sup>4</sup>bro-44 ken through. Therefore be ye also ready: for in an hour that ye think not the Son of 45 man cometh. Who then is the faithful and wise <sup>5</sup>servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in due season?
 46 Blessed is that <sup>5</sup>servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall 47 find so doing. Verily I say unto you, that he will set him 48 over all that he hath. But if that evil <sup>5</sup>servant shall say in his heart, My lord tarrieth; 49 and shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and shall eat and drink with the drunken; 50 the lord of that <sup>5</sup>servant shall come in a day when he ex-pecteth not, and in an hour 51 when he knoweth not, and shall <sup>6</sup>cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be the Then shall the kingdom <sup>25</sup> of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their 7 lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And <sup>2</sup> five of them were foolish, and five were wise. For the foolish, <sup>3</sup> when they took their 7 lamps, took no oil with them: but <sup>4</sup> the wise took oil in their vessels with their 7 lamps. Now <sup>5</sup> while the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

 But at midnight there is a cry, <sup>6</sup> Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him. Then <sup>7</sup> all those virgins arose, and trimmed their 7 lamps. And <sup>8</sup> the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our 7 lamps are going out. But the <sup>9</sup> wise answered, saying, Peradventure there will not be enough for us and you: go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And <sup>10</sup> while they went away to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the door was shut. After-11 ward come also the other vir-gins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and <sup>12</sup> said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not. Watch there-13 fore, for ye know not the day nor the hour.

For it is as when a man, <sup>14</sup> going into another country, called his own <sup>8</sup>servants, and delivered unto them his goods.
 And unto one he gave five <sup>15</sup> talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his several ability; and he went on his journey. Straight-16 way he that received the five talents went and traded with them, and made other five talents. In like manner he also <sup>17</sup> that received the two gained 18 other two. But he that received the one went away and digged in the earth, and hid 19 his lord's money. Now after a long time the lord of those <sup>1</sup>servants cometh, and maketh a 20 reckoning with them. And he that received the five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deli-veredst unto me five talents : lo, I have gained other five ta-21 lents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful <sup>2</sup>servant : thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things : enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

 22 And he also that received the two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents : lo, I have gained 23 other two talents. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful <sup>2</sup>servant ;
 thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things : enter thou 24 into the joy of thy lord. And he also that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art a hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering where thou didst not 25 scatter : and I was afraid, and went away and hid thy talent in the earth : lo, thou hast 26 thine own. But his lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful <sup>2</sup>servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather 27 where I did not scatter ; thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back mine own with 28 interest. Take ye away therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that 29 hath the ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abunhath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away. And 30 cast ye out the unprofitable <sup>2</sup>servant into the outer dark-ing and gnashing of teeth.

But when the Son of man 31 shall come in his glory, and all the angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory : and before him 32 shall be gathered all the nations : and he shall separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the <sup>3</sup>goats : and he shall 33 set the sheep on his right hand, but the <sup>3</sup>goats on the left. Then shall the King say 34 unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world : for I was an 35 hungred, and ye gave me meat : I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink : I was a stranger, and ye took me in ; naked, and ye 36 clothed me : I was sick, and ye visited me : I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then 37 shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee ? or athirst, and gave thee drink ? And when saw 38 we thee a stranger, and took thee in ? or naked, and clothed thee ? And when saw we 39 thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee ? And the 40 King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these my brethren, even these least, ye did it unto me. Then shall he say 41 also unto them on the left hand, <sup>4</sup>Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels : for I was an 42 hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye 43 gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and 44 ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer 45 them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of these least, ye did 46 it not unto me. And these shall go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days the passover cometh, and the Son of man is delivered 3 up to be crucified. Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the elders of the people, unto the court of the high priest, who was called 4 Caiaphas; and they took counsel together that they might take Jesus by subtilty, 5 and kill him. But they said, Not during the feast, lest a tumult arise among the people.
 6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, there came 7 unto him a woman having an alabaster cruse of exceeding precious ointment, and she poured it upon his head, 8 as he sat at meat. But when the disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what 9 purpose is this waste? For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to 10 the poor. But Jesus perceiving it said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. For ye have the 11 poor always with you; but me ye have not always. For 12 in that she <sup>2</sup>poured this ointment upon my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. Verily I say unto you, Where- 13 soever <sup>3</sup>this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

Then one of the twelve, who 14 was called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, and said, 15 What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they weighed unto him thirty pieces of silver. And from that time he 16 sought opportunity to deliver him unto them.

Now on the first day of 17 unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, Where wilt thou that we make ready for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into 18 the city to such a man, and say unto him, The <sup>4</sup>Master saith, My time is at hand; I keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the 19 disciples did as Jesus appointed them; and they made ready the passover. Now when even 20 was come, he was sitting at meat with the twelve <sup>5</sup>disciples; and as they were eating, 21 he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. And they were exceeding 22 sorrowful, and began to say unto him every one, Is it I, Lord? And he answered and 23 said, He that dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The Son of 24 man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it <sup>6</sup>for that man if he had not been born. And Judas, which 25 betrayed him, answered and said, Is it I, Rabbi? He saith unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took <sup>1</sup> bread, and blessed, and brake it; and he gave to the disciples, and said, Take, eat;

27 this is my body. And he took <sup>2</sup> a cup, and gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of <sup>3</sup> the <sup>4</sup> covenant, which is shed for many unto remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be <sup>5</sup> offended in me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad. But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter answered and said unto him, If all shall be <sup>5</sup> offended in thee, I will never be <sup>5</sup> offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter saith unto him, Even if I must die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto <sup>6</sup> a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go yonder and pray. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and sore troubled. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: abide ye here, and forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt. And 40 he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? <sup>7</sup> Watch and pray, <sup>41</sup> that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came <sup>43</sup> again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And he left them again, and <sup>44</sup> went away, and prayed a third time, saying again the same words. Then cometh he to the <sup>45</sup> disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed unto the hands of sinners. Arise, let us be going: <sup>46</sup> behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

And while he yet spake, lo, <sup>47</sup> Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he <sup>48</sup> that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he: take him. And straightway he came <sup>49</sup> to Jesus, and said, Hail, Rabbi; and <sup>50</sup> kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, do that for which thou art come. Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And behold, one of them <sup>51</sup> that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and smote the <sup>5</sup> servant of the high priest, and struck

52 off his ear. Then saith Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for all they that take the sword shall 53 perish with the sword. Or thinkest thou that I cannot beseech my Father, and he shall even now send me more than twelve legions of angels?
 54 How then should the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus 55 it must be? In that hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and ye took me not. But all this is come to pass, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.
 57 And they that had taken Jesus led him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.
 58 But Peter followed him afar off, unto the court of the high priest, and entered in, and sat with the officers, to see the 59 end. Now the chief priests and the whole council sought false witness against Jesus, that they might put him to 60 death; and they found it not, though many false witnesses came. But afterward came 61 two, and said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it 62 in three days. And the high priest stood up, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness 63 against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the 64 Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Henceforth ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his 65 garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard the blasphemy: what think 66 ye? They answered and said, He is <sup>2</sup>worthy of death. Then did they spit in his face and buffet him: and some smote him <sup>3</sup>with the palms of their hands saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ: who is he that struck thee?

 68

Now Peter was sitting with-69 out in the court: and a maid came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilean. But he denied before 70 them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest. And when 71 he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and saith unto them that were there, This man also was with Jesus the Nazarene. And a-72 gain he denied with an oath, I know not the man. And 73 after a little while they that stood by came and said to Peter, Of a truth thou also art 74 one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began 75 he to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And straightway the cock crew. And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

Now when morning was 27 come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: and they 2 bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pilate the governor:

Then Judas, which betrayed 3 him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief 4 priests and elders, saying, I have sinned in that I betrayed <sup>1</sup>innocent blood. But they said, What is that to us?

 5 see thou to it. And he cast down the pieces of silver into the sanctuary, and departed; and he went away and hanged 6 himself. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, It is not lawful to put them into the <sup>2</sup>treasury, since 7 it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, 8 to bury strangers in. Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.
 9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken <sup>3</sup>by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And <sup>4</sup>they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was priced, 5 whom certain of the children of Israel did price; and <sup>6</sup>they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.
 11 Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou 12 sayest. And when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.
 13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against 14 thee? And he gave him no answer, not even to one word: insomuch that the governor 15 marvelled greatly. Now at <sup>7</sup>the feast the governor was wont to release unto the multitude one prisoner, whom they 16 would. And they had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate 17 said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that for envy they had delivered him up. And while he was sitting on the judgement-seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that righteous man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. But the governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? And they said, Barabbas. Pilate saith unto them, What then shall I do unto Jesus which is called Christ? They all say, Let him be crucified. And he said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified. So when Pilate saw that he prevailed nothing, but rather that a tumult was arising, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent <sup>8</sup>of the blood of this righteous man: see ye to it. And all the people answered and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he unto them Barabbas: but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the <sup>9</sup>palace, and gathered unto him the whole <sup>10</sup>band. And they <sup>11</sup>stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And they plaited a crown of thorns and put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they kneeled down before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spat upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head.

- 31 And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his garments, and led him away to crucify him.
- 32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they <sup>1</sup>compelled to go with them, that he might bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a skull, they gave him wine to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted it, he would not drink. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots: and they sat and watched him there. And they set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then are there crucified with him two robbers, one on the right hand, and one on the left.
- 39 And they that passed by railled on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Thou that destroyest the <sup>2</sup>temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself: if thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; <sup>3</sup>himself he cannot save. He is the King of Israel; let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on him. He trusteth on God; let him deliver him now, if he desireth him: for he said, I am the Son of God. And the robbers also that were crucified with him cast upon him the same reproach.
- 45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the <sup>4</sup>land until the ninth hour.
- 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabach-thani? that is, My God, my God, <sup>5</sup>why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elijah. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. And the rest said, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to save him. <sup>6</sup>And Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. And behold, the veil of the <sup>2</sup>temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake; and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints that had fallen asleep were raised; and coming forth out of the tombs after his resurrection they entered into the holy city and appeared unto many. Now the centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, Truly this was <sup>7</sup>the Son of God. And many women were there beholding from afar, which had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

And when even was come, there came a rich man from Arimathæa, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: this man went to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded it to be given up. And Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now on the morrow, which is the day after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together unto Pilate, saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest haply his disciples come and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last error will be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Ye have a guard: go your way, <sup>2</sup>make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, the guard being with them.

28 Now late on the sabbath day, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was as lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the watchers did quake, and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which hath been crucified. He is not here; for he is risen, even as he said. Come, see the place <sup>3</sup>where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples, He is risen from the dead; and lo, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed 8 quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. And behold, Jesus met them, 9 saying, All hail. And they came and took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then saith Jesus unto them, 10 Fear not: go tell my brethren that they depart into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

Now while they were going, 11 behold, some of the guard came into the city, and told unto the chief priests all the things that were come to pass. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this 14 come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and rid you of care. So they took 15 the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying was spread abroad among the Jews, and continueth until this day.

But the eleven disciples went 16 into Galilee, unto the mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw 17 him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. And Jesus 18 came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth. Go ye 19 therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teaching 20 them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you <sup>5</sup>always, even unto <sup>6</sup>the end of the world.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. MARK.

- 1 THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, <sup>1</sup>the Son of God.
- 2 Even as it is written <sup>2</sup>in Isaiah the prophet, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face,
Who shall prepare thy way;
3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make his paths straight;
- 4 John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance
- 5 unto remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the country of Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their
- 6 sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild
- 7 honey. And he preached, saying, There cometh after me he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not <sup>3</sup>worthy to stoop down and
- 8 unloose. I baptized you <sup>4</sup>with water; but he shall baptize you <sup>4</sup>with the <sup>5</sup>Holy Ghost.
- 9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John <sup>6</sup>in the Jordan. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him: and a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased.

And straightway the Spirit <sup>12</sup>driveth him forth into the wilderness. And he was in the <sup>13</sup>wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

Now after that John was <sup>14</sup>delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, The time <sup>15</sup>is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.

And passing along by the <sup>16</sup>sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, <sup>17</sup>Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. And straightway they <sup>18</sup>left the nets, and followed him. And going on a little <sup>19</sup>further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the boat mending the nets. And <sup>20</sup>straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. And <sup>22</sup>they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the 25 Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked <sup>1</sup>him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of 26 him. And the unclean spirit, <sup>2</sup>tearing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

 27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, 28 and they obey him. And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.

29 And straightway, <sup>3</sup>when they were come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway 30 they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were <sup>4</sup>possessed with devils. And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many <sup>5</sup>devils; and he suffered not the <sup>5</sup>devils to speak, because they knew him <sup>6</sup>.

35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there 36 prayed. And Simon and they that were with him followed after him; and they found him, and say unto him, All 37 are seeking thee. And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end came I forth. And he went into their syna-39 gogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out <sup>5</sup>devils.

And there cometh to him <sup>40</sup> a leper, beseeching him, <sup>7</sup>and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And being moved with com-41 passion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway 42 the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. And he <sup>8</sup>strictly charged him, and straightway sent him out, 43 and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which 44 Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the <sup>9</sup>matter, insomuch that 10 Jesus could no more openly enter into <sup>11</sup>a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

And when he entered again <sup>2</sup> into Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was <sup>12</sup>in the house. And many <sup>2</sup> were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake the word unto them. And they come, <sup>3</sup> bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy, borne of four. And when they could not <sup>1</sup> 13 come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the palsy lay. And <sup>5</sup>

Jesus seeing their faith saith unto the sick of the palsy, <sup>6</sup> Son, thy sins are forgiven. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in <sup>7</sup> their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak? he blasphemeth: who can forgive sins but one, even God? And straightway Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, saith unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Whether is easier, to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and <sup>10</sup> walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath <sup>2</sup> power on earth to forgive sins (he saith to the sick of <sup>11</sup> the palsy), I say unto thee, Arise, take up thy bed, and <sup>12</sup> go unto thy house. And he arose, and straightway took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. <sup>13</sup> And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the place of toll, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose and <sup>15</sup> followed him. And it came to pass, that he was sitting at meat in his house, and many <sup>2</sup> publicans and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And the scribes <sup>4</sup> of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and publicans, said unto his disciples, <sup>5</sup> He eateth <sup>6</sup> and drinketh with publicans and sinners. And when Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are <sup>7</sup> whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.

And John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting: and they come and say unto him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. No man seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else that which should fill it up taketh from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. And no man putteth new wine into old <sup>3</sup> wine-skins: else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perisheth, and the skins: but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.

And it came to pass, that he was going on the sabbath day through the cornfields; and his disciples <sup>9</sup> began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful? And he said unto them, Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him? How he entered into the house of God <sup>10</sup> when Abiathar was high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which it is not lawful to eat save for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made 28 for man, and not man for the sabbath: so that the Son of man is lord even of the sabbath.

3 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had his hand withered. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might 8 accuse him. And he saith unto the man that had his hand withered, <sup>1</sup>Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful on the sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? to save a life, or to kill? But

5 they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their heart, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth: and his hand was 6 restored. And the Pharisees went out, and straightway with the Herodians took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

7 And Jesus with his disciples withdrew to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed: and from Judæa,

8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumæa, and beyond Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing <sup>2</sup>what great things he did, came unto

9 him. And he spake to his disciples, that a little boat should wait on him because of the crowd, lest they should throng

10 him: for he had healed many; insomuch that as many as had <sup>3</sup>plagues <sup>4</sup>pressed upon him that they might touch him.

11 And the unclean spirits, whensoever they beheld him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of 12 God. And he charged them much that they should not make him known.

And he goeth up into the <sup>13</sup>mountain, and calleth unto him whom he himself would: and they went unto him. And <sup>14</sup>he appointed twelve, <sup>5</sup>that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, and to have authority to cast out <sup>6</sup>devils: <sup>7</sup>and <sup>16</sup>Simon he surnamed Peter; and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James; and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder: and Andrew, and <sup>18</sup>Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphæus, and Thaddæus, and Simon the <sup>8</sup>Cananæan, and Judas <sup>19</sup>Iscariot, which also betrayed him.

And he cometh <sup>9</sup>into a <sup>20</sup>house. And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his <sup>21</sup>friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And <sup>22</sup>the scribes which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and, <sup>10</sup>By the prince of the <sup>6</sup>devils casteth he out the <sup>6</sup>devils. And he called <sup>23</sup>them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a <sup>24</sup>kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be <sup>25</sup>divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan hath risen up <sup>26</sup>against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. But no one can enter <sup>27</sup>into the house of the strong man, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily I say unto <sup>28</sup>you, All their sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and their blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blas-29 pheme: but whosoever shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin: 30 because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 And there come his mother and his brethren; and, standing without, they sent unto him, 32 calling him. And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren with-33 out seek for thee. And he answereth them, and saith, Who is my mother and my 34 brethren? And looking round on them which sat round about him, he saith, Behold, my mother and my brethren!
 35 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

4 And again he began to teach by the sea side. And there is gathered unto him a very great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land.
 2 And he taught them many things in parables, and said unto them in his teaching, 3 Harken: Behold, the sower 4 went forth to sow: and it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured 5 it. And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because it had 6 no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, it was scorched; and because it had 7 no root, it withered away. And other fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no 8 fruit. And others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing;

 and brought forth, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold. And he said, Who hath 9 ears to hear, let him hear.

And when he was alone, 10 they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parables. And he said unto 11 them, Unto you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all things are done in parables: that seeing they 12 may see, and not perceive;
 and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn again, and it should be forgiven them. And 13 he saith unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how shall ye know all the parables?
 The sower soweth the word. 14 And these are they by the way 15 side, where the word is sown;
 and when they have heard, straightway cometh Satan, and taketh away the word which hath been sown in them. And 16 these in like manner are they that are sown upon the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, straightway receive it with joy; and they 17 have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straightway they stumble. And others are they 18 that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the word, and the cares of the <sup>1</sup> world, and the de-ceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it be-cometh unfruitful. And those 20 are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixty-fold, and a hundredfold.

And he said unto them, Is 21 the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the stand? For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete it shall be measured unto you: and more shall be given unto you. For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he hath.

And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed upon the earth; and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knoweth not how. The earth <sup>1</sup>bear-eth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit <sup>2</sup>is ripe, straightway he <sup>3</sup>putteth forth the sickle, because the harvest is come.

And he said, How shall we liken the kingdom of God? or in what parable shall we set it forth? <sup>4</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown upon the earth, though it be less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, yet when it is sown, groweth up, and becometh greater than all the herbs, and putteth out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under the shadow thereof.

And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it: and without a parable spake he not unto them: but privately to his own disciples he expounded all things.

And on that day, when even was come, he saith unto them, Let us go over unto the other side. And leaving the multitude, they take him with them, even as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him. And there ariseth a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, insomuch that the boat was now filling. And he himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion: and they awake him, and say unto him, <sup>5</sup>Master, carest thou not that we perish? And he awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye fearful? have ye not yet faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

And they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. And when he was come out of the boat, straightway there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, who had his dwelling in the tombs: and no man could any more bind him, no, not with a chain; because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and no man had strength to tame him. And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and worshipped him; and crying out with a loud voice, he saith, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, torment me not. For

- he said unto him, Come forth, thou unclean spirit, out of the 9 man. And he asked him, What is thy name? And he saith unto him, My name is Legion; 10 for we are many. And he besought him much that he would not send them away 11 out of the country. Now there was there on the mountain side a great herd of swine 12 feeding. And they besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into 13 them. And he gave them leave. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, in number about two thousand; and they were 14 choked in the sea. And they that fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. And they come to Jesus, 15 and behold <sup>1</sup>him that was possessed with devils sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him that had the legion: 16 and they were afraid. And they that saw it declared unto them how it befell <sup>1</sup>him that was possessed with devils, and 17 concerning the swine. And they began to beseech him to depart from their borders.
 18 And as he was entering into the boat, he that had been possessed with <sup>2</sup>devils besought him that he might be with 19 him. And he suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go to thy house unto thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and how he had mercy 20 on thee. And he went his way, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

over again in the boat unto the other side, a great multitude was gathered unto him: and he was by the sea. And there 22 cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and seeing him, he falleth at his feet, and beseecheth him 23 much, saying, My little daughter is at the point of death: I pray thee, that thou come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be <sup>3</sup>made whole, and live. And he went with him; 24 and a great multitude followed him, and they thronged him.

And a woman, which had an 25 issue of blood twelve years, and had suffered many things 26 of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, having heard 27 the things concerning Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment. For she 28 said, If I touch but his garments, I shall be <sup>3</sup>made whole. And straightway the fountain 29 of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her <sup>4</sup>plague. And straightway Jesus, per-30 ceiving in himself that the power proceeding from him had gone forth, turned him about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments?
 And his disciples said unto 31 him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And 32 he looked round about to see her that had done this thing. But the woman fearing and 33 trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he 34 said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath <sup>5</sup>made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy <sup>4</sup>plague.

While he yet spake, they 35 come from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the <sup>1</sup> Master any further? But Jesus, <sup>2</sup> not heeding the word spoken, saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe. And he suffered no man to follow with him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. And they come to the house of the ruler of the synagogue; and he beholdeth a tumult, and many weeping and walling greatly. And when he was entered in, he saith unto them, Why make ye a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all forth, taketh the father of the child and her mother and them that were with him, and goeth in where the child was. And taking the child by the hand, he saith unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise. And straightway the damsel rose up, and walked; for she was twelve years old. And they were amazed straightway with a great amazement. And he charged them much that no man should know this: and he commanded that something should be given her to eat.

<sup>6</sup> And he went out from thence; and he cometh into his own country; and his disciples follow him. And when the sabbath was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and <sup>8</sup> many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such <sup>4</sup> mighty works wrought by his hands?

Is not this the carpenter, the <sup>3</sup> son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were <sup>5</sup> offended in him. And Jesus said unto them, A <sup>4</sup> prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. And he could <sup>5</sup> there do no <sup>6</sup> mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. And he marvelled because of their unbelief.

And he went round about the villages teaching.

And he called unto him the <sup>7</sup> twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits; and <sup>8</sup> he charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no <sup>7</sup> money in their <sup>8</sup> purse; but to go <sup>9</sup> shod with sandals: and, said he, put not on two coats. And <sup>10</sup> he said unto them, Whosoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart thence. And whatsoever place <sup>11</sup> shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony unto them. And they <sup>12</sup> went out, and preached that men should repent. And they <sup>13</sup> cast out many <sup>9</sup> devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

And king Herod heard there- of; for his name had become known: and <sup>10</sup> he said, John <sup>11</sup> the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers work in him. But <sup>15</sup> others said, It is Elijah. And even as one of the prophets.

16 But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I

 19 wife. And Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him; and she could not; 20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous man and a holy, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he<sup>1</sup> was much perplexed; and

And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou forthwith give me in a charger the head of John<sup>5</sup> the Baptist.
 26 And the king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat at meat, he would not reject

And the apostles gather 30 themselves together unto Jesus; and they told him all things, whatsoever they had done, and whatsoever they had taught. And he saith unto 31 them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. And they went away 32 in the boat to a desert place apart. And the people saw 33 them going, and many knew them, and they ran there together<sup>6</sup> on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. And 34 he came forth and saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things. And 35 when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, The place is desert, and the day is now far spent: send them away, that 36 they may go into the country and villages round about, and buy themselves somewhat to eat. But he answered and said 37 unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred<sup>7</sup> pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? And he 38 saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he 39 commanded them that all should<sup>8</sup> sit down by companies upon the green grass. And 40 they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties. And 41

he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake the loaves; and he gave to the disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all. And they did all eat, and were filled. And they took up broken pieces, twelve basketfuls, and also of the fishes. And they that ate the loaves were five thousand men.

And straightway he constrained his disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before him unto the other side to Bethsaida, while he himself sendeth the multitude away. And after he had taken leave of them, he departed into the mountain to pray. And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. And seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary unto them, about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking on the sea; and he would have passed by them: but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was an apparition, and cried out: for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he straightway spake with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves; for they understood not concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened.

And there are gathered together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which had come from Jerusalem, and had seen that some of his disciples ate their bread with <sup>2</sup>defiled, that is, unwashed, hands. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands <sup>3</sup>diligently, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders: and when they come from the marketplace, except they <sup>4</sup>wash themselves, they eat not: and many other things there be, which they have received to hold, <sup>5</sup>washings of cups, and pots, and brassen vessels<sup>7</sup>. And the Pharisees and the scribes ask him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with <sup>6</sup>defiled hands? And he said unto them, Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

This people honoureth me with their lips,

But their heart is far from me.

But in vain do they worship me,

Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.

Ye leave the commandment of God, and hold fast the tradition of men. And he said unto them, Full well do ye reject the commandment of

- God, that ye may keep your ye say, If a man shall say to man, that going into him can defile him: but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.<sup>2</sup> 17 And when he was entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked of him the 18 parable. And he saith unto them, Are ye so without un-ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into the man, 19 it cannot defile him; because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This and he could not be hid. But <sup>25</sup> straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean came and fell down at his feet.

 Now the woman was a <sup>6</sup>Greek, <sup>26</sup> a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the <sup>6</sup>devil

And again he went out from <sup>31</sup> the borders of Tyre, and came through Sidon unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis. And <sup>32</sup> beseech him to lay his hand aside from the multitude pri-his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue; and look- <sup>34</sup> ing up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Eph-phatha, that is, Be opened.

 And his ears were opened, <sup>35</sup> and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them <sup>36</sup> that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it. And they <sup>37</sup> were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

- 8 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are come from far. And his disciples answered him, Whence shall one be able to fill these men with <sup>1</sup>bread here in a desert place? And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commandeth the multitude to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he brake, and gave to his disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. And they had a few small fishes: and having blessed them, he commanded to set these also before them. And they did eat, and were filled: and they took up, of broken pieces that remained over, seven baskets. And they were about four thousand: and he sent them away. And straightway he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. And he left them, and again entering into the boat departed to the other side.

And they forgot to take 14 bread; and they had not in the boat with them more than one loaf. And he charged 15 them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod. And they reasoned 16 one with another, <sup>2</sup>saying, <sup>3</sup>We have no bread. And 17 Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hardened? Having eyes, 18 see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? When I brake 19 the five loaves among the five thousand, how many <sup>4</sup>baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven 20 among the four thousand, how many <sup>4</sup>basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And they say unto him, Seven. And he said unto them, Do 21 ye not yet understand?

And they come unto Beth- 22 saida. And they bring to him a blind man, and beseech him to touch him. And he took 23 hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, Seest thou aught? And 24 he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them as trees, walking. Then again he 25 laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw all things clearly. And he sent 26 him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.

And Jesus went forth, and 27

his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men say that I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets. And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no man of him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. But he turning about, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and saith, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou mindest not the things of God, but the things of men. And he called unto him the multitude with his disciples, and said unto them, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever would save his <sup>1</sup>life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his <sup>1</sup>life for my sake and the gospel's shall save it. For what doth it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his <sup>1</sup>life? For what should a man give in exchange for his <sup>1</sup>life? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man also shall be ashamed of him, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them: and his garments became glistering, exceeding white; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them. And there appeared unto them Elijah with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus. And Peter answereth and saith to Jesus, Rabbi, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three <sup>2</sup>tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah. For he wist not what to answer; for they became sore afraid. And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and there came a voice out of the cloud, This is my beloved Son: hear ye him. And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, save when the Son of man should have risen again from the dead. And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, <sup>3</sup>The scribes say that Elijah must first come. And he said unto them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things: and how is it written of the Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be set at nought? But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they listed, even as it is written of him.

14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit <sup>3</sup>tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long time is it since this hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion on us, and help us. And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believeth.

24 Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said<sup>4</sup>, I believe; help thou mine unbelief. And when Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And having cried out, and <sup>5</sup>torn him much, he came out: and the child became as one dead; insomuch that the more part said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, <sup>6</sup>saying, We could not cast it out. And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer<sup>6</sup>.

And they went forth from thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he shall rise again. But they understood not the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

And they came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house he asked them, What were ye reasoning in the way? But they held their peace: for they had disputed one with another in the way, who was the <sup>7</sup>greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve; and he saith unto them, If any man would be first, he shall be last of all, and minister of all. And he took a little child, and set him in the midst of them: and taking him in his arms, he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive one of such little children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever receiveth me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

John said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Master, we saw one casting out <sup>8</sup>devils in thy name: and we forbade him, because he fol-thee to enter into the king-answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you? And they said, Moses 4 suffered to write a bill of di-way. But Jesus said unto them, 5 For your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.

 But from the beginning of 6 the creation, Male and female made he them. For this cause 7 shall a man leave his father and mother, <sup>8</sup> and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain 8 shall become one flesh: so that they are no more twain, but one flesh. What there- 9 fore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. And 10 in the house the disciples asked him again of this matter.
 And he saith unto them, Who- 11 soever shall put away his wife, and marry another, commit-teth adultery against her: and 12 if she herself shall put away her husband, and marry another, she committeth adultery.
 And they brought unto him 13 little children, that he should touch them: and the disciples rebuked them. But when Je- 14 sus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me; forbid them not: for of such is the king-receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein. And he 16 took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands upon them.

 And as he was going forth 17 into the way, there ran one to him, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good <sup>10</sup> Master, what shall I do that I may knowest the commandments, Do not kill, Do not commit adultery; Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honour thy father and mother. And he said unto him, <sup>1</sup> Master, all these things have I observed from my youth. And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But his countenance fell at the saying, and he went away sorrowful: for he was one that had great possessions. And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it <sup>2</sup> for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished exceedingly, saying <sup>3</sup> unto him, Then who can be saved? Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God. Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee. Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for my sake, and for the gospel's sake, but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with per-

And they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were amazed; <sup>5</sup> and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were to happen unto him, saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests and the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him unto the Gentiles: and they shall mock him, and shall spit upon him, and shall scourge him, and shall kill him; and after three days he shall rise again.

And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall ask of thee. And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink? or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for whom it hath been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation con-

 43 them. But it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your <sup>1</sup>minister: 44 and whosoever would be first among you, shall be <sup>2</sup>servant of all. For verily the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.
 45 And they come to Jericho: and as he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timæus, Bartimæus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the way side. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have 47 mercy on me. And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have

 50 And he, casting away his garment, sprang up, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered him, and said, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And the blind man said unto him, <sup>3</sup>Rabboni, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath <sup>4</sup>made thee whole.  5 stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt? And they said unto them even 6 as Jesus had said: and they let them go. And they bring 7 the colt unto Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and he sat upon him. And many 8 spread their garments upon the way; and others <sup>7</sup>branches, which they had cut from the fields. And they that went 9 before, and they that followed, cried, Hosanna; Blessed <sup>is</sup> he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Blessed <sup>is</sup> the kingdom that cometh, the kingdom of our father David: Hosanna in the highest.

And he entered into Jerusalem, into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, it being now eventide, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

And on the morrow, when they were come out from Bethany, he hungered. And seeing 13 a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. And 14 he answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit from thee henceforward for ever. And his disciples heard it.

- 15 And they come to Jerusalem: and he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and them that bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves; and he would not suffer that any man should carry a vessel through the temple. And he taught, and said unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers. And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

20 And as they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

rusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders; and they said unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? or who gave thee this authority to do these things? And Jesus said unto them, I will ask of you one <sup>4</sup>question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me. And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? <sup>5</sup>But should we say, From men—they feared the people: <sup>6</sup>for all verily held John to be a prophet. And they answered Jesus and say, We know not. And Jesus saith unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

And he began to speak unto them in parables. A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a <sup>7</sup>servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. And they took him, and beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another <sup>7</sup>servant; and him they wounded in the head, and handled shamefully. And he sent another; and him they killed: and many others; beating some, and killing some. He had yet one, a beloved son: he sent him last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son. But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come,

- let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And they took him, and killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. Have ye not read even this scripture;

- 13 And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they might catch him in talk. And when they were come, they say unto him, <sup>1</sup>Master, we know that thou art true, and carest not for any one: for thou regardest not the person of men, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? ter, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed; and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed behind him; and the third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven. But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.

And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment is the first of all? Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; <sup>3</sup>The Lord our God, the Lord is one: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God <sup>4</sup>with all thy heart, and <sup>4</sup>with all thy soul, and <sup>4</sup>with all thy mind, and <sup>4</sup>with all thy strength. The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, <sup>1</sup>Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none 33 other but he: and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David? David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

The Lord said unto my Lord,

Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies

37 David himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he his son? And <sup>3</sup>the common people heard him gladly.

38 And in his teaching he said, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and to have salutations in the 39 marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts: they which devour widows' houses, <sup>4</sup>and for a pretence make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 And he sat down over against the treasury, and beheld how the multitude cast <sup>5</sup>money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came <sup>6</sup>a

42 poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto him his disciples, and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than all they which are casting into the treasury: for they <sup>44</sup>all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

And as he went forth out <sup>13</sup>of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, <sup>1</sup>Master, behold, what manner of buildings! And Jesus said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left here one stone upon another, which shall not be thrown down.

And as he sat on the mount <sup>3</sup>of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, Tell us, when shall <sup>4</sup>these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are all about to be accomplished? And Jesus began <sup>5</sup>to say unto them, Take heed that no man lead you astray. Many shall come in my name, <sup>6</sup>saying, I am he; and shall lead many astray. And when <sup>7</sup>ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not troubled: these things must needs come to pass; but the end is not yet. For nation <sup>8</sup>shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: there shall be earthquakes in divers places; there shall be famines: these things are the beginning of travail.

But take ye heed to your- <sup>9</sup>selves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in synagogues shall ye be beaten; and before governors and kings shall ye stand for my sake, for a testimony unto them. And ye shall be hated 13 of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end, the same shall be saved.
- 14 But when ye see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not (let him that readeth understand), then let them that are in Judæa flee unto the mountains: and let him that is on the house-top not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of 15 his house: and let him that is in the field not return back 16 to take his cloke. Now from the fig tree learn 28 her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye know that the summer is nigh; even 29 so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that 3 he is nigh, even at the doors. But of that day or that 32 hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Take 33 ye heed, watch 4 and pray: for ye know not when the time is. It is as when a man, so- 34 journeying in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his 5 ser- vants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter to watch. Watch therefore: for 35 ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at cockerowing, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly he 36 find you sleeping. And what 37 I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

Whosoever the gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, <sup>4</sup>he that was one of the twelve, went away unto the chief priests, that he might deliver him 11 unto them. And they, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money.
And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him unto them.

12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples say unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and make ready that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth 13 two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him; and where- 14 soever he shall enter in, say to the goodman of the house, The <sup>5</sup>Master saith, Where is my guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will him- 15 self shew you a large upper room furnished and ready:

and there make ready for us.
And the disciples went forth, 16 and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

And when it was evening he 17 cometh with the twelve. And 18 as they <sup>6</sup>sat and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you shall betray me, even he that eateth with me. They began to be sorrow- 19 ful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? And he said 20 unto them, It is one of the twelve, he that dippeth with me in the dish. For the Son 21 of man goeth, even as it is written of him: but woe unto that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it <sup>7</sup>for that man if he had not been born.

And as they were eating, he 22 took <sup>8</sup>bread, and when he had blessed, he brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take ye: this is my body. And he took 23 a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them: and they all drank of it. And he 24 said unto them, This is my blood of <sup>9</sup>the <sup>10</sup>covenant, which is shed for many. Verily I say 25 unto you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

And when they had sung a 26 hymn, they went out unto the mount of Olives.

- 27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be <sup>1</sup>offended: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered abroad. Howbeit, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.
- 28 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be <sup>1</sup>offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that thou to-day, even this night, before the cock crow twice, shalt deny me thrice. But he spake exceeding vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee. And in like manner also said they all.
- 32 And they come unto <sup>2</sup>a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith unto his disciples,
- 33 Sit ye here, while I pray. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and sore troubled. And he saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: abide ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; remove this cup from me: howbeit not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst thou not watch one hour?
- 38 <sup>3</sup> Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. And again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. And again he came, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they wist not what to answer him. And he cometh <sup>41</sup> the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough; the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Arise, let <sup>42</sup> us be going: behold, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

And straightway, while he <sup>43</sup> yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. Now he that betrayed him had <sup>44</sup> given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that is he; take him, and lead him away safely. And when he was <sup>45</sup> come, straightway he came to him, and saith, Rabbi; and <sup>46</sup> kissed him. And they laid hands on him, and took him. But a certain one of them <sup>47</sup> that stood by drew his sword, and smote the <sup>48</sup> servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to seize me? I was daily with you in the <sup>49</sup> temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is done that the scriptures might be fulfilled. And they all left him, <sup>50</sup> and fled.

And they led Jesus away to <sup>53</sup> the high priest: and there come together with him all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes. And Peter <sup>54</sup> had followed him afar off, even within, into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found it not. For many bare false witness against him, and their witness agreed not together. And there stood up certain, and bare false witness against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands. And not even so did their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and saith unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven. And the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What further need have we of witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be <sup>2</sup>worthy of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the officers received him with <sup>3</sup>blows of their hands.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and saith, Thou also wast with the Nazarene, even Jesus. But he denied, saying, <sup>4</sup>I neither know, nor understand what thou sayest: and he went out into the porch; <sup>6</sup>and the cock crew.

And the maid saw him, and began again to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. But he again denied it. And after a little while again they that stood by said to Peter, Of a truth thou art one of them; for thou art a Galilaean. But he began to curse, and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And straightway the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word, how that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. <sup>7</sup>And when he thought thereon, he wept.

And straightway in the morning the chief priests with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and delivered him up to Pilate. And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering saith unto him, Thou sayest. And the chief priests accused him of many things. And Pilate again asked him, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they accuse thee of. But Jesus no more answered anything; insomuch that Pilate marvelled.

Now at the feast he used to release unto them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. And there was one called Barabbas, lying bound with them that had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. And the multitude went up and began to ask him to do as he was wont to do unto them. And Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered

- 11 him up. But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate again answered and said unto them, What then shall I do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify him. And Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out exceeding-ly, Crucify him. And Pilate, wishing to content the multitude, released unto them Barabbas, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
- 16 And the soldiers led him away within the court, which is the <sup>1</sup>Prætorium; and they call together the whole <sup>2</sup>band.
- 17 And they clothe him with purple, and plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on him; and they began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote his head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, they took off from him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.
- 21 And they <sup>3</sup>compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.
- 23 And they offered him wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not. And they crucify him, and part his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what each should take. And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS. And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the <sup>5</sup>temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He saved others; <sup>6</sup>himself he cannot save. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.

And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole <sup>7</sup>land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, <sup>8</sup>why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah. And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him down. And Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion, which stood by over against him, saw that he <sup>9</sup>so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was <sup>10</sup>the Son of God. And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the <sup>11</sup>less and of Joses, and Salome; who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

- 42 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before 43 the sabbath, there came Joseph of Arimathæa, a councillor of honourable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God; and he boldly went in unto Pilate, and asked 44 for the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been 45 any while dead. And when he learned it of the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. And he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, 46 wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against 47 the door of the tomb. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses beheld where he was laid.

- 16 And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and 2 anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, they come to the tomb when 3 the sun was risen. And they were saying among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the 4 tomb? and looking up, they see that the stone is rolled back: for it was exceeding 5 great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, arrayed in a white robe; and they 6 were amazed. And he saith unto them, Be not amazed: ye seek Jesus, the Nazarene, which hath been crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him! But go, tell his 7 disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out, 8 and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

2 Now when he was risen 9 early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven 3 devils. She went and told them that 10 had been with him, as they mourned and wept. And they, 11 when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, disbelieved.

And after these things he 12 was manifested in another form unto two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. And they 13 went away and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

And afterward he was manifested unto the eleven themselves as they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he 15 said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. And these signs shall 17 follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out 3 devils; they shall speak with 4 new tongues; they shall take 18 up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

- 19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. And they went forth, 20 and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. LUKE.

- 1 FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been <sup>1</sup>fulfilled among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eye-witnesses and ministers of the word, it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus; that thou mightest know the certainty concerning the <sup>2</sup>things <sup>3</sup>wherein thou wast instructed.

- 5 THERE was in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abijah: and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now <sup>4</sup>well stricken in years. 8 Now it came to pass, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the

And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the <sup>7</sup>Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel shall he turn unto the Lord their God. And he shall go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to walk in the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife <sup>9</sup>well stricken 19 in years. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and I was sent to speak unto thee, and to bring thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believedst not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their

21 season. And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marvelled <sup>1</sup>while he tarried

22 in the <sup>2</sup>temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the <sup>2</sup>temple: and he continued making signs unto them, 23 and remained dumb. And it came to pass, when the days of his ministration were fulfilled, he departed unto his house.

24 And after these days Elisabeth his wife conceived; and she hid herself five months, 25 saying, Thus hath the Lord done unto me in the days wherein he looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of 27 Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the 28 virgin's name was Mary. And he came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art <sup>3</sup>highly favoured, the Lord is with thee<sup>4</sup>. But she was greatly 29 troubled at the saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this might be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found <sup>5</sup>favour with God.

He shall <sup>32</sup>be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall <sup>33</sup>reign over the house of Jacob <sup>6</sup>for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end. And <sup>34</sup>Mary said unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man? And the <sup>35</sup>angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow thee: wherefore also <sup>7</sup>that which <sup>8</sup>is to be born <sup>9</sup>shall be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, <sup>36</sup>Elisabeth thy kinswoman, she also hath conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her that <sup>10</sup>was called barren. For no <sup>37</sup>word from God shall be void of power. And Mary said, <sup>38</sup>Behold, the <sup>11</sup>handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

And Mary arose in these <sup>39</sup>days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; and entered into <sup>40</sup>the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabeth. And it came <sup>41</sup>to pass, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost; and she <sup>42</sup>lifted up her voice with a loud cry, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this <sup>43</sup>to me, that the mother of my Lord should come unto me? day, that they came to cirwould have called him Za-his father. And his mother 60 answered and said, Not so;

but he shall be called John.
And they said unto her, There 61 is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they 62 made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

And he asked for a writing 63 tablet, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they mar-velled all. And his mouth was 64 opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, blessing God. And fear came 65 on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa. And all that heard 66 them laid them up in their heart, saying, What then shall this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.

And his father Zacharias 67 was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

Blessed be the Lord, the 68 God of Israel;

For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people,

And hath raised up a horn 69 of salvation for us

In the house of his servant
David

(As he spake by the mouth 70 of his holy prophets which have been since the world began),

Salvation from our ene- 71 mies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

To shew mercy towards our 72 fathers,

And to remember his holy covenant;

The oath which he sware 73 unto Abraham our father, 74 To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies Should serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

76 Yea and thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High:

For thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people

In the remission of their sins,

78 Because of the <sup>1</sup>tender mercy of our God,

<sup>2</sup> Whereby the dayspring from on high <sup>3</sup>shall visit us,

79 To shine upon them that sit in darkness and the shadow of death;

To guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

2 Now it came to pass in those days, there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all <sup>4</sup>the world should be

2 enrolled. This was the first enrolment made when Quirinius

3 was governor of Syria. And all went to enrol themselves,

Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the 5 house and family of David; to enrol himself with Mary, who was betrothed to him, being 6 great with child. And it came to pass, while they were there, the days were fulfilled that 7 she should be delivered. And she brought forth her first-born son; and she wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were shepherds 8 in the same country abiding in the field, and keeping <sup>5</sup>watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the 9 Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel 10 said unto them, Be not afraid; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all the people: for there is born to you this 11 day in the city of David a Saviour, which is <sup>6</sup>Christ the Lord. And this is the sign 12 unto you; Ye shall find a babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger. And suddenly there was 13 with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the high- 14

And on earth <sup>7</sup>peace a-

And it came to pass, when 15 the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this <sup>9</sup>thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, 16 and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. And when they 17 saw it, they made known concerning the saying which was spoken to them about this child. And all that heard it 18 wondered at the things which were spoken unto them by the shepherds. But Mary kept 19 20 all these <sup>1</sup>sayings, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken unto them.

21 And when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising him, his name was called JESUS, which was so called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the 23 Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord), 24 and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young 26 Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, that they might do concerning him after the custom

28 of the law, then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 Now lettest thou thy <sup>2</sup>servant depart, O <sup>3</sup>Lord, According to thy word, in peace; a sign which is spoken against; yea and a sword shall pierce <sup>35</sup> through thine own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed. And there <sup>36</sup> was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was <sup>37</sup>

from her virginity, and she <sup>38</sup> had been a widow even for fourscore and four years), which departed not from the temple, worshipping with fastings and supplications night and day. And coming up at <sup>39</sup> that very hour she gave thanks unto God, and spake of him to all them that were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. And when they had ac- <sup>40</sup> complished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

And the child grew, and <sup>41</sup> waxed strong, <sup>6</sup>filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

And his parents went every <sup>42</sup> year to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years old, they went up after the custom of the feast; and when they had ful- <sup>43</sup> filled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not; but <sup>44</sup> supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought for him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance: and when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking for him. And it came to pass, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the <sup>1</sup> doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions: and all that heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. And when they saw him, they were astonished: and his mother said unto him, <sup>2</sup> Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be <sup>3</sup> in my Father's house? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth; and he was subject unto them: and his mother kept all these <sup>4</sup> sayings in her heart.

And Jesus advanced in wisdom and <sup>5</sup> stature, and in <sup>6</sup> favour with God and men.

<sup>3</sup> Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cæsar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judæa, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituræa and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, in the high-priesthood of Annas and Calaphas, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And he came into all the region round about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins; as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

And all flesh shall see the <sup>6</sup> salvation of God.

He said therefore to the <sup>7</sup> multitudes that went out to be baptized of him, Ye offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore <sup>8</sup> fruits worthy of <sup>7</sup> repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And even now <sup>9</sup> is the axe also laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. And <sup>10</sup> the multitudes asked him, saying, What then must we do? And he answered and <sup>11</sup> said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath food, let him do likewise. And there came also <sup>12</sup> <sup>8</sup> publicans to be baptized, and they said unto him, <sup>9</sup> Master, what must we do? And he <sup>13</sup> said unto them, Extort no more than that which is appointed you. And <sup>10</sup> soldiers also <sup>14</sup> asked him, saying, And we, what must we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither <sup>11</sup> exact any thing wrongfully; and be content with your wages.

And as the people were in <sup>15</sup> expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether haply he were the Christ; John answer- <sup>16</sup>

ed, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but there cometh he that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not <sup>1</sup>worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you <sup>2</sup>with the Holy Ghost and with fire: whose fan is in his hand, throughly to cleanse his threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

18 With many other exhortations therefore preached he <sup>3</sup>good tidings unto the people; but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which 20 Herod had done, added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now it came to pass, when all the people were baptized, that, Jesus also having been baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily form, as a dove, upon him, and a voice came out of heaven, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led <sup>8</sup>by the Spirit in the wilderness during forty days, being tempted of the devil. And he did eat nothing in those days: and when they were completed, he hungered. And the devil said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it become <sup>9</sup>bread. And Jesus answered unto him, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone. And he led him up, and shewed him all the kingdoms of <sup>10</sup>the world in a moment of time. And the devil said unto him, To thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them: for it hath been delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I

7 give it. If thou therefore wilt worship before me, it shall all 8 be thine. And Jesus answered and said unto him, It is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only 9 shalt thou serve. And he led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the <sup>1</sup>pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: for it is written,

He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, to guard thee:

11 and,

On their hands they shall bear thee up, lest haply thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him <sup>2</sup>for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and he entered, as his custom was, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. And there was delivered unto him <sup>3</sup>the book of the prophet Isaiah. And he opened the <sup>4</sup>book, and found the place where it was written,

And he began to say unto them, To-day hath this scripture been fulfilled in your ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son? And he said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto me this parable, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in thine own country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is acceptable in his own country. But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only to <sup>7</sup>Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian. And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; and they rose up, and cast him forth out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw him down headlong. But he passing through the midst of them went his way.

- 31 And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the sabbath day: and they were astonished at his teaching; for his word was with authority. And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean <sup>1</sup>devil; and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>2</sup>Ah! what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the <sup>1</sup>devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is <sup>3</sup>this word? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.
- 37 And there went forth a rumour concerning him into every place of the region round about.
- And he rose up from the synagogue, and entered into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was holden with a great fever; and they besought him for her.
- 39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.
- 40 And when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.
- 41 And <sup>4</sup>devils also came out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Son of God. And rebuking them, he suffered them not to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

And when it was day, he came out and went into a desert place: and the multitudes sought after him, and came unto him, and would have stayed him, that he should not go from them. But he said unto them, I must preach the <sup>5</sup>good tidings of the kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent.

And he was preaching in the synagogues of <sup>6</sup>Galilee.

Now it came to pass, while the multitude pressed upon him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret; and he saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat. And when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.  10 and so were also James and John, sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou 11 shalt catch men. And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, while he was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy: and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou 13 canst make me clean. And he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go thy way, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much the more went abroad the report concerning him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. But he withdrew himself in the deserts, and prayed.

14 And it came to pass on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every village of Galilee and Judæa and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. And behold, men bring on a bed a man that was palsied: and they sought to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

15 And not finding by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And seeing their faith, he said, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But Jesus perceiving their reasonings, answered and said unto them, 3 What reason ye in your hearts? Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins (he said unto him that was palsied), I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go unto thy house. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his house, glorifying God. And amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God; and they were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

And after these things he went forth, and beheld a publican, named Levi, sitting at the place of toll, and said unto him, Follow me. And he forsook all, and rose up and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his house: and there was a great multitude of publicans and of others that were sitting at meat with them. And the Pharisees and their scribes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with the publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole have no need of a physician; but they that are sick. I am not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance. 22 that weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when 23 men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from 24 their company, and reproach you, and cast out your name as 25 evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice in that day, and leap 26 for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for 27 in the same manner did their fathers unto the prophets. But 28 woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

29 Woe unto you, ye that are full now! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you, ye that 30 laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you, when 31 all men shall speak well of you! for in the same manner did their fathers to the false 32 prophets.

33 But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do 34 good to them that hate you, bless them that curse you, 35 pray for them that despitefully use you. To him that 36 smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and from 38 also. Give to every one that asketh thee; and of him that 39 taketh away thy goods ask them not again. And as ye 40 would that men should do to you, do ye also to them like-good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for even sinners do the same. And 34 if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? even sinners lend to sinners, to receive again as much. But love your enemies, 35 and do them good, and lend, <sup>1</sup> never despairing; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be sons of the Most High: for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil. Be ye 36 merciful, even as your Father is merciful. And judge not, 37 and ye shall not be judged: and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: release, and ye shall be released: give, 38 and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again.

And he spake also a parable 39 unto them, Can the blind guide the blind? shall they not both fall into a pit? The disciple 40 is not above his <sup>2</sup>master: but every one when he is perfected shall be as his <sup>2</sup>master. And 41 why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or 42 how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me cast out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. For there 43 is no good tree that bringeth forth corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bringeth forth good fruit. For each tree 44 is known by its own fruit. For

of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. The good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: he is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: <sup>1</sup>because it had been well builded. But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great.

After he had ended all his sayings in the ears of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

And a certain centurion's servant, who was <sup>3</sup>dear unto him, was sick and at the point of death. And when he heard concerning Jesus, he sent unto him elders of the Jews, asking him that he would come and save his <sup>2</sup>servant. And they, when they came to Jesus, besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldest do this for him: for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our synagogue. And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not <sup>4</sup>worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but <sup>5</sup>say the word, and my <sup>6</sup>servant shall be healed. For I also am <sup>8</sup>a man set under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my <sup>2</sup>servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus <sup>9</sup>heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned and said unto the multitude that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the <sup>2</sup>servant whole.

And it came to pass <sup>7</sup>soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great multitude. Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, there was carried out one that was dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came nigh and touched the bier: and the bearers stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. And fear took hold on all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet is arisen among us: and, God hath visited his people. And this report went forth concerning him in the whole of Judaea, and all the region round about.

- 18 And the disciples of John told him of all these things.
- 19 And John calling unto him <sup>1</sup>two of his disciples sent them to the Lord, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? And when the men were come unto him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh, or look we for another? In that hour he cured many of diseases and <sup>2</sup>plagues and evil spirits; and on many that were blind he bestowed sight. And he answered and said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have <sup>3</sup>good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, who-soever shall find none occasion of stumbling in me.
- 24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye out to see? a prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, Who shall prepare thy way before thee.

licans, justified God, <sup>5</sup>being baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected for themselves the counsel of God, <sup>6</sup>being not baptized of him. Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation, and to what are they like? They are like unto children that sit in the marketplace, and call one to another; which say, We piped unto you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not weep. For John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a <sup>7</sup>devil. The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! And wisdom <sup>8</sup>is justified of all her children.

And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And behold, a woman which was in the city, a sinner; and when she knew that he was sitting at meat in the Pharisee's house, she brought <sup>9</sup>an alabaster cruse of ointment, and standing behind at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and <sup>10</sup>kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were <sup>11</sup>a prophet, would have perceived who and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, that she is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, <sup>12</sup>Master, say on. A certain lender had two debtors: the one owed five hundred <sup>1</sup>pence, and the 42 other fifty. When they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him 43 most? Simon answered and said, He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most. And he said unto him, Thou hast 44 rightly judged. And turning to the woman, he said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath wetted my feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair.

 45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to <sup>2</sup>kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.
 46 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say <sup>3</sup>within themselves, Who is this that even forgiveth sins? And he said unto the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.
 47 And it came to pass soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the 48 good tidings of the kingdom of God, and with him the 49 twelve, and certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary that was called Magdalene, from whom seven <sup>5</sup>devils had gone out, and Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, which ministered unto <sup>6</sup>them of their substance.

came together, and they of every city resorted unto him, he spake by a parable: The 5 sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden under foot, and the birds of the heaven devoured it. And other fell on the 6 rock; and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other 7 fell amidst the thorns; and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. And other fell into 8 the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit a hundredfold. As he said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
 And his disciples asked him <sup>9</sup>what this parable might be. And he said, Unto you it is 10 given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is 11 this: The seed is the word of God. And those by the way 12 side are they that have heard; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. And 13 those on the rock are they which, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And 14 that which fell among the thorns, these are they that have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. And 15 that in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bring forth fruit with patience.

- 16 And no man, when he hath lighted a lamp, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but putteth it on a stand, that they which enter in may see the light.
- 17 For nothing is hid, that shall not be made manifest; nor anything secret, that shall not be known and come to light.
- 18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that which he <sup>1</sup>thinketh he hath.
- 19 And there came to him his mother and brethren, and they could not come at him for the crowd. And it was told him, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. But he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.
- 22 Now it came to pass on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples; and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake: and they launched forth. But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and
- 24 were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. And he awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And being afraid they marvelled, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and the water, and they obey him?

And when he was come forth upon the land, there met him a certain man out of the city, who had <sup>3</sup>devils; and for a long time he had worn no clothes, and abode not in any house, but in the tombs. And when he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not. For he commanded the unclean spirit to come out from the man. For <sup>4</sup>oftentimes it had seized him: and he was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters; and breaking the bands asunder, he was driven of the <sup>5</sup>devil into the deserts. And Jesus asked him, What is thy name? And he said, Legion; for many <sup>3</sup>devils were entered into him. And they intreated him that he would not command them to depart into the abyss. Now there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they intreated him that he would give them leave to enter into them. And he gave them leave. And the <sup>3</sup>devils came out from the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were choked. And when they that fed them saw what had come to pass, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what had come to pass; and they came to Jesus, and found the man, from whom the <sup>3</sup>devils were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid. And they that saw it told them how he that was possessed with <sup>3</sup>devils was <sup>6</sup>made whole. And all the people of the coun- 37 try of the Gerasenes round about asked him to depart from them; for they were holden with great fear: and he entered into a boat, and returned.

38 But the man from whom the <sup>1</sup>devils were gone out prayed him that he might be with him: but he sent him away, saying, Return to thy house, and declare how great things God hath done for thee. And he went his way, publishing throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 And as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him; for they were all waiting for him.

41 And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him to come into his house; for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the multitudes thronged him.

While he yet spake, there 49 cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the <sup>5</sup>Master. But Jesus 50 hearing it, answered him, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be <sup>6</sup>made whole. And 51 when he came to the house, he suffered not any man to enter in with him, save Peter, and John, and James, and the father of the maiden and her mother. And all were 52 weeping, and bewailing her: but he said, Weep not; for she is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to 53 scorn, knowing that she was dead. But he, taking her by 54 the hand, called, saying, Maiden, arise. And her spirit re- 55 turned, and she rose up immediately: and he commanded that something be given her to eat. And her parents were 56 amazed: but he charged them to tell no man what had been done.

And he called the twelve 9 together, and gave them power and authority over all <sup>1</sup>devils, and to cure diseases. And he 2 sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal 3 the sick. And he said unto 7 them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; nei- 4 ther have two coats. And in- 4 to whatsoever house ye enter, there abide, and thence depart. And as many as receive you 5 not, when ye depart from that city, shake off the dust from your feet for a testimony a- 6 gainst them. And they departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

Now Herod the tetrarch 7

- heard of all that was done: and he was much perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen 8 from the dead; and by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old 9 prophets was risen again. And Herod said, John I beheaded: but who is this, about whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.
- 10 And the apostles, when they were returned, declared unto him what things they had done. And he took them, and withdrew apart to a city called 11 Bethsaida. But the multitudes perceiving it followed him: and he welcomed them, and spake to them of the kingdom of God, and them that had need of healing he healed.
- 12 And the day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are 13 here in a desert place. But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy food for all this 14 people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said unto his disciples, Make 15 them <sup>1</sup>sit down in companies, about fifty each. And they did so, and made them all <sup>1</sup>sit 16 down. And he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake; and gave to the disciples to set before 17 the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up that which remained over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.
- 18 And it came to pass, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Who do the multitudes say that I am? And they answering said, John 19 the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again. And he said unto them, 20 But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering said, The Christ of God. But he charged 21 them, and commanded them to tell this to no man; saying, 22 The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up. And he said unto all, If any 23 man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever would save his 24 <sup>2</sup>life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his <sup>2</sup>life for my sake, the same shall save it. For what is a man profited, 25 if he gain the whole world, and lose or forfeit his own self? For 26 whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in his own glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. But I tell you of a 27 truth, There be some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

And it came to pass about 28 eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter and John and James, and went up into the mountain to pray. And as he was praying, the 29 fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white and dazzling. And 30 behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elijah; who appeared in 31 glory, and spake of his <sup>3</sup>decease which he was about to 82 accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: but <sup>1</sup>when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they were parting from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three <sup>2</sup>tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said. And while he said these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is <sup>3</sup>my Son, my chosen: hear ye him. And when the voice <sup>4</sup>came, Jesus was found alone. And they held their peace, and told no man in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. And behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, <sup>5</sup>Master, I beseech thee to look upon my son; for he is mine only child: and behold, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it <sup>6</sup>teareth him that he foameth, and it hardly departeth from him, bruising him sorely. And I besought thy disciples to cast it out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? bring hither thy son. And as he was yet a coming, the <sup>7</sup>devil dashed him down, and <sup>8</sup>tare him grievously. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which he did, he said unto his disciples, Let these words sink into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered up into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it: and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

And there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be <sup>10</sup>greatest. But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their heart, he took a little child, and set him by his side, and said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this little child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is <sup>11</sup>least among you all, the same is great.

And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out <sup>12</sup>devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us. But Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against you is for you.

And it came to pass, when the days <sup>13</sup>were well-nigh come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, and sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he were going to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to come down from heaven, and consume them <sup>14</sup>? But he turned,

57 And as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the heaven have<sup>2</sup> nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. But he said unto him, Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but go thou and publish abroad the kingdom of God. And another also said, I will follow thee, Lord; but first suffer me to bid farewell to them that are at my house.

62 But Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy<sup>3</sup> others, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come. And he said unto them, The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves.

4 Carry no purse, no wallet, no shoes: and salute no man on the way. And into whatsoever house ye shall<sup>4</sup> enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon<sup>5</sup> him: but if not, it shall turn to you again.

And into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you: and heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But into whatsoever city ye shall enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets thereof and say, Even the dust from thy city, that cleaveth to our feet, we do wipe off against you: howbeit know this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh. I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the<sup>6</sup> mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Howbeit it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgement, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, shalt thou be exalted unto heaven? thou shalt be brought down unto Hades. He that heareth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the<sup>7</sup> devils are subject unto us in thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan fallen as lightning from heaven. Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall in any wise hurt you. Howbeit in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.

In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I<sup>8</sup> thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou didst hide these things from the wise and understanding, and didst reveal them unto babes: yea, Father; <sup>1</sup>for so it was well-pleasing in thy sight. All things have been delivered unto me of my Father: and no one knoweth who the Son is, save the Father; and who the Father is, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son willeth to reveal him. And turning to the disciples, he said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: for I say unto you, that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not; and to hear the things which ye hear, and heard them not.

And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, <sup>2</sup>Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And he said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God <sup>3</sup>with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live. But he, desiring to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour? Jesus made answer and said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, which both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And in like manner a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion, and came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on them oil and wine; and he set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, I, when I come back again, will repay thee. Which of these three, thinkest thou, proved neighbour unto him that fell among the robbers? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. And Jesus said unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at the Lord's feet, and heard his word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving; and she came up to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. But the Lord answered and said unto her, <sup>6</sup>Martha, Martha, thou art anxious and troubled about many things: <sup>7</sup>but one thing is needful: for Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

And it came to pass, as he was praying in a certain place, that when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, even as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, <sup>8</sup>Fa-

 And if Satan also is divided 18

 Beelzebub cast out <sup>8</sup>devils, by whom do your sons cast them finger of God cast out <sup>8</sup>devils, then is the kingdom of God come upon you. When the 21 strong man fully armed guard-stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him his whole and divideth his spoils. He 23 that is not with me is against of that man cometh worse

And it came to pass, as he 27 said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou didst suck. But 28 he said, Yea rather, blessed

29 And when the multitudes were gathering together unto him, he began to say, This generation is an evil generation: it seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it 30 but the sign of Jonah. For even as Jonah became a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, <sup>1</sup>a greater than Solomon is here. The men of Nineveh shall stand up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, <sup>1</sup>a greater than Jonah is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a lamp, putteth it in a cellar, neither under the bushel, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light. The lamp of thy body is thine eye: when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Look therefore whether the light that is in thee be not darkness. If therefore thy whole body be full of light, having no part dark, it shall be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining doth give thee light.

37 Now as he spake, a Pharisee asketh him to <sup>2</sup>dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before sees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. Ye foolish ones, did not he that made the outside make the inside also? Howbeit give for alms those things which <sup>3</sup>are within; and behold, all things are clean unto you.

But woe unto you Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over judgement and the love of God: but these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Woe unto you Pharisees! for ye love the chief seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces. Woe unto you! for ye are as the tombs which appear not, and the men that walk over them know it not.

And one of the lawyers answering saith unto him, <sup>4</sup>Master, in saying this thou reproachest us also. And he said, Woe unto you lawyers also! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. So ye are witnesses and consent unto the works of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their tombs. Therefore also I will send unto them prophets and apostles; and some of them they shall kill and persecute; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the <sup>5</sup>sanc-53 And when he was come out from thence, the scribes and the Pharisees began to <sup>1</sup>press upon him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of <sup>2</sup>many things; laying wait for him, to catch something out of his mouth.

12 In the mean time, when <sup>3</sup>the many thousands of the multitude were gathered together, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to <sup>4</sup>say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. But there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed: and hid, that shall not be known. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the 4 housetops. And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them which kill the body, and after that have no more

5 that they can do. But I will warn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath <sup>6</sup>power to cast

And when they bring <sup>11</sup>you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, be not anxious how or what ye shall answer, or what ye shall say: for the <sup>12</sup>Holy Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what ye ought to say.

And one out of the multi- <sup>13</sup>tude said unto him, <sup>9</sup>Master, bid my brother divide the inheritance with me. But he <sup>14</sup>said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you? And he said unto them, <sup>15</sup>Take heed, and keep yourselves from all covetousness: <sup>10</sup>for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto <sup>16</sup>them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: and he rea- <sup>17</sup>soned within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have not where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will <sup>18</sup>I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my corn and my goods. And I will say <sup>19</sup>to my <sup>11</sup>soul, <sup>11</sup>Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry. But God said <sup>20</sup>unto him, Thou foolish one, this night <sup>12</sup>is thy <sup>11</sup>soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be? So is he that <sup>21</sup>layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

And he said unto his disci- <sup>22</sup> ples, Therefore I say unto you, Be not anxious for your <sup>1</sup>life, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put 23 on. For the <sup>1</sup>life is more than the food, and the body than 24 the raiment. Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap; which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them: of how much more value are ye than the 25 birds! And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit 26 unto his <sup>2</sup>stature? If then ye are not able to do even that which is least, why are ye anxious concerning the rest?

 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow: they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you, Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one which to-day is, and to-mormuch more shall he clothe 29 you, O ye of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, but your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

 31 Howbeit seek ye: <sup>3</sup>his king-

And Peter said, Lord, speak- 41

 Lord said, Who then is <sup>7</sup>the faithful and wise steward, not, and shall <sup>9</sup>cut him asunder, and appoint his portion <sup>8</sup>servant, which knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes;

48 but he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. And to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom they commit much, of him will they ask the more.

49 I came to cast fire upon the earth; and what will I, if it is already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Think ye that I am come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: for there shall be from henceforth five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. They shall be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said to the multitudes also, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it cometh to pass. And when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, There will be a scorching heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye know how to interpret the face of the earth and the heaven; but how is it that ye know not how to interpret this time?

57 And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 For as thou art going with thine adversary before the magistrate, on the way give diligence to be quit of him; lest haply he hale thee unto the judge, and the judge shall deliver thee to the officer, and the officer shall cast thee into prison. I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou have paid the very last mite.

Now there were some present at that very season which told him of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And he answered and said unto them, Think ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they have suffered these things? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were offenders above all the men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

And he spake this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said unto the vinedresser, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why doth it also cumber the ground? And he answering saith unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: and if it bear fruit thenceforth, well; but if not, thou shalt cut it down.

And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath day. And behold, a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years; and she was bowed together, and could in no wise lift herself up. - 14 And the ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, answered and said to the multitude, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the day of the sabbath. But the Lord answered him, and said, Ye hypocrites, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the <sup>1</sup>stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound, lo, these eighteen years, to have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? And as he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame: and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
- 15 He said therefore, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it? It is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in the branches thereof. And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? <sup>1</sup>It is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three <sup>2</sup>measures of meal, till it was all leavened.

There shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves cast forth without. And they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and shall <sup>4</sup>sit down in the kingdom of God. And behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

In that very hour there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Get thee out, and go hence: for Herod would fain kill thee. Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him.

2 And behold, there was before him a certain man which had

3 the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it 4 lawful to heal on the sabbath, or not? But they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have <sup>1</sup>an ass or an ox fallen into a well, and will not straightway draw him up 6 on a sabbath day? And they could not answer again unto these things.

7 And he spake a parable unto those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief seats; saying unto 8 them, When thou art bidden of any man to a marriage feast, <sup>2</sup>sit not down in the chief seat; lest haply a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him, and he that bade thee and him shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and then thou shalt begin with shame to take the 10 lowest place. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest place; that when he that hath bidden thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have glory in the presence of all that sit at meat with 11 thee. For every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 And he said to him also that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor rich neighbours; lest haply they also bid thee again, and a recompense be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, <sup>13</sup>bid the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind: and thou shalt be blessed; because they have not wherewith to recompense thee: for thou shalt be <sup>14</sup>recompensed in the resurrection of the just.

And when one of them that <sup>15</sup>sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

But he said unto him, A cer- <sup>16</sup>tain man made a great supper; and he bade many: and he <sup>17</sup>sent forth his <sup>3</sup>servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready. And <sup>18</sup>they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a field, and I must needs go out and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And <sup>19</sup>another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And <sup>20</sup>another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

And the <sup>21</sup>servant came, and told his lord these things.

Then the master of the house being angry said to his <sup>22</sup>servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame. And the <sup>23</sup>servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the <sup>24</sup>servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, <sup>25</sup>that none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

- 25 Now there went with him great multitudes: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 If any man cometh unto me, and hateth not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. Whosoever doth not bear his own cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple. For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have wherewith to complete it? Lest haply, when he hath laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, all that behold begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, as he goeth to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and asketh conditions of peace. So therefore whosoever he be of you that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt therefore is good: but if even the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It is fit neither for the land nor for the dung-hill: men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

- 15 Now all the publicans and sinners were drawing near unto him for to hear him.
 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

this parable, saying, What 4 man of you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, 5 he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and his neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto 7 you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, which need no repentance.

Or what woman having ten 8 pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek diligently until she find it? And when she hath 9 found it, she calleth together her friends and neighbours, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. Even so, I say 10 unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

And he said, A certain man 11 had two sons: and the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of <sup>2</sup>thy substance that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not 13 many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country; and there he wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent 14 all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. And he 15 went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields 16 to feed swine. And he would fain have been filled with <sup>1</sup>the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

 17 But when he came to himself he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I 18 perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, 19 and in thy sight: I am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy 20 hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and <sup>2</sup>kissed 21 him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight: I am no more worthy 22 to be called thy son<sup>3</sup>. But the father said to his <sup>4</sup>servants, Bring forth quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and 23 shoes on his feet: and bring the fatted calf, and kill it, and let us eat, and make merry: 24 for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to 25 be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and 26 dancing. And he called to him one of the <sup>4</sup>servants, and inquired what these things 27 might be. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received 28 him safe and sound. But he was angry, and would not go in: and his father came out, gressed a commandment of thine: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: but when this thy son came, 30 which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou killedst for him the fatted calf. And 31 he said unto him, <sup>5</sup>Son, thou art ever with me, and all that is mine is thine. But it was 32 meet to make merry and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

And he said also unto the 16 disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he was wasting his goods. And 2 he called him, and said unto him, What is this that I hear of thee? render the account of thy stewardship; for thou canst be no longer steward.
 And the steward said within 3 himself, What shall I do, seeing that my lord taketh away the stewardship from me? I have not strength to dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am re- 4 solved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. And calling to 5 him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, A hun- 6 dred <sup>6</sup>measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy <sup>7</sup>bond, and sit down quickly and write fifty. Then said he 7 to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred <sup>8</sup>measures of wheat.
 He saith unto him, Take thy <sup>7</sup>bond, and write fourscore.
 And his lord commended <sup>9</sup>the 8 unrighteous steward because he had done wisely: for the sons of this <sup>10</sup>world are for their own generation wiser than the sons of the light.

- 9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends <sup>1</sup>by means of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it shall fail, they may receive you into the eternal tabernacles. He that is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much: and he that is unrighteous in a very little is unrighteous also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is <sup>2</sup>your own? No <sup>3</sup>servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
- 14 And the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things; and they scoffed at him. And he said unto them, Ye are they that justify yourselves in the sight of men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every man entereth violently into it. But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall. Every one that putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and he that marrieth one that is put away from a husband committeth adultery.

and a certain beggar named Lazarus was laid at his gate, full of sores, and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom: and the rich man also died, and was buried. And in Hades he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am in anguish in this flame. But Abraham said, <sup>5</sup>Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things: but now here he is comforted, and thou art in anguish. And <sup>6</sup>beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that they which would pass from hence to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from thence to us. And he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house; for I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. But Abraham saith, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rise from the dead.

And he said unto his disciples, It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come: but woe unto him, through whom they 2 come! It were well for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these 3 little ones to stumble. Take heed to yourselves: if thy brother sin, rebuke him; and if he 4 repent, forgive him. And if he sin against thee seven times in the day, and seven times turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

 5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.
 6 And the Lord said, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou rooted up, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would have 7 obeyed you. But who is there of you, having a <sup>1</sup>servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say unto him, when he is come in from the field, Come straight-8 way and sit down to meat; and will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt 9 eat and drink? Doth he thank the <sup>1</sup>servant because he did the things that were commanded? Even so ye also, when ye shall have done all the things that are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable <sup>2</sup>servants; we have done that which it was our duty to do.
 11 And it came to pass, <sup>3</sup>as they were on the way to Jerusalem, that he was passing 12 through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar 13 off: and they lifted up their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when 14 he saw them, he said unto them, Go and shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of 15 them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, with a loud voice glorifying God; and he fell upon his face at 16 his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And 17 Jesus answering said, Were not the ten cleansed? but where are the nine? <sup>5</sup>Were there 18 none found that returned to give glory to God, save this <sup>6</sup>stranger? And he said unto 19 him, Arise, and go thy way: thy faith hath <sup>7</sup>made thee whole.

And being asked by the 20 Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation: neither shall they 21 say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the kingdom of God is <sup>8</sup>within you.

And he said unto the dis- 22 ciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it. And they shall say to 23 you, Lo, there! Lo, here! go not away, nor follow after them: for as the lightning, 24 when it lighteneth out of the one part under the heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall the Son of man be <sup>9</sup>in his day. But first 25 must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. And as it came to 26 pass in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They ate, they drank, they 27 married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they build-29 ed; but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them 30 all: after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man is revealed.

 31 In that day, he which shall be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away: and let him that is in the field likewise not re-32 turn back. Remember Lot's 33 wife. Whosoever shall seek to gain his <sup>1</sup>life shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his <sup>1</sup>life 34 shall <sup>2</sup>preserve it. I say unto you, In that night there shall be two men on one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. There shall be two women grind-35 ing together; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.<sup>3</sup> And they answering say unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Where the body is, thither will the 37 eagles also be gathered together.
 18 And he spake a parable unto them to the end that they ought always to pray, and 2 not to faint; saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, and regarded not 3 man: and there was a widow in that city; and she came oft unto him, saying, <sup>5</sup>Avenge 4 me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, 5 nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she <sup>6</sup>wear me out by her continual coming.

And the Lord said, Hear what <sup>6</sup>the unrighteous judge saith. And shall not God avenge his <sup>7</sup>elect, which cry to him day and night, and he is long-suffering over them? I say <sup>8</sup>unto you, that he will avenge them speedily. Howbeit when the Son of man cometh, shall he find <sup>8</sup>faith on the earth?

And he spake also this <sup>9</sup>parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and set <sup>9</sup>all others at nought: Two men <sup>10</sup>went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week; <sup>12</sup>I give tithes of all that I get. But the publican, standing <sup>13</sup>afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote his breast, saying, God, <sup>10</sup>be merciful to me <sup>11</sup>a sinner. I say unto you, <sup>14</sup>This man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be humbled; but he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

And they brought unto him <sup>15</sup>also their babes, that he should touch them: but when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called <sup>16</sup>them unto him, saying, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, <sup>17</sup>Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall in no wise enter therein.

what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, even God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and mother. And he said, All these things have I observed from my youth up. And when Jesus heard it, he said unto him, One thing thou lackest yet: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. But when he heard these things, he became exceeding sorrowful; for he was very rich. And Jesus seeing him said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter in to the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they that heard it said, Then who can be saved? But he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God. And Peter said, Lo, we have left <sup>1</sup>our own, and followed thee. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or wife, or brethren, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in the <sup>2</sup>world to come eternal life.

And he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written <sup>3</sup>by the prophets shall be accomplished unto the Son of man. For he shall be delivered up unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shamefully entreated, and spit upon: and they shall scourge and kill him: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hid from them, and they perceived not the things that were said.

And it came to pass, as he drew nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging: and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

And he entered and was passing through Jericho. And behold, a man called by name Zacchæus; and he was a chief publican, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature. And he ran on before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to-day I

- 6 must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He is gone in to lodge with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have wrongfully exacted aught of any man, I restore fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, To-day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.
- 10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.
- 11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was immediately to appear. He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called ten <sup>1</sup>servants of his, and gave them ten <sup>2</sup>pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not that this man reign over us. And it came to pass, when he was come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these <sup>1</sup>servants, unto whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by trading. And the first came before him, saying, Lord, thy pound hath made ten pounds more. And he said unto him, Well done, thou good <sup>3</sup>servant: because thou wast found faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, saying, Thy pound, Lord, hath made five pounds. And he said unto him 19 also, Be thou also over five cities. And <sup>4</sup>another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I kept laid up in a napkin: for I feared thee, 20 because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. He 21 saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked <sup>3</sup>servant. Thou knewest that I am an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow; then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and <sup>5</sup>I at my coming should have required it with interest? And he said unto 22 them that stood by, Take away from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath the ten pounds. And they said unto 23 him, Lord, he hath ten pounds. I say unto you, that unto 24 every one that hath shall be given; but from him that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken away from him. Howbeit these mine enemies, 25 which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

And when he had thus spoken, he went on before, going up to Jerusalem.

And it came to pass, when 26 he drew nigh unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called the mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, saying, Go your way 27 into the village over against you; in the which as ye enter ye shall find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring him. And if 28 any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say, The Lord hath need of him. And they that were sent went 29 away, and found even as he

33 had said unto them. And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, 34 Why loose ye the colt? And they said, The Lord hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and 35 set Jesus thereon. And as he went, they spread their garments in the way. And as he was now drawing nigh, even 36 at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the <sup>1</sup>mighty works which they had seen; 37 saying, Blessed is the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and 38 glory in the highest. And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said unto him, <sup>2</sup>Master, 39 rebuke thy disciples. And he answered and said, I tell you that, if these shall hold their peace, the stones will cry out.
 40 And when he drew nigh, he saw the city and wept over it, 41 saying, <sup>3</sup>If thou hadst known in this day, even thou, the things which belong unto peace! but now they are hid 42 from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, when thine enemies shall cast up 43 a <sup>4</sup>bank about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, and shall dash thee to the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.
 44 And he entered into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold, saying unto them, It is written, And my house shall be a house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.
 45 And he was teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people sought to destroy him: and they could not find what they might do; for the people all hung upon him, listening.

And it came to pass, on <sup>20</sup> one of the days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, there came upon him the chief priests and the scribes with the elders; and <sup>2</sup> they spake, saying unto him, Tell us: By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And he answered <sup>3</sup> and said unto them, I also will ask you a <sup>5</sup>question; and tell me: The baptism of John, was <sup>4</sup> it from heaven, or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, From <sup>6</sup> men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet. And they <sup>7</sup> answered, that they knew not whence it was. And Jesus said <sup>8</sup> unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

And he began to speak unto <sup>9</sup> the people this parable: A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country for a long time. And at the season <sup>10</sup> he sent unto the husbandmen a <sup>6</sup>servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. And he sent yet <sup>11</sup> another <sup>6</sup>servant: and him also they beat, and handled him shamefully, and sent him away empty. And he sent yet <sup>12</sup> a third: and him also they wounded, and cast him forth.

- 14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned one with another, saying, This is the heir: let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
- 15 And they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them? He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others. And when they heard it, they said, <sup>1</sup>God forbid. But he looked upon them, and said, What then is this that is written,
- The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner?
- 18 Every one that falleth on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust.
- 19 And the scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him in that very hour; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake this parable against them. And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which feigned themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of his speech, so as to deliver him up to the rule and to the authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, <sup>2</sup>Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, and acceptest not the person of any, but of a truth teachest the way of God: Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Shew me a <sup>3</sup>penny. Whose image and

And there came to him certain of the Sadducees, they which say that there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, <sup>2</sup>Master, Moses wrote unto us, that if a man's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed unto his brother. There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless; and the second; and the third took her; and likewise the seven also left no children, and died. Afterward the woman also died. In the resurrection therefore whose wife of them shall she be? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus said unto them, The sons of this <sup>4</sup>world marry, and are given in marriage: but they that are accounted worthy to attain to that <sup>4</sup>world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage: for neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. But that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed, in the place concerning the Bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. And certain of the scribes answering said,

40 For they durst not any more ask him any question.

41 And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ 42 is David's son? For David himself saith in the book of Psalms,

The Lord said unto my Lord,

43 Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 And in the hearing of all the people he said unto his disciples, 46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love salutations in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts; which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

21 And he looked up, <sup>2</sup>and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

8 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they 4 all: for all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts: but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had.

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and offerings,

6 he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not

7 be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, <sup>1</sup>Master, when therefore shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things are he said, Take heed that ye be not led astray: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is at hand: go ye not after them. And when ye shall hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified: for these things must needs come to pass first; but the end is not immediately.

Then said he unto them, 10

Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be 11 great earthquakes, and in divers places famines and pestilences; and there shall be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all these 12 things, they shall lay their hands on you, and shall persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, <sup>3</sup>bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake.

It shall turn unto you for a 13 testimony. Settle it therefore 14 in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to answer: for I will give you a 15 mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or to gainsay. But ye shall be delivered up even by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolk, and friends; and some of you <sup>4</sup>shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be 17 hated of all men for my name's sake. And not a hair 18 of your head shall perish. In 19 your patience ye shall win your <sup>5</sup>souls.

But when ye see Jerusalem 20 compassed with armies, then know that her desolation is at hand. Then let them that 21 are in Judæa flee unto the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of her depart out; and let not them that are in the country enter therein. For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 Woe unto them that are with child and to them that give suck in those days! for there shall be great distress upon the <sup>1</sup>land, and wrath unto this

24 people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led captive into all the nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled. And

25 there shall be signs in sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the billows; men <sup>2</sup>fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on 26 the world: for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads; because your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable: Behold the fig tree, and all the trees: when they now shoot forth, ye see it and know of your own selves that

30 the summer is now nigh. Even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God

31 is nigh. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all things be accom-

32 plished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

that dwell on the face of all the earth. But watch ye at every season, making supplication, that ye may prevail to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

And every day he was teaching in the temple; and every night he went out, and lodged in the mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover. And the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death; for they feared the people.

And Satan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went away, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver him unto them. And they were glad, and consented to give him money. And he consented, and sought opportunity to deliver him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

And the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sacrificed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make ready for us the passover, that we may eat. And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we make ready? And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house whereinto he goeth. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover 12 with my disciples? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished: there make 13 ready. And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

 14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the apostles with him. And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: 16 for I say unto you, I will not eat it, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, Take this, and divide it among your-18 selves: for I say unto you, I will not drink from henceforth of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall 19 come. And he took <sup>1</sup>bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body <sup>2</sup>which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new <sup>3</sup>covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out 21 for you. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. For the Son of man indeed goeth, as it hath been determined: but woe unto that man through 23 whom he is betrayed! And they began to question among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
 24 And there arose also a contention among them, which of them is accounted to be <sup>4</sup>greatest. And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles have lordship over them; and they that have authority over them are called Benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is the greater among you, let him become as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is <sup>27</sup> greater, he that <sup>5</sup>sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that <sup>5</sup>sitteth at meat? but I am in the midst of you as he that serveth. But ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations; and <sup>6</sup>I <sup>29</sup> appoint unto you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed unto me, that ye may eat and <sup>30</sup> drink at my table in my kingdom; and ye shall sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Simon, Si- <sup>31</sup> mon, behold, Satan <sup>7</sup>asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat: but I made <sup>32</sup> supplication for thee, that thy faith fail not: and do thou, when once thou hast turned again, stablish thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, <sup>33</sup> with thee I am ready to go both to prison and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, <sup>34</sup> the cock shall not crow this day, until thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

And he said unto them, <sup>35</sup> When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and shoes, lacked ye anything? And they said, Nothing. And <sup>36</sup> he said unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet: <sup>37</sup> and he that hath none, let him sell his cloke, and buy a sword. For I say unto you, that this which is written must be fulfilled in me, And he was reckoned with transgressors: for that which concerneth me hath <sup>9</sup>fulfilment. And they said, Lord, behold, <sup>38</sup> here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

And he came out, and went, <sup>39</sup> as his custom was, unto the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed him. And <sup>40</sup> when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

 41 And he was parted from them about a stone's cast; and he kneeled down and 42 prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my 43 will, but thine, be done. <sup>1</sup>And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strength-44 ening him. And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became as it were great drops of blood falling down upon the ground.
 45 And when he rose up from his prayer, he came unto the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow, and said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

47 While he yet spake, behold, a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them; and he drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.
 48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss? And when they that were about him saw what would follow, they said, Lord, shall we smite with the sword? And a certain one of them smote the <sup>2</sup>servant of the high priest, and struck off his 51 right ear. But Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and 52 healed him. And Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and elders, which were come against him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with 53 swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 And they seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them. And a certain maid seeing him as he sat in the light of the fire, and looking stedfastly upon him, said, This man also was with him. But he denied, saying, Woman, I know him not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou also art one of them. But Peter said, Man, I am not. And after the space of about one hour another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this man also was with him: for he is a Galilæan. But Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said unto him, Before the cock crow this day, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

And the men that held <sup>3</sup>Jesus mocked him, and beat him. And they blindfolded him, and asked him, saying, Prophecy: who is he that struck thee? And many other things spake they against him, reviling him.

And as soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes; and they led him away into their council, saying, If thou art the Christ, tell us. But he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: and if I ask you, ye will not answer. But from henceforth shall the Son of man be seated at the right hand of the power of God. And they all said, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, 71 <sup>1</sup>Ye say that I am. And they said, What further need have we of witness? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

23 And the whole company of them rose up, and brought 2 him before Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, and saying that he himself is <sup>3</sup>Christ a 3 king. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest.

4 And Pilate said unto the chief priests and the multitudes, I find no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa, and beginning from Galilee even unto this 6 place. But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man 7 were a Galilæan. And when he knew that he was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him unto Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem in these days.

8 Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was of a long time desirous to see him, because he had heard concerning him; and he hoped to see some <sup>3</sup>miracle done by 9 him. And he questioned him in many words; but he an-10 swered him nothing. And the chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing 11 him. And Herod with his soldiers set him at nought, and mocked him, and arraying him in gorgeous apparel sent him 12 back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

And Pilate called together 13 the chief priests and the rulers and the people, and said unto 14 them, Ye brought unto me this man, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: no, 15 nor yet Herod: for he sent him back unto us; and behold, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him. I will 16 therefore chastise him, and release him.<sup>4</sup> But they cried 18 out all together, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: one who 19 for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison. And Pilate spake unto them again, desiring to release Jesus; but 21 they shouted, saying, Crucify, crucify him. And he said 22 unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath this man done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him and release him. But they were instant 23 with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. And 24 Pilate gave sentence that what they asked for should be done. And he released him 25 that for insurrection and murder had been cast into prison, whom they asked for; but Jesus he delivered up to their will.

And when they led him 26 away, they laid hold upon one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

And there followed him a 27 great multitude of the people, and of women who bewailed and lamented him. But Je- 28 sus turning unto them said,

- Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
- 29 For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts that never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?
- 32 And there were also two others, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.
- 33 And when they came unto the place which is called <sup>1</sup>The skull, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand and the other on the left. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus said, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And parting his garments among them, they cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen.
- 36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, offering him vinegar, and saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself. And there was also a superscription over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 39 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, Art not thou the Christ? save thyself and us.
- 40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, Dost thou not even fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss. And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest <sup>3</sup>in thy kingdom. And he said unto <sup>4</sup>him, Verily I say unto thee, To-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

And behold, a man named <sup>50</sup>Joseph, who was a councillor, a good man and a righteous (he had not consented to their <sup>51</sup>counsel and deed), a man of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews, who was looking for the kingdom of God: this man went <sup>52</sup>to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. And he took <sup>53</sup>it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was hewn in stone, where never man had yet lain. And it was the day <sup>54</sup>of the Preparation, and the sabbath <sup>8</sup>drew on. And the <sup>55</sup>women, which had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and beheld the tomb, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared <sup>56</sup>spices and ointments.

And on the sabbath they rested according to the com-

24 mandment. But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came unto the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3 And they entered in, and found not the body <sup>1</sup>of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in dazling apparel: and as they were affrighted, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye <sup>2</sup>the living among the dead? 6 <sup>3</sup>He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying that the Son of man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words, and returned <sup>4</sup>from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James: and the other women with them told these things unto the 11 apostles. And these words appeared in their sight as idle talk; and they disbelieved them. <sup>5</sup>But Peter arose, and ran unto the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths by themselves; and he <sup>6</sup>departed to his home, wondering at that which was come to pass. 13 And behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was threescore furlongs from 14 Jerusalem. And they communed with each other of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, while they communed and questioned together, that Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their 16 eyes were holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, <sup>7</sup>What communications are these that ye have one with another, as ye walk? And they stood still, looking sad. And one of them, 18 named Cleopas, answering said unto him, <sup>8</sup>Dost thou alone sojourn in Jerusalem and not know the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, 19 What things? And they said unto him, The things concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: and how the chief 20 priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. But we hoped that it was he 21 which should redeem Israel. Yea and beside all this, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. More- 22 over certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb; and 23 when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was 24 alive. And certain of them that were with us went to the tomb, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. And 25 he said unto them, O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe <sup>9</sup>in all that the prophets have spoken! Behoved it not the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning from 27 Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they 28 drew nigh unto the village, whither they were going: and he made as though he would 29 go further. And they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is now far spent. And he went in to 30 abide with them. And it came to pass, when he had sat down with them to meat, he took the <sup>1</sup> bread, and blessed it, and 31 brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight. And 32 they said one to another, Was not our heart burning within us, while he spake to us in the way, while he opened to 33 us the scriptures? And they rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and 34 found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, saying, The Lord 35 is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And they rehearsed the things that happened in the way, and how he was known of them in the breaking of the bread.

 36 And as they spake these things, he himself stood in the midst of them, <sup>2</sup> and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.
 37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that 38 they beheld a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do reasonings arise in your heart?

 41 they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here anything to eat? And they gave him a 43 he took it, and did eat before them.

And he said unto them, <sup>4</sup> 44 These are my words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, how that all things must needs be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me. Then opened he their 45 mind, that they might understand the scriptures; and he 46 said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead the third day; and that 47 repentance <sup>5</sup> and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the <sup>6</sup> nations, beginning from Jerusalem. Ye 48 are witnesses of these things. And behold, I send forth the

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO S. JOHN.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made <sup>1</sup>by him; and without him <sup>2</sup>was not anything made that hath been 4 made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
5 And the light shineth in the darkness; and the darkness 6 <sup>3</sup>apprehended it not. There came a man, sent from God, 7 whose name was John. The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the 9 light. <sup>4</sup>There was the true light, even the light which lighteth <sup>5</sup>every man, coming 10 into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made <sup>1</sup>by him, and the world knew 11 him not. He came unto <sup>6</sup>his own, and they that were his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even 12 to them that believe on his name: which were <sup>7</sup>born, not of <sup>8</sup>blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of 14 man, but of God. And the Word became flesh, and
- <sup>9</sup>dwelt his glory, glory as of <sup>10</sup>the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.
15 John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, <sup>11</sup>This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is become before me: for he was <sup>12</sup>before me. For of his fulness 16 we all received, and grace for grace. For the law was given 17 <sup>1</sup>by Moses; grace and truth came <sup>1</sup>by Jesus Christ. No 18 man hath seen God at any time; <sup>18</sup>the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

And this is the witness of 19 John, when the Jews sent unto him from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, 20 and denied not; and he confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What 21 then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No. They said therefore 22 unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I 23 am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the prophet. <sup>14</sup>And they 24 had been sent from the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why then baptizest thou, if thou art not the Christ, neither Elijah, neither the prophet? John answered 25 them, saying, I baptize <sup>15</sup>with water: in the midst of you standeth one whom ye know 27 not, even he that cometh after me, the latchet of whose shoe I am not worthy to un-28 loose. These things were done in <sup>1</sup> Bethany beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

 29 On the morrow he seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God, which <sup>2</sup> taketh away the sin 30 of the world! This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is become before me: for he was <sup>3</sup> before me.
 31 And I knew him not; but that he should be made manifest to Israel, for this cause came I baptizing <sup>4</sup> with water.
 32 And John bare witness, saying, I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of heaven; and it abode upon him. And I knew him not:
 33 but he that sent me to baptize <sup>4</sup> with water, he said unto me, Upon whomsoever thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and abiding upon him, the same is he that baptizeth 34 <sup>4</sup> with the Holy Spirit. And I have seen, and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.
 35 Again on the morrow John was standing, and two of his 36 disciples; and he looked upon Jesus as he walked, and saith, Behold, the Lamb of God!
 37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed 38 Jesus. And Jesus turned, and beheld them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? And they said unto him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, <sup>5</sup> Master), where 39 abidest thou? He saith unto them, Come, and ye shall see. They came therefore and saw where he abode; and they abode with him that day: it was about the tenth hour.

 him unto Jesus. Jesus looked upon him, and said, Thou art Simon the son of <sup>7</sup> John: thou shalt be called Cephas (which is by interpretation, <sup>8</sup> Peter).

On the morrow he was minded to go forth into Galilee, and he findeth Philip: and Jesus saith unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art King of Israel. Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee underneath the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye shall see the heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was

2 there: and Jesus also was bidden, and his disciples, to the 3 marriage. And when the wine failed, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no 4 wine. And Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is 5 not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. Now there were six waterpots of stone set there after the Jews' manner of purifying, containing two or three 7 firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them 8 up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the <sup>1</sup>ruler of the feast. And they bare it.
 9 And when the ruler of the feast tasted the water <sup>2</sup>now become wine, and knew not whence it was (but the servants which had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calleth the bridegroom, 10 and saith unto him, Every man setteth on first the good wine; and when men have drunk freely, then that which is worse: thou hast kept the 11 good wine until now. This beginning of his signs did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and there they abode not many days.
 13 And the passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus 14 went up to Jerusalem. And he found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of 15 money sitting: and he made a scourge of cords, and cast all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables; and to them that sold 16 the doves he said, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise. His disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house shall eat me up. The Jews therefore 18 answered and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things? Jesus answered 19 and said unto them, Destroy this <sup>3</sup>temple, and in three days I will raise it up. The Jews 20 therefore said, Forty and six years was this <sup>3</sup>temple in building, and wilt thou raise it up in three days? But he spake 21 of the <sup>3</sup>temple of his body. When therefore he was raised 22 from the dead, his disciples remembered that he spake this; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on his name, beholding his signs which he did. But Jesus did 24 not trust himself unto them, for that he knew all men, and 25 because he needed not that any one should bear witness concerning <sup>4</sup>man; for he himself knew what was in man.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: the same 2 came unto him by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these signs that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born <sup>5</sup>anew, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith 4 unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born? 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the 6 kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the 7 Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must 8 be born anew. <sup>2</sup>The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the voice thereof, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: 9 so is every one that is born of the Spirit. Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not 11 these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and bear witness of that we have seen; and ye 12 receive not our witness. If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye 13 believe, if I tell you heavenly things? And no man hath 14 ascended into heaven, but he that descended out of heaven, 15 even the Son of man, <sup>3</sup>which is in heaven. And as Moses 16 lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the 17 Son of man be lifted up: that whosoever <sup>4</sup>believeth may in him have eternal life. 18 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this 19 is the judgement, that the light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. For every one that 20 doeth ill hateth the light, and cometh not to the light, lest his works should be <sup>6</sup>reproved. But he that doeth the 21 truth cometh to the light, that his works may be made manifest, <sup>7</sup>that they have been wrought in God.

After these things came Je- 22 sus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there <sup>8</sup>was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. For John was 24 not yet cast into prison. There 25 arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with a Jew about purifying. 26 And they came unto John, and said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and 27 said, A man can receive nothing, except it have been given him from heaven. Ye 28 yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but, that I am sent before him. He that hath 29 the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. He must increase, 30 but I must decrease.

He that cometh from above 31 is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaketh: <sup>9</sup>he

that cometh from heaven is 32 above all. What he hath seen and heard, of that he beareth witness; and no man receiv-33 eth his witness. He that hath received his witness hath set his seal to this, that God is 34 true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for he giveth not the 35 Spirit by measure. The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.
 36 He that believeth on the Son hath eternal life; but he that 1 obeyeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 When therefore the Lord knew how that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more 2 disciples than John (although Jesus himself baptized not, 3 but his disciples), he left Judea, and departed again into 4 Galilee. And he must needs 5 pass through Samaria. So he cometh to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob 6 gave to his son Joseph: and Jacob's 2 well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied

 7 the sixth hour. There com-

 8 her, Give me to drink. For his disciples were gone away into the city to buy food.
 9 The Samaritan woman therefore saith unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am Jews have no dealings with and said unto her, If thou unto him, 5 Sir, give me this Go, call thy husband, and come her, Thou saidst well, I have no husband: for thou hast 18 had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not said truly. The woman saith 19 unto him, 5 Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet. Our fa- 20 thers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Jesus saith 21 unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall ye worship the Father. Ye worship that which 22 ye know not: we worship that which we know: for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour 23 cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: 6 for such doth the Father seek to be his worshippers. 7 God 24 is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship in 25 spirit and truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messiah cometh (which is called Christ): when he is come, he will declare unto us all 26 things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

 27 And upon this came his disciples; and they marvelled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no man said, What seek-est thou? or, Why speakest 28 thou with her? So the woman left her waterpot, and went away into the city, and saith to 29 the men, Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: can this be the 30 Christ? They went out of the city, and were coming to 31 him. In the mean while the disciples prayed him, saying, 32 Rabbi, eat. But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that 33 ye know not. The disciples therefore said one to another, Hath any man brought him 34 ought to eat? Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and 35 to accomplish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh the harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are <sup>1</sup>white already unto har-36 vest. He that reapeth receiv-eth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that he that soweth and he that reapeth 37 may rejoice together. For herein is the saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.
 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye have not laboured: others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labour.
 39 And from that city many of the Samaritans believed on him because of the word of did. So when the Samaritans 40 came unto him, they besought him to abide with them: and he abode there two days. And 41 many more believed because of his word; and they said to 42 the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy speaking: for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Saviour of the world.

And after the two days he 43 went forth from thence into Galilee. For Jesus himself tes- 44 tified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country. So 45 when he came into Galilee, the Galilæans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

He came therefore again 46 unto Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain <sup>2</sup>nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard 47 that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son; for he was at the point of death. Jesus 48 therefore said unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will in no wise believe. The <sup>2</sup>nobleman saith 49 unto him, <sup>3</sup>Sir, come down ere my child die. Jesus saith un- 50 to him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. The man believed the word that Jesus spake unto him, and he went his way.
 And as he was now going 51 down, his <sup>4</sup>servants met him, saying, that his son lived. So 52 he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend. They said therefore unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father 53 knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said unto him,

Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judæa into Galilee.

5 After these things there was <sup>1</sup>a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the sheep gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew <sup>2</sup>Bethesda, 3 having five porches. In these lay a multitude of them that were sick, blind, halt, withered<sup>3</sup>.

5 And a certain man was there, which had been thirty and eight years in his infirmity.

6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Would-

7 est thou be made whole? The sick man answered him, <sup>4</sup>Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before 8 me. Jesus saith unto him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And straightway the man was made whole, and took up his bed and walked.

Now it was the sabbath on 10 that day. So the Jews said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath, and it is not lawful for thee to take up thy bed.

11 But he answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 They asked him, Who is the man that said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 But he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being 14 in the place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing befall thee.

15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus which had made him whole. And for this cause did the 16 Jews persecute Jesus, because he did these things on the sabbath. But Jesus answered 17 them, My Father worketh even until now, and I work. For 18 this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only brake the sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

Jesus therefore answered and 19 said unto them,

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father doing: for what things soever he doeth, these the Son also doeth in like manner. For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and greater works than these will he shew him, that ye may marvel. For as the Father 21 raiseth the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son also quickeneth whom he will. For neither doth the Father 22 judge any man, but he hath given all judgement unto the Son; that all may honour the 23 Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, 24 He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, hath eternal life, and cometh not into judgement, but hath passed out of death into life. Verily, verily, I say unto you, 25 The hour cometh, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live. For 26 as the Father hath life in himself, even so gave he to the Son also to have life in himself: and he gave him authority to execute judgement, be- 27 cause he is <sup>1</sup>the Son of man.

 28 Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear 29 his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have <sup>2</sup>done ill, unto the resurrection of judgement.

30 I can of myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgement is righteous; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of him that 31 sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 It is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witness-33 eth of me is true. Ye have sent unto John, and he hath borne witness unto the truth.

34 But the witness which I receive is not from man: howbeit I say these things, that 35 ye may be saved. He was the lamp that burneth and shineth: and ye were willing to rejoice for a season in his 36 light. But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father which sent me, he hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his 38 form. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he sent, him ye believe not. <sup>3</sup>Ye search the scrip-39 tures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life; and these are they which bear 40 witness of me; and ye will not come to me, that ye may 41 have life. I receive not glory 42 from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of 43 God in yourselves. I am come receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive glory one of another, and the glory that cometh from <sup>4</sup>the only God ye seek not? Think not that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that ac-cuseth you, even Moses, on whom ye have set your hope.

For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick.
And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. Now the passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto Philip, Whence are we to buy <sup>5</sup>bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, Two hundred <sup>6</sup>pennyworth of <sup>5</sup>bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may take a little.
One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are these among so many? Jesus said, Make the people sit down.
Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. Jesus therefore took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as 12 they would. And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which remain over, that nothing be lost. So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto them that had eaten.

14 When therefore the people saw the <sup>1</sup>sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

18 And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew. When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat: and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other <sup>2</sup>boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went away alone (howbeit there came <sup>3</sup>boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks): when the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the <sup>3</sup>boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. And when they found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were filled. Work not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat which abideth unto eternal life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him the Father, even God, hath sealed. They said therefore unto him, What must we do, that we may work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom <sup>4</sup>he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread out of heaven to eat. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Moses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven. For the bread of God is that which cometh down out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. But I said unto you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will

88 In no wise cast out. For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the 89 will of him that sent me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up 40 at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and <sup>1</sup>I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down out of heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of 43 heaven? Jesus answered and said unto them, Murmur not 44 among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me draw him: and I will raise him up 45 in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God.

Every one that hath heard from the Father, and hath 46 learned, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is from God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth hath eternal 48 life. I am the bread of 49 life. Your fathers did eat the manna in the wilderness, and 50 they died. This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may eat 51 thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.

can this man give us his flesh to eat? Jesus therefore said 53 unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves. He that eateth 54 my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is <sup>2</sup>meat 55 indeed, and my blood is <sup>3</sup>drink indeed. He that eateth my 56 flesh and drinketh my blood abideth in me, and I in him.
As the living Father sent me, 57 and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of me.
This is the bread which came 58 down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: he that eateth this bread shall live for ever. These things said 59 he in <sup>4</sup>the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear <sup>5</sup>it? But Jesus knowing 61 in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you to stumble? What then if ye 62 should behold the Son of man ascending where he was before? It is the spirit that 63 quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life. But there 64 are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that should betray him. And 65 he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

Upon this many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Jesus said 67 therefore unto the twelve,

68 Would ye also go away? Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou<sup>1</sup> hast the words of eternal life. And we have believed and know that thou art the 69 Holy One of God. Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the twelve, and one of you 70 is a devil? Now he spake of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 And after these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at 3 hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may behold thy

4 works which thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret,<sup>2</sup> and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou

6 on him. Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is not yet come; but your time is always

7 ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that its works

8 are evil. Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up<sup>3</sup> yet unto this feast; because my time is 9 not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly,

11 but as it were in secret. The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was much mur-

12 muring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. Howbeit 13 no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

But when it was now the 14 midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

The Jews therefore marvelled, 15 saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

Jesus therefore answered them, 16 and said, My teaching is not mine, but his that sent me. If 17 any man willett to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself 18 seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give 19 you the law, and yet none of you doeth the law? Why seek ye to kill me? The multitude 20 answered, Thou hast a<sup>4</sup> devil: who seeketh to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I did one work, and ye all<sup>5</sup> marvel. For this cause 21 hath Moses given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumsise a man. If a man receiveth cir- 22 cumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made a man every whit whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement. 23

Some therefore of them of 25 Jerusalem said, Is not this he whom they seek to kill? And 26 lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ? Howbeit we know this 27 man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is. Jesus 28 therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 I know him; because I am from him, and he sent me.

30 They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him, because his hour was not yet come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs than those which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him. Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion <sup>1</sup>among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? What is this word that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come?

37 Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: <sup>2</sup>for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified. Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. 41 But some said, What, doth the Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture 42 said that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? So there arose a 43 division in the multitude because of him. And some of 44 them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

The officers therefore came 45 to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not bring him? The officers answered, 46 Never man so spake. The 47 Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye also led astray? 48 Hath any of the rulers believed on him, or of the 49 Pharisees? But this multitude which knoweth not the law 50 are accursed. Nicodemus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being one of them), Doth our law judge a man, 51 except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? 52 Search, and <sup>3</sup>see that out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, ye would know my Father also. These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin: whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come? And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that <sup>2</sup>I am he, ye shall die in your sins. They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, <sup>3</sup>Even that which I have also spoken unto you from the beginning. I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these speak I <sup>4</sup>unto the world. They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father. Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that <sup>5</sup>I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do always the things that are pleasing to him. As he spake these things, many believed on him.

Jesus therefore said to those Jews which had believed him,

- 12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.
13 Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I come, or whither I go. Ye judge after the flesh; 14 I judge no man. Yea and if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me. Yea and in your law it is written, that the witness of two men is true. I am he that beareth

If ye abide in my word, then are ye truly my disciples; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

They answered unto him, We be Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Every one that committeth sin is the bondservant of sin. And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the son abideth for ever. If therefore the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. I know that ye are Abraham's seed; yet ye seek to kill me, because my word <sup>1</sup>hath not free course in you. I speak the things which I have seen with <sup>2</sup>my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from your father. They answered and said unto him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith unto them, If ye <sup>3</sup>were Abraham's children, <sup>4</sup>ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me. lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof. But because I say the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a <sup>8</sup>devil? Jesus answered, I have not a <sup>8</sup>devil; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me. But I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death. The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a <sup>8</sup>devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you, a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced <sup>9</sup> to see my day; and he saw it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham <sup>10</sup>was, I am. They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus <sup>11</sup>hid himself, and went out of the temple <sup>12</sup>.

9 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth.
 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that 3 he should be born blind? Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works of God should 4 be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no 5 man can work. When I am in the world, I am the light of 6 the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, 7 and anointed his eyes with the clay, and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came 8 seeing. The neighbours therefore, and they which saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is not this he that sat and begged? Others said, 9 It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am 10 he. They said therefore unto him, How then were thine eyes 11 opened? He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Siloam, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight. And they said 12 unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.
 13 They bring to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
 14 Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, 15 and opened his eyes. Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. Some therefore of the 16 Pharisees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them. They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a prophet. The Jews therefore did not 17 believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, and 18 asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? His parents answered and 19 said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, 20 we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak for himself. These 21 things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his 22 parents, He is of age; ask him. So they called a second time 23 the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing 24 I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. They said 25 therefore unto him, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes? He answered them, 26 I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his disciples? And 27 they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. We 28 know that God hath spoken unto Moses: but as for this man, we know not whence he 30 is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he 31 opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and do his will, 32 him he heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the eyes 33 of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, he 34 could do nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

 35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on <sup>1</sup> the Son of God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.
 39 And Jesus said, For judgement came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind. Those of the Pharisees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind?
 41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.
 10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is 2 a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is <sup>2</sup> the shepherd of the sheep.
 3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice:

and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. When he hath put forth <sup>4</sup> all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not <sup>5</sup> follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers. This <sup>3</sup> parable <sup>6</sup> spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Jesus therefore said unto <sup>7</sup> them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that came <sup>8</sup> before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: <sup>9</sup> by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. The thief cometh <sup>10</sup> not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may <sup>4</sup> have it abundantly. I <sup>11</sup> am the good shepherd: the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep. He that <sup>12</sup> is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: <sup>13</sup> he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd: <sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd; and I know mine own, and mine own know me, even <sup>15</sup> as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I <sup>16</sup> have, which are not of this fold: them also I must <sup>5</sup> bring, and they shall hear my voice; and <sup>6</sup> they shall become one flock, one shepherd. There- <sup>17</sup> fore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my life, 18 that I may take it again. No one <sup>1</sup> taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have <sup>2</sup> power to lay it down, and I have <sup>2</sup> power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.

19 There arose a division again among the Jews because of these words. And many of them said, He hath a <sup>3</sup> devil, and is mad; why hear ye him? Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a <sup>3</sup> devil. Can a <sup>3</sup> devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 <sup>4</sup> And it was the feast of the dedication at Jerusalem: it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's porch. The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in my Father's name, these

26 bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: and I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. <sup>5</sup> My Father, which hath given them unto me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch <sup>6</sup> them out of the Father's 30 hand. I and the Father are one. The Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from the Father; for which of those 33 works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, For a good work we stone thee not, but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, 34 makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them gods, <sup>85</sup> unto whom the word of God came (and the scripture cannot be broken), say ye of him, <sup>36</sup> whom the Father <sup>7</sup> sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I <sup>37</sup> do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if <sup>38</sup> I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father. They <sup>39</sup> sought again to take him: and he went forth out of their hand.

And he went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there he abode. And many came unto him; <sup>41</sup> and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever John spake of this man were true. And many <sup>42</sup> believed on him there.

Now a certain man was <sup>11</sup> sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha. And it was <sup>2</sup> that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. The sisters therefore <sup>3</sup> sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. But when Jesus heard <sup>4</sup> it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby. Now <sup>5</sup> Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. When <sup>6</sup> therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he was. Then after this <sup>7</sup> he saith to the disciples, Let us go into Judæa again. The <sup>8</sup> disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is not in him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is fallen asleep, he will recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. Thomas therefore, who is called <sup>2</sup>Didymus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off; and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. Martha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary still sat 21 in the house. Martha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God 23 will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise 24 again. Martha saith unto him,

I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that cometh into the world. And when she had said this, she went away, and called Mary <sup>3</sup>her sister secretly, saying, The <sup>4</sup>Master is here, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met him.) The Jews then which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb to weep there. Mary therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he <sup>7</sup>groaned in the spirit, and <sup>8</sup>was troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him! But some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again <sup>9</sup>groaning in himself cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay <sup>10</sup>against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead 40 four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou believedst, thou shoulddest see the glory of God? 41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou heardest me. 42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou didst 43 send me. And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come 44 forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with <sup>1</sup>grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. 45 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Mary and beheld <sup>2</sup>that which he did, be- 46 lieved on him. But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. 47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many 48 signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come and take away both our 49 place and our nation. But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know no- 50 thing at all, nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the 51 whole nation perish not. Now this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for the nation; and not for the nation only, 52 but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered a- 53 broad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

Jesus therefore walked no 54 more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilder- ness, into a city called Eph- raim; and there he tarried with the disciples. Now the 55 passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, to purify themselves. They sought there- 56 fore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come to the feast? Now the chief priests 57 and the Pharisees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

Jesus therefore six days 12 before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead. So they made him a 2 supper there: and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at meat with him. Mary therefore took a 3 pound of ointment of <sup>3</sup>spike- nard, very precious, and an- ointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of 4 his disciples, which should betray him, saith, Why was not 5 this ointment sold for three hundred <sup>4</sup>pence, and given to the poor? Now this he said, 6 not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the <sup>5</sup>bag

1 took away what was put 7 therein. Jesus therefore said, 2 Suffer her to keep it against 8 the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from 10 the dead. But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus also to death; 11 because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow <sup>3</sup>a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusa-13 lem, took the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, 14 even the King of Israel. And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is writ-15 ten, Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these 17 things unto him. The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, bare wit-18 ness. For this cause also the multitude went and met him, for that they heard that he 19 had done this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, <sup>4</sup>Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone after him.

Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast: these therefore came to Philip, 21 which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Phi- 22 lip cometh and telleth Andrew: Andrew cometh, and Philip, and they tell Jesus.
And Jesus answereth them, 23 saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say 24 unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth 25 much fruit. He that loveth his <sup>5</sup>life loseth it; and he that hateth his <sup>5</sup>life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.
If any man serve me, let him 26 follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the Father honour. Now 27 is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this <sup>6</sup>hour. But for this cause came I unto this hour.
Father, glorify thy name. 28 There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glo- 29 rify it again. The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thundered: others said, An angel hath spoken to him.
Jesus answered and said, This 30 voice hath not come for my sake, but for your sakes. Now 31 is <sup>7</sup>the judgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if 32 I be lifted up <sup>8</sup>from the earth, will draw all men unto myself.
But this he said, signifying 33 by what manner of death he should die. The multitude 34 therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth forever: and how sayest thou,

The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?
 85 Jesus therefore said unto them, Yet a little while is the light 1 among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
 86 While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and 2 hid him-87 self from them. But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed 88 not on him: that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake,

Lord, who hath believed our report?

And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

89 For this cause they could not believe, for that Isaiah said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart;

Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,

And should turn,
 And I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah, because he saw his glory; and 42 he spake of him. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess 3 it, lest they should be 43 put out of the synagogue: for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

44 And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him 45 that sent me. And he that beholdeth me beholdeth him 46 that sent me. I am come a abide in the darkness. And 47 if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth 48 me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall judge him in the last day. For I spake not 49 from myself; but the Father which sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that his 50 commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

Now before the feast of the 13 passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them 4 unto the end. And during supper, 2 the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the 3 Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and goeth unto God, riseth from 4 supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he took a towel, and girded himself.
 Then he poureth water into 5 the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. So he 6 cometh to Simon Peter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus 7 answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand hereafter. Peter saith 8 unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not,

- thou hast no part with me.
- 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
- 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not <sup>1</sup>save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean,
- 11 but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
- 12 So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and <sup>2</sup>sat down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, <sup>3</sup>Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
- 14 If I then, the Lord and the <sup>3</sup>Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, A <sup>4</sup>servant is not greater than his lord; neither <sup>5</sup>one that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, blessed are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I <sup>6</sup>have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth <sup>7</sup>my bread lifted up his heel against me. From henceforth I tell you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that
- 20 <sup>8</sup>I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
- 21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
- 22 The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake. There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell us who it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. And after the sop, then entered Satan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some thought, because Judas had the <sup>9</sup>bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then having received the sop went out straightway: and it was night.

When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now <sup>10</sup>is the Son of man glorified, and God <sup>10</sup>is glorified in him; and God shall glorify him in himself, and straightway shall he glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say unto you. A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; <sup>11</sup>even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow afterwards. Peter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee even now? I will lay 38 down my life for thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

 14 Let not your heart be troubled: <sup>1</sup>ye believe in God, 2 believe also in me. In my Father's house are many <sup>2</sup>mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you.
 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, <sup>3</sup>there 4 ye may be also. <sup>3</sup>And whither I go, ye know the way.
 5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; how know we the way?
 6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but <sup>4</sup>by me. If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also:
 from henceforth ye know him, 8 and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, 9 Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; how sayest thou, Shew us the

 that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak ther abiding in me doeth his in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake. Verily, the Father. And whatsoever <sup>13</sup> ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye <sup>14</sup> shall ask <sup>5</sup>me anything in my name, that will I do. If <sup>15</sup> ye love me, ye will keep my commandments. And I will <sup>16</sup> pray the Father, and he shall give you another <sup>7</sup>Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: <sup>17</sup> whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and shall be in you. I <sup>18</sup> will not leave you <sup>8</sup>desolate: I come unto you. Yet a little <sup>19</sup> while, and the world behold-eth me no more; but ye behold me: because I live, <sup>9</sup>ye shall live also. In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my <sup>21</sup> commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself unto him. Judas <sup>22</sup> (not Iscariot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and <sup>23</sup> said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my word:

 and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not <sup>24</sup> keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

These things have I spoken unto you, while yet abiding with you. But the <sup>7</sup>Comforter, <sup>25</sup> even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said 27 unto you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let 28 it be fearful. Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father:

 for the Father is greater than 29 I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye 30 may believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh:
 and he hath nothing in me; 31 but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husband-2 man. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.
 3 Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spo-4 ken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide 5 in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.
 6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the 7 fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done 8 unto you. Herein <sup>1</sup> is my Father glorified, <sup>2</sup> that ye bear much fruit; and so shall ye

 Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my love. If ye keep my com- 10 mandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These 11 things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be fulfilled. This is my command- 12 ment, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you. Greater love hath no 13 man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
 Ye are my friends, if ye do the 14 things which I command you.
 No longer do I call you <sup>3</sup>ser- 15 vants; for the <sup>4</sup>servant knoweth not what his lord doeth:
 but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard from my Father I have made known unto you. Ye did not 16 choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide:
 that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. These 17 things I command you, that ye may love one another. If 18 the world hateth you, <sup>5</sup>ye know that it hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were 19 of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that 20 I said unto you, A <sup>4</sup>servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they will keep yours also. But all these things 21 will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
 If I had not come and spoken 22 unto them, they had not had 28 sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin. He that 24 hateth me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both 25 seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me with-26 out a cause. But when the <sup>1</sup> Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which <sup>2</sup> proceedeth from the Father, he shall bear wit-27 ness of me: <sup>3</sup> and ye also bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

16 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not 2 be made to stumble. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the hour cometh, that whosoever killeth you shall think that he offereth 3 service unto God. And these things will they do, because they have not known the Fa-4 ther, nor me. But these things have I spoken unto you, that when their hour is come, ye may remember them, how that I told you. And these things I said not unto you from the beginning, because I was with 5 you. But now I go unto him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither go-6 est thou? But because I have spoken these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
 7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the <sup>1</sup> Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you.
 8 And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: of sin, be- 9 cause they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go 10 to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgement, be- 11 cause the prince of this world hath been judged. I have yet 12 many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

 Howbeit when he, the Spirit 13 of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things that are to come. He shall glorify 14 me: for he shall take of mine, and shall declare it unto you.
 All things whatsoever the Fa- 15 ther hath are mine: therefore said I, that he taketh of mine,
 and shall declare it unto you.
 A little while, and ye behold 16 me no more; and again a little while, and ye shall see me.
 Some of his disciples therefore 17 said one to another, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye behold me not; and again a little while,
 and ye shall see me: and,
 Because I go to the Father?
 They said therefore, What is 18 this that he saith, A little while? We know not what he saith. Jesus perceived that 19 they were desirous to ask him, and he said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, A little while, and ye behold me not, and again a little while, and ye shall see me? Verily, 20 verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice:
 ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she 21 is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for the joy that a man is born into the world. And ye therefore now have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one taketh away from you.

22 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If ye shall ask anything of the Father, he will give it you in my name.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in <sup>2</sup>proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in <sup>2</sup>proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will 27 <sup>3</sup>pray the Father for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no <sup>4</sup>proverb. Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

These things spake Jesus; <sup>17</sup>and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee: even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever thou hast given him, to them he should give eternal life. And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him whom thou didst send, even Jesus Christ. I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou hast given me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word. Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are from thee: for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and they believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine: and I am glorified in them. And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them from the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil one. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them in the truth: thy word is truth. As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word; that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that thou didst send me. And the glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, even as thou lovedst me. Father, that which thou hast given me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with me; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou didst send me; and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, himself and his disciples. Now Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples. Judas then, having received the band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, was standing with them. When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground. Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way: that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one. Simon Peter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant's name was Malchus. Jesus therefore said unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

So the band and the chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound 13 him, and led him to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was high priest that year. Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; but Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 Now the <sup>1</sup>servants and the officers were standing there, having made <sup>2</sup>a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching. Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in <sup>3</sup>synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things which I said. And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus <sup>4</sup>with his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Annas therefore sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not. One of the <sup>1</sup>servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him? Peter therefore denied <sup>27</sup>again: and straightway the cock crew.

They lead Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the <sup>5</sup>palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the <sup>5</sup>palace, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pilate therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.

Pilate therefore entered <sup>33</sup>gain into the <sup>5</sup>palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou <sup>34</sup>this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? <sup>35</sup>Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My <sup>36</sup>kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my <sup>6</sup>servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from 37 hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou  $\blacksquare$  king then? Jesus answered, <sup>1</sup>Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him

3 in a purple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him <sup>2</sup>with their

4 hands. And Pilate went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that ye may know that

5 I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold, the 6 man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for I find no crime in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard this saying, he was the more afraid; and he entered into the <sup>9</sup> palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have <sup>4</sup>power to release thee, and have <sup>4</sup>power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, <sup>11</sup>Thou wouldest have no <sup>4</sup>power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath greater sin. Upon <sup>12</sup>this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæsar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king <sup>6</sup>speaketh against Cæsar. When Pilate <sup>13</sup>therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgement-seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now <sup>14</sup>it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King! They therefore cried out, Away <sup>15</sup>with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.

They took Jesus therefore: and he went out, bearing the <sup>17</sup>cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha: where they <sup>18</sup>crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And <sup>19</sup>Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many <sup>20</sup> of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and in 21 Latin, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of the 22 Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the <sup>2</sup>coat: now the <sup>2</sup>coat was without seam, woven 24 from the top throughout. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,

And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When 26 Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, be-27 hold, thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold, thy mother! And from that hour the disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished, saith, I thirst.
 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished:

and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

The Jews therefore, be- 31 cause it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The 32 soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him: but when they 33 came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: howbeit one of 34 the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath 35 borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. For these things came 36 to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be <sup>3</sup>broken. And 37 again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

And after these things Jo- 38 seph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. And there came also 39 Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a <sup>4</sup>mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body 40 of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he 41 was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid. There then because 42 of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away

2 from the tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where 3 they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went 4 toward the tomb. And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb;

5 and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in.

6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up 8 in a place by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, which came first to the tomb; and he saw, and 9 believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the 10 dead. So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she stooped and 12 looked into the tomb; and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. When she had thus 14 said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou?

She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, 16

Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, 17 Master. Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. Mary Magdalene cometh 18 eth and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and how that he had said these things unto her.

When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And 20 when he had said this, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the Lord. Jesus therefore said 21 to them again, Peace be unto you: as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And 22 when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the 23 Holy Ghost: whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

not with them when Jesus 25 came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said,

27 Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, <sup>1</sup>thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not 31 written in this book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

32 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and he manifested

2 himself on this wise. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called <sup>2</sup>Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also come with thee.
They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night 4 they took nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus therefore 5 saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. That dis- 7 ciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. But the 8 other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. So when 9 they got out upon the land, they see <sup>3</sup>a fire of coals there, and <sup>4</sup>a fish laid thereon, and <sup>5</sup>bread. Jesus saith unto them, 10 Bring of the fish which ye have now taken. Simon Peter 11 therefore went <sup>6</sup>up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, the net was not rent.

Jesus saith unto them, Come 12 and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
Jesus cometh, and taketh the 13 <sup>7</sup>bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise. This is now 14 the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

So when they had broken 15 their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of <sup>8</sup>John, <sup>9</sup>lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I <sup>10</sup>love thee. He saith

- 16 unto him, Feed my lambs. He saith to him again a second time, Simon, son of <sup>1</sup>John, <sup>2</sup>lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I <sup>3</sup>love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of <sup>1</sup>John, <sup>3</sup>lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, <sup>3</sup>Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou <sup>4</sup>knowest that I <sup>3</sup>love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee? Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, <sup>5</sup>and what shall this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me. This saying therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

This is the disciple which beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.

And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

- 1 THE <sup>1</sup>former treatise I made, O Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, until the day in which he was received up, after that he had given commandment through the <sup>2</sup>Holy Ghost unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom he also <sup>3</sup>shewed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God: and, <sup>4</sup>being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, said he, ye heard from me: for John indeed baptized with <sup>5</sup>water; but ye shall be baptized <sup>5</sup>with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

They therefore, when they 6 were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the Father hath <sup>1</sup>set within his own authority. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is nigh unto Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey off. And when they were come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were abiding; both Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the <sup>2</sup>son of James. These all with one accord continued stedfastly in prayer, <sup>3</sup>with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in these days Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of <sup>4</sup>persons gathered together, about a hundred and twenty), Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered <sup>17</sup>among us, and received his <sup>6</sup>portion in this ministry. (Now this man obtained a <sup>18</sup>field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known <sup>19</sup>to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch that in their language that field was called Akeldama, that is, The field of blood.) For it is written in <sup>20</sup>the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be made desolate, And let no man dwell therein;

and,

His <sup>6</sup>office let another take. Of the men therefore which <sup>21</sup>have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out <sup>7</sup>among us, beginning from the baptism of <sup>22</sup>John, unto the day that he was received up from us, of these must one become a witness with us of his resurrection. And they put forward two, <sup>23</sup>Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, <sup>24</sup>and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, to <sup>25</sup>take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place. And they <sup>26</sup>gave lots <sup>8</sup>for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

And when the day of Pentecost <sup>9</sup>was now come, they were all together in one place. And <sup>2</sup> suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them tongues <sup>1</sup>parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

6 And when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speaking in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying, Behold, are not all these which speak Galileans? And how hear we, every man in our own language, wherein we were born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judæa and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia, in Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speaking in our tongues the mighty works of God. And they were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 But others mocking said, They are filled with new wine.

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them, saying, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and give ear unto my words.

but the third hour of the day; but this is that which hath been spoken <sup>2</sup>by the prophet Joel;

And it shall be in the last 17 days, saith God,

I will pour forth of my Spirit upon all flesh:

And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, And your young men shall see visions,

And your old men shall dream dreams:

Yea and on my <sup>3</sup>servants 18 and on my <sup>4</sup>handmaidens in those days

Will I pour forth of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.

And I will shew wonders in 19 the heaven above,

And signs on the earth beneath;

Blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

The sun shall be turned 20 into darkness,

And the moon into blood, Before the day of the Lord come,

That great and notable day:

And it shall be, that who- 21 soever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Ye men of Israel, hear these 22 words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God unto you by <sup>5</sup>mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; him, being delivered up by 23 the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye by the hand of <sup>6</sup>lawless men did crucify and slay: whom God 24 raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. For David saith 25 concerning him,

I beheld the Lord always before my face;
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
Moreover my flesh also shall <sup>1</sup>dwell in hope: 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in Hades, Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life; Thou shalt make me full of gladness <sup>2</sup>with thy countenance.
29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is 30 with us unto this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins <sup>3</sup>he would 31 set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left in Hades, nor did his flesh see corrup-32 tion. This Jesus did God raise up, <sup>4</sup>whereof we all are wit-33 nesses. Being therefore <sup>5</sup>by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and 54 hear. For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,
The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.

Now when they heard this, 37 they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?
And Peter said unto them, 38 Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For to you is 39 the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him.
And with many other words 40 he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. They 41 then <sup>7</sup>that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls.
And they continued stedfastly 42 in the apostles' teaching and <sup>8</sup>fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.

And fear came upon every 43 soul: and many wonders and signs were done <sup>9</sup>by the apostles <sup>10</sup>. And all that believed 44 were together, and had all things common; and they sold 45 their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need.
And day by day, continuing 46 stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, 47 and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added <sup>11</sup>to them day by day those that were being saved.

Now Peter and John were 3 going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain 2 man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple; who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength. And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God: and they took knowledge of him, that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his <sup>3</sup>Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. But ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the <sup>4</sup>Prince of life; whom God raised from the dead; <sup>5</sup>whereof we are witnesses. And <sup>6</sup>by faith in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But the things which God foreshewed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; and that he may send the Christ who hath been appointed for you, even Jesus: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of his holy prophets which have been since the world began. Moses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, <sup>7</sup>like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. Yea and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God <sup>8</sup>made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the families 26 of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

4 And as they spake unto the people, <sup>1</sup>the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, <sup>2</sup>being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now even-4 tide. But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; and <sup>6</sup>Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye done <sup>8</sup>this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders, if we this day are examined concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, <sup>9</sup>by what means this man is <sup>10</sup>made whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in <sup>11</sup>him doth this man stand here before you whole. He is the stone which was set at nought of you the builders, which was made the <sup>12</sup>head of the corner. And in none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.

Now when they beheld the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And seeing the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable <sup>5</sup>miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name. And they called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: for we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people; for all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this <sup>6</sup>miracle of healing was wrought.

And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said unto them. And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O <sup>1</sup> Lord, <sup>2</sup> thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and 25 all that in them is: <sup>3</sup> who by the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of our father David thy servant, didst say,

And the rulers were gathered together,

31 Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them at <sup>35</sup> the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

And Joseph, who by the <sup>36</sup> apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of <sup>37</sup> exhortation), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, having a field, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

But a certain man named <sup>5</sup> Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and <sup>2</sup> kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, <sup>3</sup> why hath Satan filled thy heart to <sup>4</sup> lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, did it not <sup>4</sup> remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And <sup>5</sup> Ananias hearing these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came upon all that heard it. And <sup>6</sup> the <sup>10</sup> young men arose and wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

And it was about the space <sup>7</sup> of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter <sup>8</sup> answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. But Peter <sup>9</sup> said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: howbeit the people magnified them; <sup>1</sup>and believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women; insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some one of them. And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Jerusalem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public ward.

But an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. But the officers that came found them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, saying, We straitly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us. But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. Him did God exalt <sup>2</sup>with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. And we are witnesses <sup>3</sup>of these <sup>4</sup>things; <sup>5</sup>and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. But there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while.

35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrowed: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be fighting against God. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

38 They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonour for the Name. And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

39 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the <sup>1</sup>Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. And the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not <sup>2</sup>fit that we should forsake the word of God, and <sup>3</sup>serve tables. <sup>4</sup>Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will continue <sup>4</sup>stedfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word. And the <sup>5</sup>saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

And Stephen, full of grace <sup>8</sup>and power, wrought great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose certain <sup>9</sup>of them that were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Libertines, and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able <sup>10</sup>to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, <sup>11</sup>which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the <sup>12</sup>people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into the council, and set <sup>13</sup>up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this holy place, 14 and the law: for we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses deliver-15 ed unto us. And all that sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

 7 And the high priest said, 2 Are these things so? And he said,

Brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, 3 before he dwelt in Haran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land 4 which I shall shew thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, 5 wherein ye now dwell: and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as 6 yet he had no child. And God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil, 7 four hundred years. And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. And he gave him

Egypt: and God was with him, and delivered him out of all 10 his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house. Now 11 there came a famine over all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance. But 12 when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time. And 13 at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's race became manifest unto Pharaoh. And Jo- 14 seph sent, and called to him Jacob his father, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. And Jacob went down 15 into Egypt; and he died, himself, and our fathers; and they 16 were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver of the sons of 17 Hamor in Shechem. But as the time of the promise drew nigh, which God vouchsafed unto Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 till there arose another king over Egypt, which knew not 19 Joseph. The same dealt subtily with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, that 2 they should cast out their babes to the end they might not 3 live. At which season 20 Moses was born, and was 4 exceeding fair; and he was nourished three months in his father's house: and when he 21 was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And 22 Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians; and he was mighty in his words and works. But when 23 he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children 24 of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting the 25 Egyptian: and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving them <sup>1</sup>deliverance; 26 but they understood not. And the day following he appeared unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to 27 another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

 28 Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yester-29 day? And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where 30 he begat two sons. And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in 31 a flame of fire in a bush. And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there 32 came a voice of the Lord, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not 33 behold. And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy 34 ground. I have surely seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and now come, I will 35 send thee into Egypt. This Moses whom they refused, say-him in the bush. This man led 36 them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

 This is that Moses, which said 37 unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, <sup>3</sup>like unto me. This 38 is he that was in the <sup>4</sup>church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give unto us: to 39 whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, saying unto Aaron, Make us 40 gods which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, which led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And they made a 41 calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. But God turned, and 42 gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?
 And ye took up the taber- 43 nacle of Moloch,
 And the star of the god Rephan,
 The figures which ye made to worship them:
 And I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
 Our fathers had the tabernacle 44 of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Moses, that he should make it according to the figure that he had seen. Which also our fathers, 45 in their turn, brought in with <sup>5</sup>Joshua when they entered on

- the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto 46 the days of David; who found favour in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.
 47 But Solomon built him a 48 house. Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 The heaven is my throne, And the earth the footstool of my feet: What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord:
 Or what is the place of my rest?
 50 Did not my hand make all these things?
 51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, 52 so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become 53 betrayers and murderers; ye who received the law <sup>1</sup>as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.
 54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right 56 hand of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And they 59 stoned Stephen, calling upon the Lord, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And 60 he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep. And Saul was consenting unto his death. 8

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. But Saul 3 laid waste the church, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

They therefore that were 4 scattered abroad went about preaching the word. And Phi-5 lip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. And the 6 multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. <sup>2</sup>For from 7 many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. And there was much joy in 8 that city.

But there was a certain 9 man, Simon by name, which beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the 3 people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: to whom they all gave heed, 10 from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is called

11 Great. And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them 12 with his sorceries. But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and 13 women. And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding signs and great <sup>1</sup>miracles wrought, he was amazed.
 14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them 15 Peter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they had been baptized into the name of the 17 Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they 18 received the Holy Ghost. Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the <sup>2</sup>Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the 20 Holy Ghost. But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift 21 of God with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this <sup>3</sup>matter: for thy heart 22 is not right before God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee.
 23 For I see that thou <sup>4</sup>art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

They therefore, when they <sup>25</sup> had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

But an angel of the Lord <sup>26</sup> spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go <sup>5</sup> toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the same is desert. And he <sup>27</sup> arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem for to worship; and he was <sup>28</sup> returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. And the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran to him, <sup>30</sup> and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, <sup>31</sup> except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the place of the scripture which he was reading was <sup>32</sup> this,

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
 And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,
 So he openeth not his mouth:

In his humiliation his judgment was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

And the eunuch answered <sup>34</sup> Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? And Philip open- <sup>35</sup>

And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?<sup>1</sup> And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

But Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and asked of him letters to Damascus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the <sup>2</sup>voice, but beholding no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to thy saints at Jerusalem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon thy name. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a <sup>3</sup>chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children of Israel: for I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized; and he took food and was strengthened.

And he was certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of God. And all that heard him 21 were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Jerusalem made havock of them which called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them bound before the chief priests. But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

And when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.

And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the Grecian Jews; but they went about to kill him. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, being edified; and, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, was multiplied.

And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. And all that dwelt at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. And as Lydda was nigh unto Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, intreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. And it became known throughout all Joppa: and many believed on the Lord. And it came to pass, that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

Now there was a certain man in Cæsarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God 3 always. He saw in a vision openly, as it were about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. And he, fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are gone up for a memorial before 5 God. And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, 6 who is surnamed Peter: he lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea 7 side. And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him 8 continually; and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.
 9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he fell into a 11 trance; and he beholdeth the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four 12 corners upon the earth: wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts and creeping things of the earth and fowls 13 of the heaven. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; 14 kill and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is com-15 mon and unclean. And a voice came unto him again the second time, What God hath 16 cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice:

and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

Now while Peter was much 17 perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, and called and asked whether 18 Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. And 19 while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. But arise, and get thee down, and go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. And Peter went 21 down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? And they 22 said, Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, was warned of God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee. So he 23 called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and certain of the brethren from Joppa accompanied him. And 24 on the morrow<sup>1</sup> they entered into Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends. And 25 when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. But Peter 26 raised him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth many come together: and he 27 said unto them, Ye yourselves know<sup>2</sup> how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is 28 a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and yet unto me hath God shewed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, and saith, 31 Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of 32 God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. And Peter opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: 35 but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 <sup>1</sup>The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, preaching <sup>2</sup>good tidings of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all) 37 —that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even Jesus of Nazareth, how that God anointed him with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for 39 God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they slew, hanging him on a tree. Him 40 God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, not to all the people, 41 but unto witnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he charged us to 42 preach unto the people, and to testify that this is he which is ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To 43 him bear all the prophets witness, that through his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these 44 words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision 45 which believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they 46 heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man 47 forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

Now the apostles and the 11 brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. And when Peter was come up 2 to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But 4 Peter began, and expounded the matter unto them in order, saying, I was in the city of 5 Joppa praying: and in a trance

I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even unto me: upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the heaven. And I heard also a voice saying unto me, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath ever entered into my mouth. But a voice answered the second time, out of heaven, What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice: and all were drawn up again into heaven. And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent from Caesarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into the man's house: and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Joppa, and fetch Simon, whose surname is Peter; who shall speak unto thee words, whereby thou shalt be saved, thou and all thy house. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God? And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified

God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life.

They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none save only to Jews. But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number that believed turned unto the Lord. And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas as far as Antioch: who, when he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord: for he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. And he went forth to Tarsus to seek for Saul: and when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the church, and taught much people; and that the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

Now in these days there came down prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius. And the disciples, every man according to his ability, de-terminated to send <sup>1</sup>relief unto the brethren that dwelt in Judæa: which also they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12 Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to afflict certain of the church.
2 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And those were the days of unleavened bread.
4 And when he had taken him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in the prison: but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him. And when Herod was about to bring him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and guards before the door kept the prison. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell: and he smote Peter on the side, and awoke him, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from him. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out, and followed; and he wist not that it was true which was done <sup>2</sup>by the angel, but thought he saw a vision.
10 And when they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city: which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. And 11 when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. And when he had considered 12 the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and were praying. And when he knocked at 13 the door of the gate, a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's 14 voice, she opened not the gate for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto 15 her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. But 17 he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. Now as soon as it was 18 day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. And when 19 Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be <sup>3</sup>put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and tarried there.

Now he was highly displeased 20 with them of Tyre and Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's

- chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was fed from the 21 king's country. And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the <sup>1</sup>throne, and made an oration unto them. And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man.
 23 And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.
 24 But the word of God grew and multiplied.
 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned <sup>2</sup>from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them John whose surname was Mark.
 13 Now there were at Antioch, in the church that was there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
 4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they 5 sailed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John as their attendant. And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain <sup>3</sup>sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus; derstanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. But Elymas the <sup>8</sup>sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. But 9 Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his eyes on him, and 10 said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? And now, behold, 11 the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun <sup>4</sup>for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Then the proconsul, 12 when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

Now Paul and his company 13 set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. But 14 they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and they went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. And after the reading 15 of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. And Paul stood up, and beck- 16 oning with the hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, hearken. The God 17 of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out of it. And for about the 18 time of forty years <sup>6</sup>suffered he their manners in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years: and after these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. And afterward they asked for a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my will. Of this man's seed hath God according to promise brought unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus; when John had first preached <sup>2</sup>before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of this salvation sent forth. For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in him, yet asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. But God raised him from the dead: and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses unto the people. And we bring you good tidings of the promise made unto the fathers, how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David. Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not give thy Holy One to see corruption. For David, after he had <sup>3</sup>in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: but he whom God raised up saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto you remission of sins: and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and <sup>4</sup>perish;

For I work a work in your days,
A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.
And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath. Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the 45 word of <sup>1</sup>God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and

46 <sup>2</sup>blasphemed. And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of 47 eternal life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,

That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of <sup>1</sup>God: and as many as were ordained to

49 eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. But the Jews urged on

50 the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out

51 of their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto 52 Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

14 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed.

2 But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren. Long time <sup>3</sup> therefore they tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, which bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to entreat them shamefully, and to stone them, they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the region round about: and there <sup>7</sup> they preached the gospel.

And at Lystra there sat a <sup>8</sup> certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. The same heard Paul <sup>9</sup> speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be <sup>9</sup> made whole, said with a loud voice, <sup>10</sup> Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped up and walked. And when the multitudes saw <sup>11</sup> what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. And they <sup>12</sup> called Barnabas, <sup>4</sup>Jupiter; and Paul, <sup>6</sup>Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. And <sup>13</sup> the priest of <sup>4</sup>Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the <sup>14</sup> apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out and saying, Sirs, why do <sup>15</sup> ye these things? We also are men of like <sup>6</sup>passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to 17 walk in their own ways. And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food 18 and gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

19 But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was 20 dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to 21 Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, confirming the souls of 22 the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the 23 kingdom of God. And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. 24 And they passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. 25 And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went 26 down to Attalia; and thence they sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. And when they were 27 come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and how that he had opened a door of faith unto the Gentiles. And they 28 tarried no little time with the disciples.

And certain men came down 15 from Judæa and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved. And when Paul and Barnabas 2 had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. They therefore, being brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phœnicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And when they were 4 come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church and the apostles and the elders, and they rehearsed all things that God had done with them. But there rose up certain of 5 the sect of the Pharisees who believed, saying, It is needful to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.

And the apostles and the 6 elders were gathered together to consider of this matter. And when there had been 7 much questioning, Peter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, ye know how that 1a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which 8 knoweth the heart, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto 9 us; and he made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now 10 therefore why tempt ye God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor 11 we were able to bear? But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

 12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Barnabas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.
 13 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying,

Brethren, hearken unto me:
 14 Symeon hath rehearsed how first God did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a 15 people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, 16 After these things I will return,

And I will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen;

And I will build again the ruins thereof,

And I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, 18 Saith the Lord, <sup>1</sup>who maketh these things known from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my judgement is, that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles turn to God; but that we <sup>2</sup>write unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from what is 21 strangled, and from blood. For Moses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

Then it seemed good to the 22 apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: and they 23 wrote thus by them, The apostles and the elder brethren unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting: Forasmuch as we have 24 heard that certain <sup>3</sup>which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your 25 souls; to whom we gave no commandment; it seemed good unto us, having come to one 26 accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, men that have hazarded their 27 lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of 28 mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater 29 burden than these necessary things; that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things 30 strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

So they, when they were 30 dismissed, came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. And 31 when they had read it, they rejoiced for the <sup>4</sup>consolation. And Judas and Silas, being 32 themselves also prophets, <sup>5</sup>exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

 83 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren unto those that had sent them 85 forth.<sup>1</sup> But Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

86 And after some days Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they fare.
 87 And Barnabas was minded to take with them John also, who 88 was called Mark. But Paul thought not good to take with them him who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the 89 work. And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted asunder one from the other, and Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cyprus; but Paul chose Silas, and went forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace 40 of the Lord. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.
 41

16 And he came also to Derbe and to Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess which believed; but 2 his father was a Greek. The same was well reported of by the brethren that were at 8 Lystra and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those 4 parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which had been ordained of the apostles and elders that were at Jerusalem. So the 5 churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

And they went through the 6 region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden of the Holy Ghost to speak the word in Asia; and when they were 7 come over against Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia; and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; and passing 8 by Mysia, they came down to Troas. And a vision appeared 9 to Paul in the night; There was a man of Macedonia standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And 10 when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

Setting sail therefore from 11 Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; and from thence to Philippi, 12 which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. And on the sabbath 13 day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which were come together. And a certain woman 14 named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. And when 15 she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

- 16 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having <sup>1</sup>a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by sooth-saying. The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are <sup>2</sup>servants of the Most High God, which proclaim unto you <sup>3</sup>the way of salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.
- 19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was <sup>4</sup>gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, and when they had brought them unto the <sup>5</sup>magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being <sup>6</sup>Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the <sup>5</sup>magistrates rent their garments off them, and commanded to beat them <sup>7</sup>with rods. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: who, having received such a charge, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast <sup>8</sup>in the stocks. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners <sup>9</sup>were listening to them; and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened; and every one's bands were loosed. And the jailor being roused out of sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. And he called for lights, and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas, and brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word of <sup>6</sup>the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. And he brought them up into his house, and set <sup>7</sup>meat before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, <sup>8</sup>having believed in God.

But when it was day, the <sup>5</sup>magistrates sent the <sup>6</sup>serjeants, saying, Let those men go. And the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The <sup>5</sup>magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace. But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men that are Romans, and have cast us into prison; and do they now cast us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out. And the <sup>9</sup>serjeants reported these words unto the <sup>5</sup>magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were

39 Romans; and they came and besought them; and when they had brought them out, they asked them to go away 40 from the city. And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they <sup>1</sup> comforted them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue 2 of the Jews: and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three <sup>2</sup> sabbath days reasoned with them from 3 the scriptures, opening and alleging, that it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is 4 the Christ. And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief 5 women not a few. But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the 6 people. And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned <sup>3</sup> the world upside down are come hither 7 also; whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one 8 Jesus. And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these 9 things. And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.
10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. Now these were <sup>11</sup> more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. Many of them <sup>12</sup> therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honourable estate, and of men, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessa- <sup>13</sup> lonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. And then immediately <sup>14</sup> the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas and Timothy abode there still. But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.

Now while Paul waited for <sup>15</sup> them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the city full of idols. So he reasoned in the syna- <sup>17</sup> gogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met with him. And cer- <sup>18</sup> tain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange <sup>19</sup> gods: because he preached Jesus and the resurrection. And <sup>20</sup> they took hold of him, and brought him <sup>5</sup> unto <sup>6</sup> the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these 21 things mean. (Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there <sup>1</sup>spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new 22 thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are somewhat <sup>2</sup>superstitious. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, <sup>3</sup>TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this set I 24 forth unto you. The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in <sup>4</sup>temples made 25 with hands; neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to 26 all life, and breath, and all things; and he made of one every nation of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from each one of 28 us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said, For we are ■ also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that <sup>5</sup>the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man.

30 The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he <sup>6</sup>commandeth men that they should all everywhere 31 repent: inasmuch as he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge <sup>7</sup>the world in righteousness <sup>8</sup>by <sup>9</sup>the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead

Now when they heard of <sup>32</sup>the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again. Thus <sup>33</sup>Paul went out from among them. But certain men clave <sup>34</sup>unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things he de- <sup>18</sup>parted from Athens, and came to Corinth. And he <sup>2</sup>found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; and <sup>3</sup>because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they wrought; for by their trade they were tent-makers. And he reasoned in <sup>4</sup>the synagogue every sabbath, and <sup>10</sup>persuaded Jews and Greeks.

But when Silas and Timothy <sup>5</sup>came down from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. And when they opposed them- <sup>6</sup>selves, and <sup>11</sup>blasphemed, he shook out his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And <sup>7</sup>he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the syna-8 gogue. And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, <sup>1</sup>believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were 9 baptized. And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy 10 peace: for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much 11 people in this city. And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was pro-consul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and brought him 13 before the judgement-seat, saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to 14 the law. But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should 15 bear with you: but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these 16 matters. And he drave them 17 from the judgement-seat. And they all laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gal-lio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul, having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchreae: for he had a vow.
 19 And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. And when they ask- 20 ed him to abide a longer time, he consented not; but taking 21 his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you, if God will, he set sail from Ephesus. And when he had 22 landed at Caesarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to Antioch.

 And having spent some time 23 there, he departed, and went through the region of Ga-latia and Phrygia in order, establishing all the disciples.

Now a certain Jew named 24 Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, <sup>2</sup>a learned man, came to Ephesus; and he was mighty in the scriptures. This man had been <sup>3</sup>instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John: 25 and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more carefully. And when he was minded to pass over into A- 26 chaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he <sup>4</sup>helped them much which had believed through grace: for he 27 powerfully confuted the Jews, <sup>5</sup>and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

And it came to pass, that, 19 while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples: and he said unto 2 them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether <sup>1</sup> the Holy Ghost was <sup>3</sup> given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's bap<sup>4</sup> tism. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on <sup>5</sup> Jesus. And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>6</sup> And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and <sup>7</sup> prophesied. And they were in all about twelve men.
<sup>8</sup> And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the <sup>9</sup> kingdom of God. But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Ty-<sup>10</sup> rannus. And this continued for the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.
<sup>11</sup> And God wrought special <sup>2</sup> miracles by the hands of Paul: <sup>12</sup> inasmuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spi-<sup>13</sup> rits went out. But certain also of the strolling Jews, ex-orcists, took upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I ad-<sup>14</sup> jure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, which did <sup>15</sup> this. And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I <sup>3</sup> know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? And <sup>16</sup> the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

 And this became known to <sup>17</sup> all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. Many also of them <sup>18</sup> that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.
 And not a few of them that <sup>19</sup> practised <sup>4</sup> curious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all:
 and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So <sup>20</sup> mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

Now after these things were <sup>21</sup> ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.
 And having sent into Mace- <sup>22</sup> donia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

And about that time there <sup>23</sup> arose no small stir concerning the Way. For a certain man <sup>24</sup> named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of <sup>5</sup> Diana, brought no little business unto the craftsmen; whom he gathered to- <sup>25</sup> gether, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this business we have our wealth. And ye <sup>26</sup> see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they 27 with hands: and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess <sup>1</sup>Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all 28 Asia and <sup>2</sup>the world worshippeth. And when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is <sup>1</sup>Diana of the Ephe-29 sians. And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men 30 of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, the disciples 31 suffered him not. And certain also of the <sup>3</sup>chief officers of Asia, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into 32 the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they 33 were come together. <sup>4</sup>And they brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people.

 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is 35 <sup>1</sup>Diana of the Ephesians. And when the townclerk had quiet-ed the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. For ye have brought 37 hither these men, which are

 If therefore Demetrius, and 38 the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, <sup>6</sup>the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. But 39 if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly.
 For indeed we are in danger 40 to be <sup>7</sup>accused concerning this for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give ac-

 41 when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

And after the uproar was 20 ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed for to go into Macedonia. And when he had gone 2 through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. And 3 when he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. And 4 there accompanied him <sup>8</sup>as far as Asia Sopater of Berea, the son of Pyrrhus; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Tro-phimus. But these <sup>9</sup>had gone 5 before, and were waiting for us at Troas. And we sailed 6 away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

- 7 And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight.
- 8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where we were gathered together.
- 9 And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eutychus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Make ye no ado; for his life is in him. And when he was gone up, and had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.
- 13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go <sup>1</sup>by land.
- 14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to 15 Mitylene. And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and <sup>2</sup>the day after we came to Miletus. For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.
- 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to him the <sup>3</sup>elders of the church.
- 18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time, serving 19 the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell me by the plots of the Jews: how that 20 I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to Jews 21 and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus <sup>4</sup>Christ. And 22 now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: save that the 23 Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But 24 I hold not my life of any account, as dear unto myself, <sup>5</sup>so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God. And 25 now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I 27 shrank not from declaring unto you the whole counsel of God. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in the which the Holy Ghost hath made you <sup>6</sup>bishops, to feed the church of <sup>7</sup>God, which he <sup>8</sup>purchased with his own blood. I know that after 29 my departing grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing the flock; and from 30 among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Wherefore 31 watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one night and day with tears. 82 And now I commend you to <sup>1</sup>God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them 83 that are sanctified. I coveted no man's silver, or gold, or 84 apparel. Ye yourselves know that these hands ministered unto my necessities, and to 85 them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, how that so labouring ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

86 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and 87 prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all 88 for the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

21 And when it came to pass that we were parted from them, and had set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and from thence

2 unto Patara: and having found a ship crossing over unto Phœnicia, we went aboard, and set sail. And when we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her

4 burden. And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in Jerusalem. And when it came 5 to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: and kneeling down on the beach, we prayed, and bade 6 each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.

And when we had finished 7 the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and we saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we abode with him. Now this 9 man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy. And 10 as we tarried there <sup>2</sup>many days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named Agabus. And coming 11 to us, and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And 12 when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul 13 answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when 14 he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

And after these days we 15 <sup>3</sup>took up our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem. And 16 there went with us also certain of the disciples from Cæsarea, bringing with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

- 17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And they, when they heard it, glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many<sup>1</sup> thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed; and they are all zealous for the law: and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore? they will certainly hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; these take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. But as touching the Gentiles which have believed, we<sup>2</sup> wrote, giving judgement that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. Then Paul<sup>3</sup> took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

And when the seven days<sup>27</sup> were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on him, crying out, Men<sup>28</sup> of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath defiled this holy place. For<sup>29</sup> they had before seen with him in the city Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. And all the city<sup>30</sup> was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the<sup>4</sup> chief captain of the<sup>5</sup> band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. And forthwith<sup>31</sup> he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came<sup>32</sup> near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done. And some<sup>33</sup> shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into the castle. And when he<sup>34</sup> came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; for the multitude of<sup>35</sup> the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

And as Paul was about to<sup>36</sup> be brought into the castle, he saith unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek? Art thou not then the Egyptian, which before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, saying, 22 Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

3 I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this day: and I persecuted this

4 Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons

5 both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus, to bring them also which were there unto Jerusalem in bonds, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light

7 round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me beheld indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews that dwelt there, came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very hour I looked up on him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. For thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name. And it came to pass, that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me. And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: and when the blood 20 21 slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence unto the Gentiles.

 22 And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that 23 he should live. And as they cried out, and threw off their garments, and cast dust into 24 the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so shouted 25 against him. And when they had tied him up <sup>1</sup>with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and un-26 condemned? And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for this man is 27 a Roman. And the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman?
 28 And he said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born.
 29 They then which were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
 30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come toge-

 Paul said, I wist not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. And when 7

- 12 And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. Now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to slay him. But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait,<sup>1</sup> and he came and entered into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath something to tell him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and saith, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. And the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to tell me? And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, looking for the promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man that thou hast signified these things to me. And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night: and he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this form:

Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix, greeting. This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. And desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him down unto their council: whom I found to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.<sup>3</sup>

So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: and they, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when he had read it, he asked of what province he was; and when he understood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thy cause, said he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Herod's <sup>1</sup>palace.

24 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Tertullus; and they informed the governor against Paul. And when he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected

3 for this nation, we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thank-

4 fulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I in-

5 treat thee to hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insur-

6 rections among all the Jews throughout <sup>2</sup>the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the 7 Nazarenes: who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on whom also we laid hold: <sup>3</sup>

8 from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.

10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make my defence:

11 seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem:

12 and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city. Neither can 13 they prove to thee the things whereof they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, 14 that after the Way which they call <sup>4</sup>a sect, so serve I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets: having 15 hope toward God, which these also themselves <sup>5</sup>look for, that there shall be a resurrection both of the just and unjust. Herein do I also exercise my- 16 self to have a conscience void of offence toward God and men alway. Now after <sup>6</sup>many 17 years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings: <sup>7</sup>a 18 midst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but there were certain 19 Jews from Asia—who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, if they had aught against me. Or else 20 let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found, when I stood before the council, except it be for this one 21 voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.

But Felix, having more exact 22 knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. And he gave 23 order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.

But after certain days, Felix 24 came with Drusilla, <sup>8</sup> his wife, which was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ 25 Jesua. And as he reasoned of righteousness, and <sup>1</sup>temperance, and the judgement to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee 26 unto me. He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. But when 27 two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, <sup>2</sup>having come into the province, after three days went up to Jeru-2 salem from Cæsarea. And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and they 3 besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; laying wait to kill him on the 4 way. Howbeit Festus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæsarea, and that he himself was about to de-5 part thither shortly. Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat, and command-of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. But Festus, 9 desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? But 10 Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's judgement-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. If then I am a wrong- 11 doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can <sup>3</sup>give me up unto them.

 I appeal unto Cæsar. Then 12 Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

Now when certain days were 13 passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Cæsarea, 4 and saluted Festus. And 14 as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix: about whom, when 15 I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence against him. To whom 16 I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. When therefore 17 they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. Con- 18 cerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought

- no charge of such evil things 19 as I supposed; but had certain questions against him of their own <sup>1</sup>religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul 20 affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged 21 of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of <sup>2</sup>the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him 22 to Caesar. And Agrippa said unto Festus, I also <sup>3</sup>could wish to hear the man myself. Tomorrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.
 23 So on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was 24 brought in. And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any 25 longer. But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death: and as he himself appealed to <sup>2</sup>the emperor I determined to send him. Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may 27 have somewhat to write. For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.
 28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to

I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: <sup>4</sup>especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, how that after the straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers; unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities. <sup>5</sup>Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against <sup>1</sup>the goad.

And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things <sup>2</sup>wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, to open their eyes, <sup>3</sup>that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me.

Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of <sup>4</sup>repentance. For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; <sup>5</sup>how that the Christ <sup>6</sup>must suffer, and <sup>5</sup>how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light

And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learning doth turn thee to madness. But Paul saith, I am not mad; most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

And the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cæsar.

And when it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. And the next day we touched at Sidon: and Julius treated

Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go unto his friends 4 and <sup>1</sup>refresh himself. And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not <sup>2</sup>further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete, over against Salmone; and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
 9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which 12 were spoken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there; which is a haven of Crete, looking <sup>3</sup>north-east and south-east.
 18 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close in shore.
 14 But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Eura-quilo: and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. And running under the lee of a small island called <sup>4</sup>Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syrtis, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw the freight overboard; and the third day they cast out with their own hands the <sup>5</sup>tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve, saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Caesar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country;

28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for the day. And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: and he brake it, and began to eat. Then were they all of good cheer, and themselves also took food. And we were in all in the ship <sup>2</sup>two hundred threescore and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could <sup>3</sup>drive the ship upon it. And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves overboard, and get first to the land: and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to the land.

And when we were escaped, then we knew that the island was called <sup>4</sup>Melita. And the barbarians shewed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, a viper came out <sup>5</sup>by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. And when the barbarians saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said one to another, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet Justice hath not suffered to live. Howbeit he shook off the beast into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

Now in the neighbourhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying his hands on him healed him. And when this was done, the rest also which had diseases in the island came, and were cured: who also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

And after three months we set sail in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was <sup>1</sup>The Twin Brothers. And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. And from thence we <sup>2</sup>made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli: where we found brethren, and were intreated to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to Rome.

And from thence the brethren, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius, and The Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

And when we entered into Rome, <sup>3</sup>Paul was suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

And it came to pass, that after three days he called together <sup>4</sup>those that were the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, brethren, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jeru-

But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of. For this cause therefore did I <sup>5</sup>intreat you to see and to speak with me: for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.

And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded the matter, testifying the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost <sup>6</sup>by Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, saying,

Go thou unto this people, and say,

By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;

And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:

For this people's heart is waxed gross,

And their ears are dull of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed;

And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,

2 God, which he promised afore <sup>2</sup>by his prophets in the holy 3 scriptures, concerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4 who was <sup>3</sup>declared to be the Son of God <sup>4</sup>with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead; even Jesus Christ
5 our Lord, through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience <sup>5</sup>of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake: among whom are ye also, called to be Jesus
7 Christ's: to all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, <sup>6</sup>that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole 9 world. For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always in my prayers making request, if by 10 any means now at length I may be prospered <sup>7</sup>by the will of God to come unto you. For I long to see you, that 11 I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; that is, 12 that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. And I would not 13 have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles. I am debtor both 14 to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish. So, as much as in 15 me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. For I am not 16 ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For there- 17 in is revealed a righteousness of God <sup>1</sup>by faith unto faith: as it is written, But the righteous shall live <sup>1</sup>by faith.

- 18 For <sup>2</sup>the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who <sup>3</sup>hold down the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it unto them. For
- 20 the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; <sup>4</sup>that they may be without excuse: because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became
- 23 fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.
- 24 Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonoured among themselves: for that they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed <sup>5</sup>for ever. Amen.
- 26 For this cause God gave them up unto <sup>6</sup>vile passions: for their women changed the natural use into that which
- 27 is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

And even as they <sup>7</sup>refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; whisperers, backbiters, <sup>8</sup>hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unmerciful: who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they which practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

Wherefore thou art without excuse, O man, whosever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest <sup>9</sup>another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest dost practise the same things. <sup>10</sup>And we know that the judgement of God is according to truth against them that practise such things. And reckonest thou this, O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgement of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? but after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up for thyself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgement of God; who will render to every man according to his works: to them that by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honour and incorruption, eternal life:

8 but unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall 9 be wrath and indignation, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first, and also 10 of the Greek; but glory and honour and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew 11 first, and also to the Greek: for there is no respect of persons 12 with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and 13 as many as have sinned under law shall be judged by law; 14 for not the hearers of a law are <sup>1</sup>just before God, but the doers of a law shall be <sup>2</sup>justified: for when Gentiles which 15 have no law do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law unto 16 themselves; in that they shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience 17 bearing witness therewith, and their <sup>3</sup>thoughts one with another accusing or else excusing 18 them; in the day when God <sup>4</sup>shall judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ.
 19 But if thou bearest the name of a Jew, and retest upon <sup>5</sup>the law, and gloriest in God, and 20 knowest <sup>6</sup>his will, and <sup>7</sup>approvest the things that are excellent, being instructed out of 21 the law, and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are 22 in darkness, <sup>8</sup>a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth; 23 thou therefore that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou <sup>9</sup>rob temples? thou who gloriest in <sup>23</sup> <sup>5</sup>the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonourest thou God? For the name <sup>24</sup> of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, even as it is written. For <sup>25</sup> circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. If <sup>26</sup> therefore the uncircumcision keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? and shall not the <sup>27</sup> uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? For <sup>28</sup> he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, <sup>29</sup> which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

What advantage then hath <sup>3</sup> the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? Much every <sup>2</sup> way: first of all, that they were intrusted with the oracles of God. For what if some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God?
<sup>10</sup> God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man a liar; as it is written,

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,
And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgment.

But if our unrighteousness <sup>5</sup> commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (I speak 6 after the manner of men.) God forbid: for then how shall God 7 judge the world? <sup>1</sup>But if the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, why am I also still judged as a 8 sinner? and why not (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.

 9 What then? <sup>2</sup>are we in worse case than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of Jews and 10 Greeks, that they are all under sin; as it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one;
 11 There is none that under-standeth,
 There is none that seeketh after God; 12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;
 There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one: 13 Their throat is an open sepulchre;
 With their tongues they have used deceit:
 The poison of asps is under their lips: 14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood; 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways; 17 And the way of peace have they not known: 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
 19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may be brought under the judgement of God:

because <sup>3</sup>by <sup>4</sup>the works of the <sup>20</sup> law shall no flesh be <sup>5</sup>justified in his sight: for <sup>6</sup>through the law cometh the knowledge of sin. But now apart from <sup>21</sup> the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteous-22 ness of God through faith <sup>7</sup>in Jesus Christ unto all <sup>8</sup>them that believe; for there is no distinction; for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; being justified freely <sup>23</sup> by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God <sup>9</sup>set forth <sup>25</sup> <sup>10</sup>to be a propitiation, through 11 faith, by his blood, to shew his righteousness, because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the forbearing of God; for the <sup>26</sup> shewing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be <sup>12</sup>just, and the <sup>12</sup>justifier of him that <sup>13</sup>hath faith <sup>7</sup>in Jesus.
 Where then is the glorying? <sup>27</sup> It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. <sup>14</sup>We <sup>28</sup> reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from 29 <sup>4</sup>the works of the law. Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: 30 if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision <sup>3</sup>by faith, and the uncircu-31 cumcision <sup>15</sup>through faith. Do we then make <sup>16</sup>the law of none effect <sup>16</sup>through faith?
 God forbid: nay, we establish 16 the law.

What then shall we say <sup>4</sup> 17 that Abraham, our forefa-ther according to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham <sup>2</sup> was justified <sup>3</sup>by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the <sup>3</sup> scripture? And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness. Even as David also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart from works, saying,

Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, And whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.

Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. For not <sup>1</sup>through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (as it is written, A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were. Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body <sup>2</sup>now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb: yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

Being therefore justified <sup>3</sup>by faith, <sup>4</sup>let us have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom also 2

we have had our access <sup>1</sup>by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and <sup>2</sup>let us <sup>3</sup>rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

<sup>8</sup> And not only so, but <sup>4</sup>let us also <sup>5</sup>rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, probation; and probation, hope: and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the <sup>6</sup>Holy Ghost which was given unto us. For while we were yet weak, in due season Christ died for the ungodly.

<sup>7</sup> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for <sup>8</sup>the good man some one would even dare to die. But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, <sup>9</sup> Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified <sup>7</sup>by his blood, shall we be saved from the wrath of God through him. For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved <sup>7</sup>by his life; and not only so, <sup>8</sup>but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all

<sup>13</sup> men, for that all sinned:—for until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a figure of him that was to come. But trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the many. And not as through one that <sup>16</sup>sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto <sup>9</sup>justification. For if, by <sup>17</sup>the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and <sup>10</sup>of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ. So <sup>18</sup>then as through one trespass the judgement came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men to justification of life. For as through the <sup>19</sup>one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be made righteous. And <sup>20</sup>if the law came in beside, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly: that, as sin reigned in death, <sup>21</sup>even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>15</sup> not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the

What shall we say then? <sup>6</sup> Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we any longer live therein? Or are ye ignorant that <sup>3</sup>all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were <sup>4</sup>buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

6 For if we have become <sup>1</sup>united with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by the likeness of his resurrection; knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in 7 bondage to sin; for he that hath died is justified from sin.
 8 But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also 9 live with him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more hath dominion over 10 him. For <sup>2</sup>the death that he died, he died unto sin <sup>3</sup>once: but <sup>2</sup>the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.
 12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey the lusts thereof: 13 neither present your members unto sin as <sup>4</sup>instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as alive from the dead, and your members as <sup>4</sup>instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.
 15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? God 16 forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as <sup>5</sup>servants unto obedience, his <sup>5</sup>servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?
 17 But thanks be to God, <sup>6</sup>that, whereas ye were <sup>5</sup>servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that <sup>7</sup>form of teaching whereunto 18 ye were delivered; and being made free from sin, ye became 19 <sup>5</sup>servants of righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye <sup>20</sup>were <sup>5</sup>servants of sin, ye were free in regard of righteousness. What fruit then had ye <sup>21</sup>at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made <sup>22</sup>free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal life. For the <sup>23</sup>wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men that know <sup>8</sup>the law), how that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? For the woman that <sup>2</sup>hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. So then if, <sup>3</sup>while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye <sup>4</sup>also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in <sup>5</sup>the flesh, the <sup>9</sup>sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we have been dis- <sup>6</sup> charged from the law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

- 7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, I had not known sin, except through <sup>1</sup>the law: for I had not known <sup>2</sup>coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not <sup>2</sup>covet: but sin, finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of <sup>2</sup>coveting: for apart from <sup>1</sup>the law sin is dead.
- 9 And I was alive apart from <sup>1</sup>the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; and the commandment, which was unto life, this I found to be unto death: for sin, finding occasion, through the commandment beguiled me, and through it slew me. So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shewn to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.
- 15 For that which I <sup>3</sup>do I know not: for not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto the law that it is good. So now it is no more I that <sup>3</sup>do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to <sup>3</sup>do that which is good is not.
- 19 For the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. But if what I would not, that I do, it is no more I that <sup>3</sup>do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. I find then <sup>4</sup>the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. For I delight <sup>5</sup>in the law of God after the inward man: but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity <sup>6</sup>under the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of <sup>7</sup>the body of this death? <sup>8</sup>I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I myself with the mind serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. For what the law could not do, <sup>9</sup>in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of <sup>10</sup>sinful flesh <sup>11</sup>and as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: that the <sup>12</sup>ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the spirit the things of the spirit. For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the spirit is life and peace: because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: and they that are in the flesh cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you.

But if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies <sup>1</sup>through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

<sup>18</sup> For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected <sup>21</sup> it, <sup>4</sup>in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain <sup>5</sup>together until <sup>23</sup> now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For by hope <sup>24</sup> were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: <sup>6</sup> for who <sup>7</sup>hopeth for that which he seeth? But if we hope <sup>25</sup> for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, <sup>8</sup> because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that to them that love God <sup>9</sup> all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose. For whom he foreknew, he also foreordained to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren: and whom he foreordained, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

What then shall we say to <sup>31</sup> these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He that <sup>32</sup> spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things? Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? <sup>33</sup> <sup>10</sup> It is God that justifieth; who is he that shall condemn? <sup>34</sup> <sup>11</sup> It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh 85 intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love <sup>1</sup> of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or fam-86 ine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Even as it is written.

For thy sake we are killed all the day long;

We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through 38 him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor pow-39 ers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other <sup>2</sup> creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy 2 Ghost, that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my 3 heart. For I could <sup>3</sup> wish that I myself were anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen according to the 4 flesh: who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises; 5 whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, <sup>4</sup> who is over all, God 6 blessed <sup>5</sup> for ever. Amen. But it is not as though the word of God hath come to nought.
 For they are not all Israel, 7 which are of Israel: neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed 8 be called. That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; but the children of the promise are 9 reckoned for a seed. For this is a word of promise. According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

 And not only so; but Rebecca 10 also having conceived by one, 11 even by our father Isaac—for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said 12 unto her, The elder shall serve the younger. Even as it is 13 written, Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

What shall we say then? 14 Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid. For he 15 saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not 16 of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that hath mercy. For 17 the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth.
 So then he hath mercy on 18 whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

Thou wilt say then unto 19 me, Why doth he still find fault? For who withstandeth his will? Nay but, O man, 20 who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why didst thou make me thus? Or hath not the 21 potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?
 What if God, willing to shew 22 his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto destruction:

23 <sup>1</sup>and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he afore prepared unto glory, 24 even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but 25 also from the Gentiles? As he saith also in Hosea,

I will call that my people, which was not my people;

And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people,

There shall they be called sons of the living God.

27 And Isaiah crieth concerning Israel, If the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that shall be saved: for 28 the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it and cutting it short. And, as 29 Isaiah hath said before,

Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed,

We had become as Sodom, and had been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of 31 faith: but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did 32 not arrive at that law. Wherefore? <sup>2</sup>Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at the 33 stone of stumbling; even as it is written,

Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:

And he that believeth on <sup>3</sup>him shall not be put to shame.

God is for them, that they may be saved. For I bear them <sup>2</sup>witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. For Christ is the <sup>4</sup>end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth. For Moses writeth that <sup>5</sup>the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby. But the <sup>6</sup>righteousness which is of faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) or, Who shall <sup>7</sup>descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.) But what saith <sup>8</sup>it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: <sup>9</sup>because if thou shalt <sup>6</sup>confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: for <sup>10</sup>with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: for, <sup>13</sup>Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they <sup>14</sup>call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall <sup>15</sup>they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring <sup>1</sup> glad tidings of good things!

- 16 But they did not all hearken to the <sup>2</sup> glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath 17 believed our report? So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.
18 But I say, Did they not hear?
Yea, verily,

Their sound went out into all the earth,
And their words unto the ends of <sup>3</sup> the world.

- 19 But I say, Did Israel not know?
First Moses saith,

I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

- 20 And Isaiah is very bold, and
saith,

I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

- 21 But as to Israel he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

- 11 I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid.

For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of

- 2 the tribe of Benjamin. God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith <sup>4</sup> of Elijah? how he pleadeth

- 3 with God against Israel, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone,

- 4 and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who

- 5 have not bowed the knee to Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. But if it is by <sup>6</sup> grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. What then? That which <sup>7</sup> Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened: according as it is <sup>8</sup> written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. And David <sup>9</sup>

saith,

Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

Let their eyes be darkened, <sup>10</sup> that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back alway.

I say then, Did they stumble <sup>11</sup> that they might fall? God forbid: but by their <sup>5</sup> fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. Now if their fall is <sup>12</sup> the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

But I speak to you that <sup>13</sup> are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry: if by any means I may provoke to jealousy them that are my flesh, and may save some of them. For if the casting <sup>15</sup> away of them is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? And if <sup>16</sup> the firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches. But <sup>17</sup> if some of the branches were broken off, and thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them <sup>6</sup> of the 18 root of the fatness of the olive tree; glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it is not thou that bearest the 19 root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be 20 grafted in. Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by thy faith.

 Be not highminded, but fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he 22 spare thee. Behold then the goodness and severity of God:
 toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou 23 also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able 24 to graft them in again. For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Is-26 rael, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer;

He shall turn away <sup>1</sup>ungodliness from Jacob:

27 And this is <sup>2</sup>my covenant

When I shall take away the calling of God are <sup>3</sup>without repentance. For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, even so have these also now 31 been disobedient, that by the mercy shewn to you they also may now obtain mercy. For 32 God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

O the depth <sup>4</sup>of the riches 33 <sup>5</sup>both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! how un-searchable are his judgements, and his ways past tracing out!
 For who hath known the 34 mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? or 35 who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, 36 and through him, and unto him, are all things. To him be the glory <sup>6</sup>for ever. Amen.

I beseech you therefore, 12 brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, <sup>7</sup>acceptable to God, which is your <sup>8</sup>reasonable <sup>9</sup>service. And be <sup>2</sup> not fashioned according to this <sup>10</sup>world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is <sup>11</sup>the good and <sup>7</sup>acceptable and perfect will of God.

For I say, through the <sup>3</sup> grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to each man a measure of faith. For even as we have <sup>4</sup> many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office: so we, who <sup>5</sup> are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another. And having <sup>6</sup> gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophecy according to the proportion of <sup>1</sup>our faith; or ministry, <sup>7</sup>let us give ourselves to our ministry; or he that teacheth, <sup>8</sup>to his teaching; or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with <sup>2</sup>liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. <sup>9</sup>Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. <sup>10</sup>In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honour preferring <sup>11</sup>one another; in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; <sup>12</sup>serving <sup>3</sup>the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing stedfastly in prayer; communicating to the necessities of the saints; <sup>4</sup>given to hospitality. Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but <sup>5</sup>condescend to <sup>6</sup>things that are lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits. Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things honourable <sup>18</sup>in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men. Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto <sup>7</sup>wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. But if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him to drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. <sup>13</sup>Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers: for there is no power but of God; and the powers that be are ordained of God. Therefore <sup>2</sup>he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God: and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgement. For rulers are not <sup>3</sup>a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And wouldest thou have no fear of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same: for <sup>4</sup>he is a minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for <sup>5</sup>he beareth not the sword in vain: for <sup>6</sup>he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause ye <sup>6</sup>pay tribute also; for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually upon this very thing. Render to all their <sup>7</sup>dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

Owe no man anything, save <sup>8</sup>to love one another: for he that loveth <sup>9</sup>his neighbour hath fulfilled <sup>10</sup>the law. For <sup>9</sup>this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love <sup>10</sup>worketh no ill to his neighbour: love therefore is the fulfilment of <sup>10</sup>the law.

And this, knowing the season, that now it is high time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is <sup>11</sup>salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and <sup>12</sup>

the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put 18 on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in 14 strife and jealousy. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.
 14 But him that is weak in faith receive ye, yet not <sup>1</sup>to doubtful disputations. One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is weak 3 eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth set at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou 4 that judgest the <sup>2</sup>servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make 5 him stand. One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be fully 6 assured in his own mind. He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God 7 thanks. For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the 9 Lord's. For to this end Christ died, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the 10 dead and the living. But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgement-seat of God. For it is written, 11 As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, And every tongue shall 8 confess to God.

 So then each one of us shall <sup>12</sup>give account of himself to God.
 Let us not therefore judge <sup>13</sup>one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. I know, and <sup>14</sup>am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. For if because of meat thy <sup>15</sup>brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love. Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died. Let not <sup>16</sup>then your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God <sup>17</sup>is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that herein serveth <sup>18</sup>Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved of men. So <sup>19</sup>then <sup>4</sup>let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another. Overthrow <sup>20</sup>not for meat's sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good not to eat <sup>21</sup>flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth<sup>5</sup>. The faith <sup>22</sup>which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he <sup>6</sup>approveth. But he that doubteth is con- <sup>23</sup>demned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.<sup>7</sup> 15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each one of us please his neighbour for that which is good, unto edifying. For Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell upon me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also received <sup>1</sup>you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises <sup>2</sup>given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I <sup>2</sup>give praise unto thee among the Gentiles,

And sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, Isaiah saith, There shall be the root of Jesse,
And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;
On him shall the Gentiles hope.

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. But I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of the grace that was given me of God, that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus unto the Gentiles, <sup>3</sup>ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore my glorying in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God. For I will not dare to speak of any <sup>4</sup>things save those which Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of <sup>5</sup>the Holy Ghost; so that from Jerusalem, and round about even unto Illyricum, I have <sup>6</sup>fully preached the gospel of Christ; yea, <sup>7</sup>making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build upon another man's foundation; but, as it is written,

They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,
And they who have not heard shall understand.

Wherefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you: but now, having no more any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come unto you, whencesoever I go unto Spain (for I hope to see you

- in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall have been satisfied with your company)
- 25 —but now, I say, I go unto Jerusalem, ministering unto the saints. For it hath been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints that are at
- 26 Jerusalem. Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister unto them in carnal
- 27 things. When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you unto Spain.
- 28 And I know that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.
- 29 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for
- 30 me; that I may be delivered from them that are disobedient in Judæa, and that my ministration which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable
- 31 to the saints; that I may come unto you in joy through the will of God, and together
- 32 with you find rest. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.
- 33 I commend unto you Phœbe our sister, who is a <sup>1</sup>servant of the church that is at Cenchreæ: that ye receive her in the Lord, worthily of the saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you: for she herself also hath been a succourer of many, and of mine own self.

of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind <sup>7</sup> in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall also confirm <sup>8</sup> you unto the end, that ye be unproveable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God <sup>9</sup> is faithful, through whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgement. For it hath <sup>11</sup> been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you. Now this I mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. <sup>1</sup>Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized into the name of Paul? <sup>2</sup>I thank God that I baptized none of you, save Crispus and Gaius; lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

For the word of the cross is to them that are perishing foolishness; but unto us which are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,
I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the prudence of the prudent will I reject.

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this <sup>3</sup>world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the <sup>4</sup>preaching to save them that believe. Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom: but we preach <sup>5</sup>Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumbling-block, and unto Gentiles foolishness; but unto <sup>6</sup>them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

For <sup>7</sup>behold your calling, <sup>26</sup>brethren, how that not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, <sup>8</sup>are called: but God chose the <sup>27</sup>foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; and the base things <sup>28</sup>of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea <sup>9</sup>and the things that are not, that he might bring to nought the things that are: that no flesh should <sup>29</sup>glory before God. But of him <sup>30</sup>are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, <sup>10</sup>and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as <sup>31</sup>it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

And I, brethren, when I <sup>2</sup>came unto you, came not with excellency of <sup>11</sup>speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the <sup>12</sup>mystery of God. For I <sup>2</sup>determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And <sup>3</sup>I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my <sup>11</sup>speech and <sup>4</sup>my <sup>4</sup>preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power: that your faith <sup>5</sup>should not <sup>13</sup>stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

Howbeit we speak wisdom <sup>6</sup>among the <sup>14</sup>perfect: yet a wisdom not of this <sup>15</sup>world, nor of the rulers of this <sup>15</sup>world, which are coming to nought: but we speak God's wisdom <sup>7</sup>in a mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God foreordained before the 8 worlds unto our glory: which none of the rulers of this world knoweth: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory: 9 but as it is written,

Things which eye saw not,
 and ear heard not,
 And which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 <sup>1</sup> But unto us God revealed <sup>2</sup> them through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. But we received, 12 not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth;

13 <sup>3</sup> comparing spiritual things with spiritual. Now the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually <sup>4</sup> judged. But he that is spiritual <sup>5</sup> judgeth all things, and he himself is <sup>6</sup> judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

14 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, <sup>7</sup> unto babes in Christ. I fed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; for ye are yet 8 carnal: for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and walk after the manner of men? For 4 when one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not men? What then 5 is Apollos? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; and each as the Lord gave to him. I planted, 6 Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then 7 neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that 8 planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For 9 we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's <sup>7</sup> husbandry, God's building.

According to the grace of God 10 which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation 11 can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. But if any man buildeth 12 on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble; each man's work 13 shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; <sup>8</sup> and the fire itself shall prove each man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work shall 14 abide which he built thereon, he shall receive a reward. If 15 any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire.

Know ye not that ye are 16 a <sup>9</sup> temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man destroyeth 17

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this <sup>3</sup>world, let him become a fool, 19 that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh the 20 wise in their craftiness: and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that 21 they are vain. Wherefore let no one glory in men. For all 22 things are yours; whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things 23 to come; all are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of 2 God. Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man 8 be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be <sup>4</sup>judged of you, or of man's <sup>5</sup>judgement: yea, I <sup>6</sup>judge not mine own 4 self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that <sup>7</sup>judgeth me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up for the one against the other.

For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Already 8 are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have reigned without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. For, I think, God hath set 9 forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, <sup>8</sup>and to angels, and to men. We are fools 10 for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonour. Even unto this present hour 11 we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; and we toil, working 12 with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the <sup>9</sup>filth of the world, the obscuring of all things, even until now.

I write not these things to 14 shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. For though ye should have 15 ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I begat you through the gospel. I 16 beseech you therefore, be ye imitators of me. For this 17 cause have I sent unto you Timothy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every church. Now some are puffed up, as 18 though I were not coming to you. But I will come to you 19 shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them which are puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

5 It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's wife. And <sup>1</sup>ye are puffed up, and <sup>2</sup>did not rather mourn, that he that had done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him that hath so wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord <sup>3</sup>Jesus. Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover also hath been sacrificed, even Christ: wherefore let us <sup>4</sup>keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in my epistle to have no company with fornicators; <sup>5</sup>not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world: but <sup>6</sup>now I write unto you not to keep company, if any man that is named a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one no, not to eat. For what have I to do with judging them that are without? Do not ye judge them that are within, whereas them that are without God judgeth? Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

Dare any of you, having a matter against <sup>7</sup>his neighbour, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? Or know ye not that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy <sup>8</sup>to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life? If then ye have <sup>9</sup>to judge things pertaining to this life, <sup>10</sup>do ye set them to judge who are of no account in the church? I say this to move you to shame. Is it so, that there cannot be found among you one wise man, who shall be able to decide between his brethren, but brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers? Nay, already it is altogether <sup>11</sup>a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded? Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such

- 12 All things are lawful for me; but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body: and God both raised the Lord, and will raise up us through his power. Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? God forbid. Or know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh. But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.
- 18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. Or know ye not that your body is a <sup>2</sup>temple of the <sup>3</sup>Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have from God? and ye are not your own; for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.
- 7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. But this I say by way of permission, not of commandment. Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I. But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband (but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving depart, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us in peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all the churches.

18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. Wast thou called being a bondservant? care not for it: <sup>1</sup>but if thou canst become free, use it rather.

22 For he that was called in the Lord, being a bondservant, is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called, being free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye were bought with a price; become not bondservants of men.

24 Brethren, let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely, that it is good for a man <sup>2</sup>to be as he is. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time <sup>3</sup>is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; and those that use the world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away. But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his <sup>5</sup>wife. And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a <sup>6</sup>snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he becometh himself unseemly toward his <sup>7</sup>virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own <sup>7</sup>virgin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that giveth his own <sup>7</sup>virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be <sup>8</sup>dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she is happier if she abide as she is, after my judgement: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

- 8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love 2 edifieth. If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he knoweth not yet as he ought 3 to know; but if any man loveth God, the same is known 4 of him. Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God but 5 one. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many;
6 yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we 7 through him. Howbeit in all men there is not that knowledge: but some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But meat will not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, <sup>2</sup>are we the worse; nor, if we eat, <sup>3</sup>are we the better. But take heed lest by any means this <sup>4</sup>liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to the weak. For if a man see thee which hast knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, <sup>5</sup>be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? For <sup>6</sup>through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for 12 whose sake Christ died. And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin 13 against Christ. Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother to stumble.

Am I not free? am I not an apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord? If to 2 others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. My defence 3 to them that examine me is this. Have we no right 4 to eat and to drink? Have 5 we no right to lead about a wife that is a <sup>7</sup>believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas? Or I only and Bar-6 nabas, have we not a right to forbear working? What 7 soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Do I speak 8 these things after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for the oxen that God 10 careth, or <sup>8</sup>saith he it altogether for our sake? Yea, for our sake it was written: because he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope 11 of partaking. If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? If others 12 partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ. Know ye not that they which

and they which wait upon the altar have their portion with 14 the altar? Even so did the Lord ordain that they which proclaim the gospel should live of the gospel. But I have used 15 none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make my glorying void. For if I preach the 16 gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I 17 preach not the gospel. For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a stewardship intrusted to me.
 18 What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the full my right in the gospel.
 19 For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. And to the 20 Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 21 to them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save 22 some. And I do all things for the gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof.
 23 Know ye not that they which run in a <sup>1</sup> race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; so <sup>2</sup> fight I, as not beating the air: but I <sup>3</sup> buffet my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, how that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and were all baptized <sup>4</sup> unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; and did all eat the same spiritual meat; and did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was Christ. Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now <sup>5</sup> these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt the <sup>6</sup> Lord, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. Now these things happened unto them <sup>7</sup> by way of example; and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as man can bear: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to endure it.

14 Wherefore, my beloved, flee 15 from idolatry. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a <sup>1</sup>communion of the blood of Christ? The <sup>2</sup>bread which we break, is it not a <sup>1</sup>communion of the 17 body of Christ? <sup>3</sup>seeing that we, who are many, are one <sup>2</sup>bread, one body: for we all partake <sup>4</sup>of the one <sup>2</sup>bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: have not they which eat the sacrifices communion with the altar? What say I then? that a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to <sup>5</sup>devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have communion with <sup>5</sup>devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of <sup>5</sup>devils: ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of <sup>5</sup>devils. Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

21 All things are lawful; but all things are not expedient. All things are lawful; but all things <sup>6</sup>edify not. Let no man seek his own, but each his neighbour's good. Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, eat, asking no question for conscience sake; for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. If one of them that believe not biddeth you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. But if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God: even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved. Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

Now I praise you that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing as if she were shaven. For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: for neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man: for this cause ought a woman to have a sign of authority on her head, because 11 of the angels. Howbeit neither is the woman without the man, 12 nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but all things are of God.

 13 Judge ye <sup>1</sup>in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray 14 unto God unveiled? Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, 15 it is a dishonour to him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
 16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
 17 But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but 18 for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together <sup>2</sup>in the church, I hear that <sup>3</sup>divisions exist among you; and I partly 19 believe it. For there must be also <sup>4</sup>heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
 22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the <sup>5</sup>church of God, and put them to shame that <sup>6</sup>have not? What shall I say to you?
 23 <sup>7</sup>shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, how that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took 24 bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, you: this do in remembrance of me. In like manner also <sup>25</sup> the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new <sup>9</sup>covenant in my blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat <sup>26</sup> this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore who- <sup>27</sup> soever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord un-worthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove <sup>28</sup> himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and <sup>29</sup> drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgement unto himself, if he <sup>30</sup>discern not the body. For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. But if we <sup>31</sup>discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. But <sup>32</sup>when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.

 Wherefore, my brethren, when <sup>33</sup> ye come together to eat, wait one for another. If any man <sup>34</sup> is hungry, let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgement. And the rest will I set in order whenso-ever I come.

Now concerning spiritual <sup>12</sup> gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. Ye know <sup>2</sup> that when ye were Gentiles ye were led away unto those dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. Wherefore I give you <sup>3</sup> to understand, that no man speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.

Now there are diversities of <sup>4</sup> gifts, but the same Spirit. And <sup>5</sup> there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord.
 And there are diversities of <sup>6</sup> workings, but the same God, who worketh all things in all.

 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another faith, in the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of <sup>1</sup>miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will.
 12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so 13 also is Christ. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many.
 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore 16 not of the body. And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not 17 of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?
 18 But now hath God set the members each one of them in the body, even as it pleased him. And if they were all one member, where were the body?
 20 But now they are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have 22 no need of you. Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: and those <sup>23</sup> parts of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we <sup>2</sup>bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; whereas <sup>24</sup> our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honour to that part which lacked; that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another. And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is <sup>3</sup>honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and <sup>4</sup>severally members thereof. And <sup>25</sup> God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then <sup>1</sup>miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, <sup>5</sup>governments, divers kinds of tongues. Are <sup>26</sup> all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of <sup>1</sup>miracles? have all gifts <sup>27</sup> of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? But <sup>28</sup> desire earnestly the greater gifts. And a still more excellent way shew I unto you.

If I speak with the tongues <sup>13</sup> of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift <sup>2</sup> of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And <sup>3</sup> if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body <sup>6</sup>to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. Love suffereth long, <sup>4</sup> and is kind; love envieth not;

love vaunteth not itself, is not 5 puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, tak-6 eth not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the 7 truth; <sup>1</sup>beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
 8 Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.
 9 For we know in part, and we 10 prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be 11 done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away child-12 ish things. For now we see in a mirror, <sup>2</sup>darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I <sup>3</sup>know even as also I have been <sup>4</sup>known.
 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; <sup>5</sup>and the <sup>6</sup>greatest of these is love.
 14 Follow after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. For he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man <sup>7</sup>understandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh mys-3 teries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and comfort, and 4 consolation. He that speaketh in a tongue <sup>8</sup>edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth 6 <sup>8</sup>edifieth the church. Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

 But now, brethren, if I come 6 unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophe-sying, or of teaching? Even things without life, giv- 7 ing a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the 8 trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless 9 ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speak- 10 ing into the air. There are,
 it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and <sup>9</sup>no kind is without signification.
 If then I know not the mean- 11 ing of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian <sup>10</sup>unto me. So also ye, since ye 12 are zealous of <sup>11</sup>spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the edifying of the church.
 Wherefore let him that speak- 13 eth in a tongue pray that he may interpret. For if I pray 14 in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is un-fruitful. What is it then? I 15 will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else 16 if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of <sup>12</sup>the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? For thou 17 verily givest thanks well, but the other is not <sup>13</sup>edified. I 18 thank God, I speak with tongues

- 19 more than you all: howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.
- 20 Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in malice be ye babes, but in mind be <sup>1</sup>men.
- 21 In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear
- 22 me, saith the Lord. Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them
- 23 that believe. If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are
- 24 mad? But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is <sup>2</sup>reproved by all, he is judged by all; the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is <sup>3</sup>among you indeed.
- 25 What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto
- 27 edifying. If any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
- 29 And let the prophets speak by two or three, and let the others <sup>4</sup>discern. But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be <sup>5</sup>comforted; and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

Let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as also saith the law. And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. <sup>6</sup>But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. But let all things be done decently and in order.

Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are <sup>7</sup>saved; I make known, I say, <sup>8</sup>in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed <sup>9</sup>in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third day according to the scriptures; and that he appeared to Cephas; then to the twelve;

6 then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some 7 are fallen asleep; then he appeared to James; then to 8 all the apostles; and last of all, as unto one born out of due time, he appeared to me also. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found <sup>1</sup>vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of 11 God which was with me. Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
 12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been 14 raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching <sup>1</sup>vain, <sup>2</sup>your faith 15 also is <sup>1</sup>vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up <sup>3</sup>Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not 16 raised. For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ 17 been raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in 18 your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in 19 Christ have perished. <sup>4</sup>If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.
 20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.
 21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in <sup>3</sup>Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's, at his <sup>5</sup>coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up the kingdom to <sup>6</sup>God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be abolished is death. For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. <sup>7</sup>But when he saith, All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. And when all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all.

Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? I protest by <sup>8</sup>that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I fought with beasts at Ephesus, <sup>9</sup>what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived: Evil company doth corrupt good manners. <sup>10</sup>Awake up righteously, and sin not; for some have no knowledge of God: I speak this to move you to shame.

But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is not 37 quickened, except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may 38 chance of wheat, or of some other kind; but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body 39 of its own. All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of 40 birds, and another of fishes.

 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial 41 is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in 42 glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is 43 raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in 44 power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual 45 body. So also it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul. The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.
 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; then that which 47 is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is of heaven. As 48 is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they 49 also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, <sup>1</sup>we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
 50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I 51 tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the 52 twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this 53 corruptible must put on in-corruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. But 54 when <sup>2</sup>this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up 55 <sup>3</sup>in victory. O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? The sting of death 56 is sin; and the power of sin is the law: but thanks be to 57 God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore, my belov- 58 ed brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not <sup>4</sup>vain in the Lord.

Now concerning the col- 16 lection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye. Upon 2 the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. And when I 3 arrive, <sup>5</sup>whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, them will I send to carry your bounty unto Jerusalem: and if it be 4 meet for me to go also, they shall go with me. But I will 5 come unto you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia; for I do pass through Macedonia; but with you it 6 may be that I shall abide, or even winter, that ye may set

- me forward on my journey 7 whithersoever I go. For I do not wish to see you now by the way; for I hope to tarry a while with you, if the Lord 8 permit. But I will tarry at 9 Ephesus until Pentecost; for a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.
- 10 Now if Timothy come, see that he be with you without fear; for he worketh the work 11 of the Lord, as I also do: let no man therefore despise him.
 But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come unto me: for I expect 12 him with the brethren. But as touching Apollos the brother, I besought him much to come unto you with the brethren: and it was not at all 13 <sup>his</sup> will to come now; but he will come when he shall have opportunity.
- 13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be 14 strong. Let all that ye do be done in love.
- 15 Now I beseech you, bre-

 have set themselves to minister unto the saints), that ye also 16 be in subjection unto such, and to every one that helpeth in the work and laboureth. And 17 I rejoyce at the <sup>2</sup>coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they supplied. For they refreshed my 18 spirit and yours: acknowledge ye therefore them that are such.

The churches of Asia salute 19 you, Aquila and Prisca salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. All the brethren salute 20 you. Salute one another with

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

CORINTHIANS.

- 1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy <sup>1</sup>our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in the whole of A-2 chaia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>1</sup> Gr. the brother.

the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; who comfort- 4 eth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the 5 sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth through Christ.

6 But whether we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings 7 which we also suffer: and our hope for you is steadfast; knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also are ye 8 of the comfort. For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, insomuch that we despaired 9 even of life: <sup>1</sup>yea, we ourselves have had the <sup>2</sup>answer of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: on whom we have <sup>3</sup>set our hope that he will also still deliver us; ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.
 12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-13 ward. For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge 14 unto the end: as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.
 15 And in this confidence I was minded to come before unto you, that ye might have 16 a second <sup>4</sup>benefit; and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be set forward on my journey unto Judaea. When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? But as God is faithful, our word toward you is not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you <sup>5</sup>by us, even <sup>5</sup>by me and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him is yea. For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. Now he that stablisheth us with you <sup>6</sup>in Christ, and anointed us, is God; <sup>7</sup>who also sealed us, and gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

But I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I forbore to come unto Corinth. Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by <sup>8</sup>faith ye stand. <sup>9</sup>But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you with sorrow. For if I make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad, but he that is made sorry by me? And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

But if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; so that contrariwise ye should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, <sup>2</sup> whether ye are obedient in all things. But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in the <sup>4</sup> person of Christ; that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened unto me in the Lord, I had no relief for my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went forth into Macedonia.

But thanks be unto God, which always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savour of his knowledge in every place.

For we are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, in them that are being saved, and in them that are perishing; to the one a savour from death unto death; to the other a savour from life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as the many, <sup>5</sup> corrupting the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, <sup>as</sup> do some, epistles of commendation to you or from you? Ye are our epistle, <sup>2</sup> written in our hearts, known and read of all men; being <sup>3</sup> made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in tables that are hearts of flesh. And such <sup>4</sup> confidence have we through Christ to Godward: not that <sup>5</sup> we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also made <sup>6</sup> us sufficient as ministers of a new <sup>6</sup> covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the <sup>7</sup> ministration of death, <sup>7</sup> written, and engraven on stones, came <sup>8</sup> with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which glory <sup>9</sup> was passing away: how shall not rather <sup>8</sup> the ministration of the spirit be with glory? <sup>10</sup> For if the <sup>9</sup> ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. For verily <sup>10</sup> that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. For if that which <sup>11</sup> passeth away <sup>12</sup> was <sup>12</sup> with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

Having therefore such a <sup>12</sup> hope, we use great boldness of speech, and are not as <sup>13</sup> Moses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look steadfastly <sup>13</sup> on the end of that which <sup>9</sup> was passing away: but <sup>14</sup> their <sup>14</sup> minds were hardened:

for until this very day at the reading of the old <sup>1</sup>covenant the same veil <sup>2</sup>remaineth unlifted; which veil is done away in Christ. But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. But whensoever <sup>3</sup>it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face <sup>4</sup>reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from <sup>5</sup>the Lord the Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we faint not: but we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But and if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in them that are perishing: in whom the god of this <sup>6</sup>world hath blinded the <sup>7</sup>minds of the unbelieving, <sup>8</sup>that the <sup>9</sup>light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn upon them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your <sup>10</sup>servants <sup>11</sup>for Jesus' sake. Seeing it is God, that said, Light shall shine out of darkness, who shined in our hearts, to give the <sup>12</sup>light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; we are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto despair; pursued, yet not <sup>9</sup> forsaken; smitten down, yet not destroyed; always bearing <sup>10</sup> about in the body the <sup>13</sup>dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. For we which live <sup>11</sup> are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So <sup>12</sup> then death worketh in us, but life in you. But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; knowing that he which raised up <sup>14</sup> the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all <sup>15</sup> things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through <sup>15</sup> the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

Wherefore we faint not; but <sup>16</sup> though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. For our <sup>17</sup> light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; while we <sup>18</sup> look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that if the <sup>5</sup> earthly house of our <sup>16</sup> tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. For verily in <sup>2</sup> this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: if <sup>3</sup> so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For <sup>4</sup> indeed we that are in this

1 tabernacle do groan, <sup>2</sup> being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be 5 swallowed up of life. Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the 7 Lord (for we walk by faith, not 8 by <sup>3</sup> sight); we are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.
 9 Wherefore also we <sup>4</sup> make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing 10 unto him. For we must all be made manifest before the judgement-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done <sup>5</sup> in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.
 11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in 12 your consciences. We are not again commending ourselves unto you, but speak as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, 13 and not in heart. For whether we <sup>6</sup> are beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto 14 you. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that one died for 15 all, therefore all died; and he died for all, that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died 16 and rose again. Wherefore we henceforth know no man after the flesh: even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. Wherefore if any 17 man is in Christ, <sup>7</sup> he is a new creature: the old things are passed away; behold, they are become new. But all things 18 are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and gave unto us the ministry of reconciliation; to wit, that 19 God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself, not reckoning unto them their trespasses, and having <sup>8</sup> committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

We are ambassadors there- 20 fore on behalf of Christ, as though God were intreating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconcil-ed to God. Him who knew no 21 sin he made to be sin on our behalf; that we might become the righteousness of God in him. And working together 6 with him we intreat also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain (for he saith, 2

At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee,
 And in a day of salvation did I succour thee:
 behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation): giving no occasion 3 of stumbling in anything, that our ministration be not blam- 4 ed; but in everything commending ourselves, as ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in impri- 5 sonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; in pureness, in know- 6 ledge, in longsuffering, in kindness, in the <sup>9</sup> Holy Ghost, in love unfeigned, in the word 7 of truth, in the power of God; <sup>10</sup> by the armour of righteousness on the right hand

8 and on the left, by glory and dishonour, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, 9 and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart 12 is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion 15 hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with <sup>1</sup>Belial? or what portion hath a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement hath a <sup>2</sup>temple of God with idols? for we are a <sup>2</sup>temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore

Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord,

And touch no unclean thing; And I will receive you,

18 And will be to you a Father, And ye shall be to me sons and daughters, 7 saith the Lord Almighty. Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 <sup>3</sup>Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together. Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

For even when we were come 5 into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless he that comforted the lowly, even God, comforted us by the <sup>4</sup>coming of Titus; and not by his <sup>4</sup>coming 7 only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more. For though I made 8 you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though I did regret; <sup>5</sup>for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. For godly 10 sorrow worketh repentance <sup>6</sup>unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold, this 11 selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. So al- 12 though I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God.

 13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by 14 you all. For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which I made before Titus, was found to be truth.
 15 And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received 16 him. I rejoyce that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.
 8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the 2 churches of Macedonia; how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave 4 of their own accord, beseeching us with much intreaty in regard of this grace and the fellowship in the ministering to the saints: and this, not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of 6 God. Insomuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you 7 this grace also. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in 2 your love to us, see that ye 8 abound in this grace also. I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of singleness.

1 Gr.

2 Some ancient authorities read our love to you.

others the sincerity also of your love. For ye know the grace 9 of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. And here-10 in I give my judgement: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. But now complete 11 the doing also; that as there was the readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. For 12 if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not this, that 13 others may be eased, and ye distressed: but by equality; 14 your abundance being a supply at this present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality: as it is written, He 15 that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.
 But thanks be to God, which 16 putteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. For indeed he accepted our 17 exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. And we have sent together 18 with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through all the churches; and 19 not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to shew our readi-20 ness: avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: for we 21 take thought for things honourable, not only in the sight

- of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you.
- Whether any inquire about Titus, he is my partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our brethren, they are the <sup>1</sup>messengers of the churches, they are the glory of Christ.
- <sup>2</sup>Shew ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.
- For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
- for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaea hath been prepared for a year past; and <sup>3</sup>your zeal hath stirred up <sup>4</sup>very many of them. But I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, even as I said, ye may be prepared:
- lest by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. I thought it necessary therefore to intreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised <sup>5</sup>bounty, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of <sup>6</sup>extortion.
- But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth <sup>7</sup>bountifully shall reap also <sup>7</sup>bountifully. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart; not <sup>8</sup>grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth <sup>8</sup>a cheerful giver. able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good work: as it is written, <sup>9</sup>

He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor;
His righteousness abideth for ever.

And he that supplieth seed <sup>10</sup>to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness: ye being enriched in everything unto all <sup>11</sup>liberality, which worketh through us thanksgiving to God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanksgivings unto God; seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the <sup>12</sup>liberality of your contribution unto them and unto all; while they themselves <sup>13</sup>also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be to God <sup>14</sup>for his unspeakable gift. <sup>15</sup>

Now I Paul myself intreat <sup>10</sup>you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you: yea, <sup>2</sup>I beseech you, that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against some, which count of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in <sup>3</sup>the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh (for the <sup>4</sup>weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the casting down 6 of strong holds); casting down 1 imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of 6 Christ; and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience shall be 7 fulfilled. <sup>2</sup>Ye look at the things that are before your face.

 If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, 8 so also are we. For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not 9 be put to shame: that I may not seem as if I would terrify 10 you by my letters. For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his 11 speech of no account. Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are 12 present. For we are not bold <sup>8</sup> to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without un-18 derstanding. But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the <sup>4</sup>province which God apportioned to us as a measure, 14 to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves over-much, as though we reached not unto you: for we <sup>5</sup>came even as far as unto you in the gospel of Christ: not 15 glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labours; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be mag-dance, so as to preach the 16 gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's <sup>4</sup>province in regard of things ready to our hand.

 But he that glorieth, let him 17 glory in the Lord. For not 18 he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

Would that ye could bear 11 with me in a little foolishness: <sup>6</sup>may indeed bear with me. For 2 I am jealous over you with <sup>7</sup>a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I fear, 3 lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your <sup>8</sup>minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. For if he that cometh 4 preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with him. For I reckon that I am 5 not a whit behind <sup>9</sup>the very chiefest apostles. But though 6 I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in everything we have made it manifest among all men to you-ward. Or did I commit a 7 sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God for nought? I robbed 8 other churches, taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; and when I was pre- 9 sent with you and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this glorying in the regions of 11 Achaia. Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.
 12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may out off <sup>1</sup>occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even 13 as we. For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into 14 apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Satan fashioneth himself into an angel 15 of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
 16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that 17 I also may glory a little. That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying.
 18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. For ye bear with the foolish gladly, 19 being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth himself, if he smiteth you on 21 the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham?
 23 so am I. Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five <sup>24</sup> times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten <sup>25</sup> with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been in the deep; in journeyings <sup>26</sup> often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my <sup>2</sup>countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. <sup>3</sup> Beside those things <sup>27</sup> that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not <sup>29</sup> weak? who is made to stumble, and I burn not? If I <sup>30</sup> must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my weakness. The God and <sup>31</sup> Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed <sup>4</sup>for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In <sup>32</sup> Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes, in order to take me: and through <sup>33</sup> a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

<sup>5</sup> I must needs glory, though <sup>12</sup> it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a <sup>2</sup> man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the third heaven. And <sup>3</sup> I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up <sup>4</sup> into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

- 5 On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in 6 my weaknesses. For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me 7 to be, or heareth from me. And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations—wherefore, that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a <sup>1</sup>thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not 8 be exalted overmuch. Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might 9 depart from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the strength of Christ may 10 rest upon me. Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.
11 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind 12 the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and <sup>4</sup>mighty works. For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.
14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. And I will most gladly spend and be <sup>5</sup>spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? walked we not by the same Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

<sup>6</sup>Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, <sup>7</sup>tumults; lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

This is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every word be established. I have said <sup>8</sup>beforehand, and I do say <sup>8</sup>beforehand, <sup>9</sup>as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is not weak, but is powerful in you: for he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God. For we also are weak <sup>1</sup>in him, but we shall live with him through the power of God toward you.

5 Try your own selves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless

6 indeed ye be reprobate. But I hope that ye shall know that 7 we are not reprobate. Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honourable, <sup>2</sup>though we be as reprobate.

we are weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your perfecting. For this cause 10 I write these things while absent, that I may not when present deal sharply, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

Finally, brethren, <sup>2</sup>farewell.

11 Be perfected; be comforted; be of the same mind; live in peace: and the God of love and peace shall be with you. Salute one another with a <sup>3</sup>holy kiss.

All the saints salute you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS.

1 PAUL, an apostle (not from men, neither through <sup>1</sup>man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised

2 him from the dead), and all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace

3 from God the Father, and our 4 Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil <sup>3</sup>world, according to the will of our God and 5 Father: to whom be the glory <sup>4</sup>for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a different gospel; which is not another gos-

7 pel: only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But 8 though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach <sup>5</sup>unto you any gospel <sup>6</sup>other than that which we preached unto you, let him be anathema. As

9 we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which ye received, let him be anathema. For 10 am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a <sup>7</sup>servant of Christ.

For I make known to you,

11 brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not after man. For 12 neither did I receive it from <sup>1</sup>man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through reve-

13 lation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and made 14 havock of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age <sup>1</sup>among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.
 15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me 16 through his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred 17 not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto Damascus.
 18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to <sup>2</sup>visit Cephas, and tarried with him 19 fifteen days. But other of the apostles saw I none, <sup>3</sup>save 20 James the Lord's brother. Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, be-21 fore God, I lie not. Then I came into the regions of Syria 22 and Cilicia. And I was still unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were 23 in Christ: but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now preacheth the faith of which he once made havock; 24 and they glorified God in me.
 2 Then <sup>4</sup>after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with 2 me. And I went up by revelation; and I laid before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before them who <sup>5</sup>were of repute, lest by any means I should be running, or had run, in vain. But not even Titus who <sup>8</sup> was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: <sup>9</sup>and that because of the <sup>4</sup> false brethren privily brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: to whom we gave place in the <sup>5</sup> way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But from those who <sup>6</sup> <sup>7</sup>were reputed to be somewhat (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth not man's person)— they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: but <sup>7</sup> contrariwise, when they saw that I had been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the gospel of the circumcision (for <sup>8</sup> he that wrought for Peter unto the apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); and when <sup>9</sup> they perceived the grace that was given unto me, James and Cephas and John, they who <sup>5</sup>were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; only they would <sup>10</sup> that we should remember the poor; which very thing I was also zealous to do.

But when Cephas came to <sup>11</sup> Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but <sup>12</sup> when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing them that were of the circumcision. And the rest of the <sup>13</sup> Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even Barnabas was carried away with 14 their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Cephas before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

 15 We being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, yet knowing that a man is not justified by <sup>1</sup>the works of the law, <sup>2</sup>save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law 17 shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin?
 18 God forbid. For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a transgressor. For I through <sup>3</sup>the law died unto <sup>3</sup>the law, that I might live unto God.
 19 I have been crucified with Christ; <sup>4</sup>yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and 21 gave himself up for me. I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through <sup>3</sup>the law, then Christ died for nought.
 3 O foolish Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set 2 forth crucified? This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by <sup>1</sup>the works of the law, or by the 3 <sup>6</sup>hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, <sup>6</sup>are ye now perfected many things in vain? if it be indeed in vain. He therefore 5 that supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh <sup>7</sup>miracles <sup>8</sup>among you, doeth he it by <sup>1</sup>the works of the law, or by the <sup>6</sup>hearing of faith? Even as A- 6 braham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. <sup>9</sup>Know there- 7 fore that they which be of faith, the same are sons of Abraham. And the scripture, 8 foreseeing that God <sup>10</sup>would justify the <sup>11</sup>Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the nations be blessed. So then they which 9 be of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. For as 10 many as are of <sup>1</sup>the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one which continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. Now that 11 no man is justified <sup>12</sup>by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; and the 12 law is not of faith; but, He that doeth them shall live in them. Christ redeemed us 13 from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: that upon the Gentiles 14 might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Brethren, I speak after the 15 manner of men: Though it be but a man's <sup>13</sup>covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. Now to A- 16 braham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of

- many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
- 17 Now this I say; A <sup>1</sup>covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of
- 18 none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath granted it to Abraham
- 19 by promise. What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.
- 20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God
- 21 is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law.
- 22 Howbeit the scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
- 23 But before <sup>2</sup>faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be
- 24 revealed. So that the law hath been our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be
- 25 justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no
- 26 longer under a tutor. For ye are all sons of God, through
- 27 faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ.
- 28 There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for ye all are one man in Christ Jesus.
- 29 And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.

But I say that so long as <sup>4</sup>the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; but <sup>2</sup>is under guardians and stewards until the term appointed of the father. So we also, when <sup>3</sup>we were children, were held in bondage under the <sup>2</sup>rudiments of the world: but when the <sup>4</sup>fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, that he might redeem them <sup>5</sup>which were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because <sup>6</sup>ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, Abba, Father. So that <sup>7</sup>thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.

Howbeit at that time, not <sup>8</sup>knowing God, ye were in bondage to them which by nature are no gods: but now <sup>9</sup>that ye have come to know God, or rather to be known of God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly <sup>2</sup>rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be in bondage over again? Ye observe days, and <sup>10</sup>months, and seasons, and years. I am afraid of you, lest by any <sup>11</sup>means I have bestowed labour upon you in vain.

I beseech you, brethren, be <sup>12</sup>as I am, for I am as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: but ye <sup>13</sup>know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you the <sup>4</sup>first time: and that which was a <sup>14</sup>temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor <sup>6</sup>rejected; but ye received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Where then is that <sup>15</sup>gratulation of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and 16 given them to me. So then am I become your enemy, because I <sup>1</sup> tell you the truth?

17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may 18 seek them. But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and not only when I am present with 19 you. My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ be formed in you, yea, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one

23 by the freewoman. Howbeit the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but the son by the freewoman is born

24 through promise. Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from mount Sinai, bearing children unto bondage, which 25 is Hagar. <sup>2</sup> Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children.

26 But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our 27 mother. For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

28 Now <sup>3</sup> we, brethren, as Isaac was, are children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman. <sup>4</sup> With freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.

Behold, I Paul say unto <sup>2</sup> you, that, if ye receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. Yea, I testify <sup>3</sup> again to every man that receiveth circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Ye are <sup>6</sup> severed from <sup>4</sup> Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. For <sup>5</sup> we through the Spirit by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith <sup>6</sup> working through love. Ye were running well; who <sup>7</sup> did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion came not of him that calleth you. A little leaven <sup>9</sup> leaveneth the whole lump. I <sup>10</sup> have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be. But I, brethren, if I still <sup>11</sup> preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumblingblock of the cross been done away. I would that <sup>12</sup> they which unsettle you would even <sup>7</sup> cut themselves off.

For ye, brethren, were called <sup>13</sup> for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love be servants one to another. For the whole law is fulfilled <sup>14</sup> in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye <sup>15</sup> bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye may not do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, divisions, <sup>1</sup>heresies, envyings, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I <sup>2</sup>forewarn you, even as I did <sup>2</sup>forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, <sup>3</sup>temperance: against such 21 there is no law. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk.

26 Let us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of 8 Christ. For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let each and not of <sup>4</sup>his neighbour. For 5 each man shall bear his <sup>5</sup>burden.

But let him that is taught 6 in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived; 7 God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he 8 that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in 9 well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of the faith.

See with how large letters 11 I <sup>6</sup>have written unto you with mine own hand. As many as 12 desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted <sup>7</sup>for the cross of Christ. For not even 13 they who <sup>8</sup>receive circumcision do themselves keep <sup>9</sup>the law; but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But far be it 14 from me to glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through <sup>10</sup>which the world hath been crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For neither 15 is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new <sup>11</sup>creature. And as many as 16 shall walk by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

From henceforth let no man 17 trouble me: for I bear branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

The grace of our Lord Jesus 18 Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints which are <sup>1</sup>at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly <sup>3</sup>places in Christ: even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish before <sup>2</sup>him

3 in love: having foreordained us unto adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, <sup>3</sup>which he freely bestoweth on us in the Beloved: in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>4</sup>which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him unto a dispensation of the fulness of the <sup>5</sup>times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things <sup>6</sup>in the heavens; and the things upon the earth; in him, I say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his will;

we who <sup>7</sup>had before hoped in Christ: in whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, which is an earnest of our inheritance, unto the redemption of God's own possession, unto the praise of his glory.

For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is <sup>8</sup>among you, and <sup>9</sup>which ye shew toward all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly <sup>10</sup>places, far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this <sup>10</sup>world, but also in that which is to come: and he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

2 And you did he quicken, when ye were dead through ing to the <sup>1</sup>course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in the sons 3 of disobedience; among whom we also all once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the <sup>2</sup>mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even 4 as the rest:—but God, being rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, 6 even when we were dead through our trespasses, quickened us together <sup>3</sup>with Christ (by grace have ye been saved), 6 and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places, in 7 Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus: for by grace have ye been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: 9 not of works, that no man 10 should glory. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them.

 11 Wherefore remember, that aforetime ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called Circumcision, in the 12 flesh, made by hands; that ye were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in 17 and <sup>4</sup>preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to them that were nigh: for 18 through him we both have our access in one Spirit unto the Father. So then ye are no 19 more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, being built

 Jesus himself being the chief 21 several building, fitly framed together, groweth into a holy ye also are builded together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

For this cause I Paul, the 3 prisoner of Christ Jesus in behalf of you Gentiles,—if so 2 be that ye have heard of the dispensation of that grace of God which was given me to you-ward; how that by reve-3 lation was made known unto me the mystery, as I wrote afore in few words, whereby, 4 when ye read, ye can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; which in other 5 generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; to wit, that 6 the Gentiles are fellow-heirs, and fellow-members of the body, and fellow-partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus

7 through the gospel, whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his 8 power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach unto the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ; and to 9 <sup>1</sup>make all men see what is the <sup>2</sup>dispensation of the mystery which from all ages hath been hid in God who created all 10 things; to the intent that now unto the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known through the church the manifold wisdom of God, according to the 11 <sup>3</sup>eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through 12 <sup>4</sup>our faith in him. Wherefore I ask that <sup>5</sup>ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which 13 <sup>6</sup>are your glory.
14 For this cause I bow my 15 knees unto the Father, from whom every <sup>7</sup>family in heaven and on earth is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in 16 the inward man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded 17 in love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length 18 and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

I therefore, the prisoner in 4 the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called, with all 2 lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one 4 Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one 5 baptism, one God and Father 6 of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. But 7 unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, 8

When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, And gave gifts unto men.

(Now this, He ascended, what 9 is it but that he also descended <sup>9</sup>into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is 10 the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.) And 11 he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity 13 of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: that we 14 may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; but <sup>10</sup>speaking 15 truth in love, may grow up in all things into him, which is 16 the head, even Christ; from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together <sup>1</sup>through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves up to lasciviousness, <sup>2</sup>to work all uncleanness with 20 <sup>3</sup>greediness. But ye did not

21 so learn Christ; if so be that ye heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in

22 Jesus: that ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit; and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your 24 mind, and put on the new man, <sup>4</sup>which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down

27 upon your <sup>5</sup>wrath: neither give 28 place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. them that hear. And grieve 30 not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bit- 31 terness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice: and be ye kind one 32 to another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave <sup>7</sup>you.

Be ye therefore imitators 5 of God, as beloved children; and walk in love, even as 2 Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for <sup>8</sup>us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odour of a sweet smell. But fornication, and all un- 3 cleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; nor 4 filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but rather giving of thanks. For this ye know of 5 a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no man deceive you with 6 empty words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience. Be not ye there- 7 fore partakers with them; for 8 ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as children of light (for the 9 fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), proving what is well- 10 pleasing unto the Lord; and 11 have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even <sup>9</sup>reprove them; for the things which are done 12 by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of. But all things 13 when they are <sup>10</sup>reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. Wherefore 14 he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine upon thee.

15 Look therefore carefully how ye walk, not as unwise, but as wise; <sup>1</sup>redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled <sup>2</sup>with the Spirit; speaking <sup>3</sup>one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to <sup>4</sup>God, even the Father; subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.

22 Wives, be in subjection unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, being himself the saviour of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, <sup>5</sup>so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the <sup>6</sup>washing of water with the word, that he might present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; because we are members of his body. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the twain shall become one flesh. This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. Nevertheless do ye also severally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>Servants, be obedient unto them that according to the flesh are your <sup>10</sup>masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not in the way of eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as <sup>9</sup>servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the <sup>11</sup>heart; with good will doing service, as unto the Lord, and not unto men: knowing that whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, whether he be bond or free. And, ye <sup>10</sup>masters, do the same things unto them, and forbear threatening: knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with him.

<sup>12</sup>Finally, <sup>13</sup>be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly 13 places. Wherefore take up the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having 14 done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith 16 ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.

 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of and supplication for all the saints, and on my behalf, 19 that utterance may be given unto me <sup>1</sup> in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an 20 ambassador in <sup>2</sup> chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

But that ye also may know 21 my affairs, how I do, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: whom I have sent unto you 22 for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

Peace be to the brethren, 23 and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all 24 them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in uncorruptness.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

1 PAUL and Timothy, <sup>1</sup> servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the <sup>2</sup> bishops 2 and deacons: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3 I thank my God upon all 4 my remembrance of you, always in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with 5 joy, for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from 6 the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ:

1 Gr. bond-servants.

2 Or, overseers

3 Or, ye have me in your heart

4 Or, prove the things that differ

5 Gr. fruit.

even as it is right for me to 7 he thus minded on behalf of you all, because <sup>3</sup> I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. For God 8 is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. And this I 9 pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may <sup>4</sup>ap- 10 prove the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ; being filled 11 with the <sup>5</sup> fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

- 12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the progress of the gospel; so that my bonds became manifest in Christ <sup>1</sup>throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to all the rest; and that most of the brethren in the Lord, <sup>2</sup>being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: the one do it of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel: <sup>3</sup>but the other proclaim Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in my bonds. What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, <sup>4</sup>or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>5</sup>But if to live in the flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work, then <sup>6</sup>what I shall choose <sup>7</sup>I wot not. But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for it is very far better: yet to abide in the flesh is more needful <sup>8</sup>for your sake. And having this confidence, I know that

<sup>3</sup> Or, But if to live in the flesh be my lot, this is the fruit of my work: and what I shall choose I wot not.

I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy <sup>6</sup>in the faith; that <sup>26</sup>your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. Only <sup>7</sup>let your manner of life <sup>27</sup>be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving <sup>8</sup>for the faith of the gospel; and <sup>28</sup>in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; because to you it <sup>29</sup>hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer in his behalf: having <sup>30</sup>the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

If there is therefore any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassions, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, <sup>9</sup>of one mind; <sup>3</sup>doing <sup>3</sup>nothing through faction or through vainglory, but in lowliness of mind each counting other better than himself; not <sup>4</sup>looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. Have <sup>5</sup>this mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who, <sup>6</sup><sup>10</sup>being in the form of God, counted it not <sup>11</sup>a prize to be on an equality with God, but <sup>7</sup>emptied himself, taking the form of a <sup>12</sup>servant, <sup>13</sup>being made in the likeness of men; and being found in fashion as <sup>8</sup>a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even unto death, yea, the death of the

- 9 cross. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is 10 above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and 11 things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father, 12 So then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not 13 as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God which 14 worketh in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure.
 15 Do all things without murmurings and disputings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye are seen as <sup>8</sup>lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain 17 neither labour in vain. Yea, and if I am <sup>4</sup>offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with 18 you all: and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.
 19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know 20 your state. For I have no man likeminded, who will care 21 <sup>5</sup>truly for your state. For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. But ye know the proof of him, that, as a child serveth a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the gospel. Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: but I trust 24 in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. But I 25 counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your <sup>6</sup>messenger and minister to my need; since he longed <sup>7</sup>after 26 you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: for indeed he was 27 sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. I have sent him 28 therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive 29 him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and hold such in honour: because for the work of 30 <sup>8</sup>Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

 Finally, my brethren, <sup>9</sup>re-31 joyce in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but 32 for you it is safe. Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the 33 <sup>3</sup>circision: for we are the <sup>3</sup>circision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: though I 34 myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man 35 <sup>10</sup>thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: circumcised the eighth 36 day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching 37 the law, a Pharisee; as touching zeal, persecuting the church; as touching the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. Howbeit what <sup>7</sup> things were <sup>1</sup>gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but <sup>2</sup>dung, that I may gain Christ, and be found in him, <sup>3</sup>not having a righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God

10 <sup>4</sup>by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming 11 conformed unto his death; if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may <sup>5</sup>apprehend that for which also I was apprehended by Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself <sup>6</sup>yet to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things

14 which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the <sup>7</sup>high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise minded, even this shall God reveal unto you:

16 only, whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk.

17 Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk even as ye have us for an example. For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is perdition, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things. For our <sup>8</sup>citizenship is in heaven; from whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

Wherefore, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yea, I beseech thee also, true yoke-fellow, help these women, for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

<sup>9</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always: again I will say, <sup>9</sup>Rejoice. Let your <sup>10</sup>forbearance be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are <sup>11</sup>honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are <sup>12</sup>of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, <sup>13</sup>think on these things. The things which ye both learned and received and heard and saw in me, these things do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

But I <sup>14</sup>rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length ye have revived your thought for me; <sup>1</sup>wherein ye did indeed take thought, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therein to be content. I know how to be abased, and I know also how to abound: in everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want. I can do all things in him that strengtheneth me. Howbeit ye did well, that ye had fellowship with my affliction. And ye yourselves also know, ye Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving, but ye only; for even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my need. Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increaseth to your account. But I have all things, and abound: I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God. And my God shall fulfil every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. Now unto our God and Father be the glory <sup>2</sup>for ever and ever. Amen.

Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me salute you. All the saints salute you, especially they that are of Cæsar's household.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy <sup>1</sup>our brother, <sup>2</sup>to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colossæ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father. We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have toward all the saints, because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, which is come unto you; even as it is also in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye heard and knew the grace of God in truth; even as ye learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf, who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

<sup>2</sup> Or, to those that are at Colossæ, holy and faithful brethren in Christ

For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to walk worthily of the Lord <sup>4</sup>unto all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing <sup>1</sup> in the <sup>11</sup> knowledge of God; <sup>2</sup> strengthened <sup>3</sup> with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all patience and <sup>12</sup> longsuffering with joy; giving thanks unto the Father, who made <sup>4</sup> us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints <sup>13</sup> in light; who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love; <sup>14</sup> in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn <sup>15</sup> of all creation; for in him were all things created, in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and unto <sup>16</sup> him; and he is before all things, and in him all things <sup>17</sup> consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; <sup>6</sup> that in all things he might have the pre-eminence. <sup>7</sup> For it was the good pleasure of the Father <sup>18</sup> that in him should all the fullness dwell; and through him <sup>19</sup> to reconcile all things <sup>8</sup> unto himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, <sup>20</sup> or things in the heavens. And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, yet <sup>21</sup> now <sup>10</sup> hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and unre-<sup>22</sup> proveable before him: if so be that ye continue in the faith, grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under heaven; whereof I Paul was made a minister.

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church; whereof I was made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, even the mystery which hath been hid from all ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested to his saints, to whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ; whereunto I labour also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

For I would have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, even Christ, in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. This I say, that no one may de-lude you with persuasiveness of speech. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joy-ing and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

As therefore ye received

Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk 7 in him, rooted and builded up in him, and stablished <sup>1</sup> in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding <sup>2</sup> in thanksgiving.
 8 <sup>3</sup> Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the <sup>4</sup> rudiments of the world, and not after Christ: for in him dwelleth all the fulness of the God-head bodily, and in him ye are made full, who is the head of all principality and power: 11 in whom ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. And you, being dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he quicken together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses; having blotted out <sup>5</sup> the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us; and he hath taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; <sup>6</sup> having put off from himself the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
 16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day or a new moon or a sabbath day: which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. Let no man rob you of your prize <sup>7</sup> by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, <sup>8</sup> dwelling in the things which he hath

If ye died with Christ from the <sup>10</sup> rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to ordinances, Handle <sup>11</sup> not, nor taste, nor touch (all <sup>12</sup> which things are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a <sup>13</sup> show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any <sup>14</sup> value against the indulgence of the flesh.

If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. Set your mind <sup>15</sup> on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the earth. For ye died, <sup>16</sup> and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is <sup>17</sup> our life, shall be manifested, then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

newed unto knowledge after the image of him that created him; where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman: but Christ is all, and in all.

Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any; even as <sup>1</sup>the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: and above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of Christ <sup>2</sup>rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of <sup>3</sup>Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing <sup>4</sup>one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts unto God. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children, that they be not discouraged. <sup>5</sup>Servants, obey in all things them that are your <sup>6</sup>masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: whatsoever ye do, work <sup>7</sup>heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of the inheritance:

ye serve the Lord Christ. For he that doeth wrong shall <sup>8</sup>receive again for the wrong that he hath done: and there is no respect of persons. <sup>6</sup>Masters, render unto your <sup>5</sup>servants that which is just and <sup>9</sup>equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; withal praying for us also, that God may open unto us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; that I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak. Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, <sup>10</sup>redeeming the time. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer each one.

All my affairs shall Tychicus make known unto you, the beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord: whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our estate, and that he may comfort your hearts; together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things that are done here.

Aristarchus my fellow-prisoner saluteth you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (touching whom ye received commandments; if he come unto you, receive him), and Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision: these only are my fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God, men that have been a comfort unto me. Epaphras, who is one of you, a <sup>11</sup>servant of Christ Jesus, saluteth you, always striving for you in his prayers, that ye may stand

THESSALONIANS.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father;

4 knowing, brethren beloved of 5 God, your election, <sup>1</sup>how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the <sup>2</sup>Holy Ghost, and in much <sup>3</sup>assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed ourselves toward you

6 for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with 7 joy of the <sup>2</sup>Holy Ghost; so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Mace-

8 donia and in Achaia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. For they themselves 9 report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to 10 wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivereth us from the wrath to come.

For yourselves, brethren, 2 know our entering in unto you, that it hath not been found vain: but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God in much conflict. For our exhortation is 3 not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but even 4 as we have been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God which proveth our hearts. For nel-ther at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness, God is witness; nor seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others, when we might have <sup>1</sup>been burdensome, as apostles of <sup>7</sup>Christ. But we were <sup>2</sup>gentle in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherisheth her own <sup>8</sup>children: even so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were become <sup>9</sup>very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup>Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you that believe: <sup>11</sup>as ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as a father with his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, <sup>12</sup>and testifying, to the end that ye should walk worthily of God, who <sup>3</sup>calleth you into his own kingdom and glory. <sup>13</sup>And for this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us <sup>4</sup>the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that believe. For ye, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, even as they did of the <sup>15</sup>Jews; who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drave out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins alway: but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for <sup>5</sup>a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great desire: because we would <sup>18</sup>fain have come unto you, I Paul once and again; and Satan hindered us. For what is <sup>19</sup>our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his <sup>6</sup>coming? For ye are our <sup>20</sup>glory and our joy.

Wherefore when we could <sup>3</sup>no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone; and sent Timothy, our brother and <sup>7</sup>God's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that hereunto we are appointed. For verily, when we were <sup>4</sup>with you, we told you <sup>8</sup>beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; even as it came to pass, and ye know. For this cause I <sup>5</sup>also, when I could no longer forbear, sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labour should be in vain. But when Timothy came <sup>6</sup>even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as we also to see you; for <sup>7</sup>this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: for now we live, <sup>8</sup>if ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanksgiving can we <sup>9</sup>render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our 10 God; night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

 11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way unto 12 you: and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we 18 also do toward you; to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father, at the <sup>1</sup>coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.<sup>2</sup> 4 Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as ye do walk,—that ye abound more and more. For ye know what <sup>3</sup>charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
 8 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication; <sup>4</sup>that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honour, not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know not God; that no man <sup>4</sup>transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we <sup>5</sup>forewarned you and testified.
 7 For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification.
 8 Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.
 9 But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God 10 to love one another; for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound more and more; and that ye <sup>6</sup>study <sup>11</sup>to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your hands, even as we charged you; that ye may walk ho- <sup>12</sup>nestly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing.

But we would not have you <sup>13</sup>ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if <sup>14</sup>we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also that are fallen asleep <sup>15</sup>in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the <sup>1</sup>coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede them that are fallen asleep. For the <sup>16</sup>Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we that <sup>17</sup>are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore <sup>8</sup>comfort one an- <sup>18</sup>other with these words.

But concerning the times <sup>5</sup>and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that ought be written unto you. For your- <sup>2</sup>selves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. When <sup>3</sup>they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. But ye, brethren, <sup>4</sup>are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you <sup>1</sup>as 5 a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor 6 of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober.

 7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the 8 night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, 9 the hope of salvation. For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord 10 Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we <sup>2</sup>wake or sleep, we should live together 11 with him. Wherefore <sup>3</sup>exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.
 12 But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish 18 you; and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace athe Lord that this epistle be read unto all the <sup>28</sup> brethren.

The grace of our Lord Je- <sup>28</sup>

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

THESSALONIANS.

<sup>1</sup> PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus 2 Christ; Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 3 We are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth; so <sup>4</sup> that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which ye endure; which is a manifest token <sup>5</sup> of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: if so be that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense affliction to them that afflict you, and to you that are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus: who shall suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our testimony unto you was believed) in that day. To which end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every desire of goodness and every work of faith, with power; that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now we beseech you, brethren, touching the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together unto him; to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that the day of the Lord is now present; let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God. Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: only there is one that restraineth now, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus shall slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of his coming; even he, whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God chose you from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even 2 as also it is with you; and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; 8 for all have not <sup>1</sup>faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and guard you 4 from <sup>2</sup>the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which 5 we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.
 6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which 7 <sup>3</sup>they received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in labour and travail, working night and day, that we might not burden any 9 of you: not because we have

not the right, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. For even when we were with 10 you, this we commanded you, If any will not work, neither let him eat. For we hear of 11 some that walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are busybodies. Now 12 them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, 13 be not weary in well-doing. And if any man obeyeth not 14 our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. And 15 yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

The salutation of me Paul 17 with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our Lord 18 Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus our 2 hope; unto Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
 8 As I exhorted thee to tarry at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that thou

mightest charge certain men not to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to 4 fables and endless genealogies, the which minister questionings, rather than a <sup>1</sup>dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. But the end of 5 the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and faith unfeigned: from 6 which things some having <sup>1</sup>swerved have turned aside 7 unto vain talking; desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they 8 confidently affirm. But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, as 9 knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for <sup>2</sup>murderers of fathers and <sup>2</sup>murderers of 10 mothers, for manslayers, for fornicators, for abusers of themselves with men, for men-stealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to the 11 <sup>3</sup>sound <sup>4</sup>doctrine; according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

 12 I thank him that <sup>5</sup>enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, appointing me to his 13 service; though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief; 14 and the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in 15 Christ Jesus. Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all ac-ceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief: 16 howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on 17 him unto eternal life. Now unto the King <sup>6</sup>eternal, in-

 God, be honour and glory <sup>7</sup>for <sup>11</sup> Or,

doubting

This charge I commit unto 18 thee, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which <sup>8</sup>went before on thee, that by them thou mayest war the good warfare; holding 19 faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning the faith: of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander; 20 whom I delivered unto Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

I exhort therefore, first of all, 2 <sup>9</sup>that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; for kings 2 and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. This is good and 3 acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; who willeth that 4 all men should be saved, and come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, 5 one mediator also between God and men, himself man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a 6 ransom for all; the testimony to be borne in its own times; whereunto I was appointed a 7 <sup>10</sup>preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

I desire therefore that the 8 men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and <sup>11</sup>disputing. In like 9 manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly raiment; but (which becom- 10 eth women professing god-liness) through good works.
 Let a woman learn in quiet- 11 ness with all subjection. But 12 I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion over a man, but to be in quiet-18 nesa. For Adam was first 14 formed, then Eve; and Adam was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled hath fall-15 en into transgression: but she shall be saved through <sup>1</sup>the childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 <sup>2</sup>Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office of a <sup>3</sup>bishop, he desireth a good 2 work. The <sup>3</sup>bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to hospitality, apt to 3 teach; <sup>4</sup>no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, 4 no lover of money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjec-5 tion with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of 6 God?) not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the 5 condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the 8 devil. Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy 9 lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blame-11 less. Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all 12 things. Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses

13 well. For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

 thee shortly; but if I tarry 15 long, that thou mayest know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and 7 ground of the truth. And 16 without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; <sup>8</sup>He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

But the Spirit saith express- 4 ly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of <sup>9</sup>devils, through the hypocrisy of men 2 that speak lies, <sup>10</sup>branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; forbidding to mar- 3 ry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by them that believe and know the truth. For 4 every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it be received with thanksgiving: for it is sanctified through 5 the word of God and prayer.

If thou put the brethren 6 in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: but re- 7 fuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself unto godliness: for bodily ex- 8 ercise is profitable <sup>11</sup>for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come.
 Faithful is the saying, and 9 worthy of all acceptance. For 10 to this end we labour and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe.

11 These things command and 12 teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee.

5 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brethren: the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. Honour widows that are widows indeed. But if any widow hath children or grandchildren, let them learn first to shew piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is acceptable in the sight of God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, hath her hope set on God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day. But she that giveth herself to pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 These things also command, that they may be without reproach. But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. Let none be enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having 10 been the wife of one man, well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath used hospitality to strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; having condemnation, because they have rejected their first faith. And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, give none occasion to the adversary for reviling: for already some are turned aside after Satan. If any woman that believeth hath widows, let her relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in the word and in teaching. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his hire. Against an elder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of two or three witnesses. Them that sin reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgement; and some men also they follow after. In like manner also 25 there are good works that are evident; and such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 Let as many as are <sup>2</sup>servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and the doctrine be not

2 blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that <sup>3</sup>partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. These things teach and exhort.

8 If any man teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to <sup>4</sup>sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but <sup>5</sup>doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing that godliness is a way of gain. But

6 godliness with contentment is great gain: for we brought nothing into the world, for neither can we carry anything

8 out; but having food and covering <sup>6</sup>we shall be therewith content. But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction

10 and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all <sup>7</sup>kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

But thou, O man of God, 11 flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of the 12 faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. I charge thee in the 13 sight of God, who <sup>8</sup>quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession; that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: which in <sup>9</sup>its own times he 15 shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of <sup>10</sup>10 kings, and Lord of <sup>11</sup>11 lords; who only hath immortality, 16 dwelling in light unapproachable; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power eternal. Amen.

Charge them that are rich 17 in this present <sup>12</sup>world, that they be not highminded, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they 18 do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, <sup>13</sup>willing to communicate, laying up in store 19 for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on the life which is life indeed.

O Timothy, guard <sup>14</sup>that 20 which is committed unto thee, turning away from the profane babblings and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; which 21 some professing have <sup>15</sup>erred concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus <sup>1</sup>by the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and 4 day longing to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I 5 may be filled with <sup>2</sup>joy; having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, 6 in thee also. For the which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou <sup>3</sup>stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through the laying on of my 7 hands. For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and <sup>4</sup>discipline. Be not ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but suffer hardship with the gospel according to the power 9 of God; who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, but hath 10 now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light through 11 the gospel, whereunto I was appointed a <sup>5</sup>preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. For 12 the which cause I suffer also these things: yet I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard <sup>6</sup>that which I have committed unto him against that day. Held the pattern 13 of <sup>7</sup>sound words which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>That good thing which 14 was committed unto thee guard through the <sup>9</sup>Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

This thou knowest, that all 15 that are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. The 16 Lord grant mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain; but, 17 when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me (the Lord grant 18 unto him to find mercy of the Lord in that day); and in how many things he ministered at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

Thou therefore, my child, be 2 strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the 2 things which thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. 10 Suffer hardship with me, as 3 a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier on service entangleth himself in the affairs of 4 this life; that he may please him who enrolled him as a 5 soldier. And if also a man contend in the games, he is not crowned, except he have contended lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must be the first to partake of the fruits. Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel: wherein I suffer hardship unto bonds, as a malefactor; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 Faithful is the saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with him: if we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: if we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the sight of <sup>2</sup>the Lord, that they strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, <sup>3</sup>handling aright the word of truth. But shun profane babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, and their word will <sup>4</sup>eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus; men who concerning the truth have <sup>5</sup>erred, saying that <sup>6</sup>the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honour, and some unto dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, meet for the master's use, prepared unto every good work. But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and ignorant questionings refuse, knowing that they gender strifes. And the Lord's servant must not strive, but be gentle towards all, apt to teach, forbearing, in meekness <sup>8</sup>correcting them that oppose themselves; if peradventure God may give them repentance unto the knowledge of the truth, and they may <sup>9</sup>recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, having been <sup>10</sup>taken captive <sup>11</sup>by the Lord's servant unto the will of God.

But know this, that in the last days grievous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, railers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away. For of these are they that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with sins, led away by divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to

 8 truth. And like as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also withstand the truth; men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith.
 9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be evident unto all men, as theirs 10 also came to be. But thou didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, longsuf-11 fering, love, patience, persecutions, sufferings; what things befell me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: and out of them all the Lord delivered 12 me. Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall 13 suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving 14 and being deceived. But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of <sup>1</sup>whom 15 thou hast learned them; and that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
 16 <sup>2</sup>Every scripture inspired of God <sup>is</sup> also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for cor-17 rection, for <sup>3</sup>instruction which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.
 4 <sup>4</sup>I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who shall judge the quick and the dead, and by his appearing 2 and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; <sup>6</sup>reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-and will turn away their ears 4 from the truth, and turn aside unto fables. But be thou sober 5 in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfil thy ministry. For I am 6 already being <sup>8</sup>offered, and the time of my departure is come. I have fought the good 7 fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up 8 for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day: and not only to me, but also to all them that have loved his appearing.

Do thy diligence to come 9 shortly unto me: for Demas 10 forsook me, having loved this present <sup>9</sup>world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to 10 Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.
 Only Luke is with me. Take 11 Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is useful to me for ministering. But Tychicus 12 I sent to Ephesus. The cloke 13 parchments. Alexander the 14 coppersmith <sup>11</sup>did me much evil: the Lord will render to him according to his works: of whom be thou ware also; 15 for he greatly withstood our words. At my first defence 16 no one took my part, but all forsook me: may it not be laid to their account. But 17 the Lord stood by me, and <sup>12</sup>strengthened me; that through me the <sup>13</sup>message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. The Lord will de- 18 liver me from every evil work, and will save me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be the glory <sup>1</sup>for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

- 1 PAUL, a <sup>1</sup>servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before times eternal; but in <sup>2</sup>his own seasons manifested his word in the <sup>3</sup>message, wherewith I was intrusted according to the commandment of God our Saviour; to Titus, my true child after a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.
5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and appoint elders in every city, as I gave thee charge; if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of riot or unruly. For the <sup>4</sup>bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not selfwilled, not soon angry, <sup>5</sup>no brawler, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but given to hospitality, a lover of good, soberminded, just, holy, temperate; <sup>6</sup>holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the <sup>6</sup>sound

For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision, whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle gluttons. This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be <sup>9</sup>sound in the faith, not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. They profess that they know God; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient and unto every good work reprobate.

But speak thou the things which befit the <sup>6</sup>sound <sup>7</sup>doctrine: that aged men be temperate, grave, soberminded, <sup>9</sup>sound in faith, in love, in patience: that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be soberminded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed: the younger men likewise exhort to be soberminded: in all things shewing thyself an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us. Exhort <sup>1</sup>servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying; not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. For the grace of God <sup>2</sup>hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men, instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present <sup>3</sup>world; looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory <sup>4</sup>of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works.

<sup>7</sup> Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready unto every good work, to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, shewing all meekness toward all men. For we also were <sup>1</sup> aforetime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another. But when the kindness of God our Saviour, and his love toward man, appeared, not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the <sup>2</sup> washing of regeneration and renewing of the <sup>3</sup> Holy Ghost, which he poured out upon us richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that, being justified by his grace, we might be made <sup>4</sup> heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they which have believed God may be careful to <sup>5</sup> maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: but shun <sup>6</sup> foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strifes, and fightings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>7</sup> A man that is <sup>8</sup> heretical after a first and second admonition <sup>9</sup> refuse; knowing that such a one is perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

When I shall send Artemas <sup>10</sup> unto thee, or Tychicus, give diligence to come unto me to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to winter. Set forward <sup>11</sup> Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. And let our <sup>12</sup> people also learn to <sup>13</sup> maintain good works for necessary <sup>14</sup> uses, that they be not unfruitful.

All that are with me salute <sup>15</sup> thee. Salute them that love us in faith.

Grace be with you all.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

1 PAUL, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy <sup>1</sup>our brother, to Philemon our beloved 2 and fellow-worker, and to Apphia <sup>2</sup>our sister, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to 3 the church in thy house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank my God always, making mention of thee in my 5 prayers, hearing of <sup>3</sup>thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, 6 and toward all the saints; that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in <sup>4</sup>you, unto Christ.
7 For I had much joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through thee, brother.
8 Wherefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is befitting, yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul <sup>5</sup>the aged, and now a prisoner also of Christ Jesus: 10 I beseech thee for my child, whom I have begotten in my 11 bonds, <sup>6</sup>Onesimus, who was aforesome unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the bonds of the gospel: but without thy mind I would do nothing; that thy goodness should not be as of necessity, but of free will. For perhaps 15 he was therefore parted from thee for a season, that thou shouldest have him for ever; no longer as a <sup>7</sup>servant, but 16 more than a <sup>7</sup>servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord. If then thou countest 17 me a partner, receive him as myself. But if he hath wronged thee at all, or oweth thee 18 aught, put that to mine account; I Paul write it with 19 mine own hand, I will repay it: that I say not unto thee how that thou owest to me even thine own self besides. Yea, brother, let me have <sup>8</sup>joy 20 of thee in the Lord: refresh my heart in Christ. Having 21 confidence in thine obedience I write unto thee, knowing that thou wilt do even beyond what I say. But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted unto you.

 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner 23 in Christ Jesus, saluteth thee; and so do Mark, Aristarchus, 24 Demas, Luke, my fellow-workers.
 The grace of <sup>9</sup>our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. 25

1 God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, 2 bath at the end of these days spoken unto us in <sup>1</sup>his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the <sup>2</sup>worlds; who being the effulgence of his glory, and <sup>3</sup>the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent name than 4 they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, This day have I begotten thee? and again,
 I will be to him a Father, And he shall be to me a Son?

<sup>10</sup> Or, Holy Spirit: and so throughout this book.

With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

And, 10

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth,

And the heavens are the works of thy hands:

They shall perish; but thou 11 continuest:

And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

And as a mantle shalt thou 12 roll them up,

As a garment, and they shall be changed:

But thou art the same, And thy years shall not fail.

But of which of the angels 13 hath he said at any time,

Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?

Are they not all ministering 14 spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

Therefore we ought to give 2 the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest happily we drift away from them. For if the word spoken 2 through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

how shall we escape, if we 3 neglect so great salvation?

which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard; God also bearing 4 witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by <sup>9</sup>gifts of the <sup>10</sup>Holy Ghost, according to his own will,

5 For not unto angels did he subject <sup>1</sup>the world to come, <sup>6</sup>whereof we speak. But one hath somewhere testified, saying,

What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him <sup>2</sup>a little lower than the angels;

Thou crownedst him with glory and honour,

<sup>3</sup>And didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we see not yet

9 all things subjected to him. But we behold him who hath been made <sup>2</sup>a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honour, that by the grace of God he should taste

10 death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, <sup>4</sup>in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the <sup>5</sup>author of their salvation perfect

11 through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them bre-

12 thren, saying,
I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the <sup>6</sup>congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I and the children which God

14 hath given me. Since then the children are sharers in <sup>7</sup>flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he <sup>8</sup>might bring to nought him that <sup>9</sup>had the power of death, that is, the devil; and <sup>8</sup>might deliver all <sup>15</sup>them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he taketh hold of the seed of Abraham. Where- <sup>17</sup>fore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. <sup>10</sup>For <sup>18</sup>in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

Wherefore, holy brethren, <sup>3</sup>partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to him that <sup>12</sup>appointed him, as also was Moses in all <sup>13</sup>his house. For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that <sup>14</sup>built the house hath more honour than the house. For <sup>4</sup>every house is <sup>14</sup>built by some one; but he that <sup>14</sup>built all things is God. And Moses <sup>5</sup>indeed was faithful in all <sup>13</sup>his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken; but Christ as a son, over <sup>13</sup>his <sup>6</sup>house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm unto the end. Where- <sup>7</sup>fore, even as the Holy Ghost saith,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts, as <sup>8</sup>in the provocation,

Like as in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,

<sup>15</sup>Wherewith your fathers <sup>9</sup>

- tempted me by proving me,
 And saw my works forty years.
 10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation, And said, They do alway err in their heart: But they did not know my ways;
 11 As I swear in my wrath,
 1 They shall not enter into my rest.
 12 Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living 13 God: but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the deceit-14 fulness of sin: for we are become partakers <sup>2</sup> of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm unto the 15 end: while it is said,
 To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
 16 For who, when they heard, did provoke? nay, did not all they that came out of Egypt 17 by Moses? And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, whose <sup>3</sup> carcasses fell in the wilderness? And to whom 18 sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them 19 that were disobedient? And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.
 4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have 2 come short of it. For indeed we have had <sup>4</sup> good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because with them that heard. <sup>6</sup> For <sup>8</sup> we which have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,

As I swear in my wrath,

1 They shall not enter into my rest:

although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For he hath said some- <sup>4</sup> where of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested on the seventh day from all his works; and in this place a- <sup>5</sup> gain,

1 They shall not enter into my rest.

Seeing therefore it remaineth <sup>6</sup> that some should enter there- into, and they to whom <sup>7</sup> the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, he <sup>7</sup> again defineth a certain day, <sup>8</sup> saying in David, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before said,

To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

Harden not your hearts.

For if <sup>9</sup> Joshua had given <sup>8</sup> them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. There remaineth there- <sup>9</sup> fore a sabbath rest for the people of God. For he that <sup>10</sup> is entered into his rest hath himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. Let us therefore give diligence <sup>11</sup> to enter into that rest, that no man fall <sup>10</sup> after the same example of disobedience. For <sup>12</sup> the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. And there is no <sup>13</sup> creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

- 14 Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

- 5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins: who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh the honour unto himself, but when he is called of God, even as was Aaron. So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee:

- 6 as he saith also in another place,

Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Melchizedek.

- 7 Who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered; and having been 9 made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the 2 author of eternal salvation; named of God a high priest 10 after the order of Melchizedek.

Of 8 whom we have many 11 things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. For 12 when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again 4 that some one teach you the rudiments of the 5 first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of solid food. For every one that partaketh 13 of milk is without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But solid 14 food is for 6 fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Wherefore let us 7 cease to 6 speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto 8 perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 9 of the teaching 2 of 10 baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgement. And this will we 8 do, if God permit. For as 4 touching those who were once enlightened 11 and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, and 12 tasted the good 5 word of God, and the powers of the age to come, and then 6 fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; 13 seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the land 7 which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from 8 God: but if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned.

 9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that <sup>1</sup>accompany salvation, though we thus 10 speak: for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. And we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the <sup>2</sup>fulness of hope even to the end: that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
 13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, 14 he swore by himself, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation.
 17 Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, <sup>3</sup>interposed with an oath: that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before 19 us; which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is 20 within the veil; whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

For this Melchizedek, king <sup>7</sup> of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, to <sup>2</sup> whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

Now consider how great this <sup>4</sup> man was, unto whom Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. And they indeed of the sons <sup>5</sup> of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham: but he whose genealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of Abraham, and hath blessed him that hath the promises. But <sup>7</sup> without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. And <sup>8</sup> here men that die receive tithes; but there one, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes; for <sup>9</sup> he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him. <sup>10</sup>

Now if there was perfection <sup>11</sup> through the Levitical priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after

- 12 the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also <sup>1</sup> of the law. For he of whom these things are said <sup>2</sup> belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar.
- 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an <sup>3</sup> endless life: for it is witnessed of him,

Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Melchizedek.

- 18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath <sup>4</sup> by him that saith <sup>5</sup> of him,

The Lord sware and will not repent himself,

- Thou art a priest for ever);
22 by so much also hath Jesus become the surety of a better 23 <sup>6</sup> covenant. And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from 24 continuing: but he, because he abideth for ever, <sup>7</sup> hath his priesthood <sup>8</sup> unchangeable.
25 Wherefore also he is able to save <sup>9</sup> to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. For the law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

Now <sup>11</sup> in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of <sup>12</sup> the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts, and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer. Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who offer the gifts according to the law; who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses is warned of God when he is about to <sup>13</sup> make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was shewed thee in the mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better <sup>6</sup> covenant, which hath been enacted upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for a 8 second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord,

That I will <sup>1</sup>make a new <sup>2</sup>covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; 9 Not according to the <sup>2</sup>covenant that I made with their fathers In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt; For they continued not in my <sup>2</sup>covenant, And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 For this is the <sup>2</sup>covenant that <sup>3</sup>I will make with the house of Israel After those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind,
And on their heart also will I write them:
And I will be to them a God, And they shall be to me a people: 11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen, And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, From the least to the greatest of them.
12 For I will be merciful to their iniquities, And their sins will I remember no more.
13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.
9 Now even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world. For there was a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein <sup>4</sup>were the candstick, and the table, and <sup>5</sup>the shewbread; which is called the Holy place. And <sup>8</sup>after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of holies; having a golden <sup>4</sup>en <sup>6</sup>censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein <sup>7</sup>was a golden pot holding the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; and above it cheru- <sup>5</sup>bim of glory overshadowing <sup>8</sup>the mercy-seat; of which things we cannot now speak severally. Now these things <sup>6</sup>having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; but <sup>7</sup>into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offereth for himself, and for the <sup>9</sup>errors of the people: the <sup>8</sup>Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while as the first tabernacle is yet standing; which is a parable for the <sup>9</sup>time now present; according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, make the worshipper perfect, <sup>10</sup>being only (with meats and drinks and divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

But Christ having come a <sup>11</sup>high priest of <sup>10</sup>the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, nor yet through the blood of <sup>12</sup>goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats <sup>13</sup>and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh: 14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse <sup>1</sup> your conscience from dead works to serve the living 15 God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new <sup>2</sup> covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first <sup>2</sup> covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. For where a <sup>2</sup> testament is, there must of necessity <sup>3</sup> be the death of him that made it. For a <sup>2</sup> testament is of force <sup>4</sup> where there hath been death: <sup>5</sup> for doth it ever avail while he that made it liveth? Wherefore even the first covenant hath not been 19 dedicated without blood. For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, and all the people, 20 saying, This is the blood of the <sup>2</sup> covenant which God commanded to you-ward. More- 21 over the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with 22 the blood. And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. 23 It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than 24 these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us: nor yet that 25 he should offer himself often; as the high priest entereth into the holy place year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suf- 26 fered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the <sup>6</sup> end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin <sup>7</sup> by the sacrifice of himself. And inasmuch as it is 27 <sup>8</sup> appointed unto men once to die, and after this cometh judgement; so Christ also, hav- 28 ing been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

For the law having a sha- 10 dow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, <sup>9</sup> they can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them that draw nigh. Else would 2 they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more conscience of sins? But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins year by year. For it is impossible 4 that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh 5 into the world, he saith,

Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,
But a body didst thou prepare for me;

In whole burnt offerings 6 and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure:

is written of me)

- 8 Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.
9. 1 By which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ
11. once for all. And every <sup>2</sup>priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which can never take away
12. sins: but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for <sup>3</sup>sins for ever, sat down on the right
13. hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made the footstool of his feet.
14. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil <sup>7</sup>conscience, and our body washed with pure water: let us hold fast <sup>20</sup>the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is faithful that promised: and <sup>24</sup>let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.

For if we sin wilfully after <sup>26</sup>that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a <sup>27</sup>fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries. A man that hath set at <sup>23</sup>nought Moses' law dieth without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses: of how <sup>29</sup>much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, <sup>30</sup>an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is <sup>31</sup>a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

But call to remembrance <sup>32</sup>the former days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great conflict of sufferings; partly, being made <sup>33</sup>a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, becoming partakers with them that were so used. For ye both had compassion <sup>34</sup>on them that were in bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing 1 that 2 ye yourselves have a better possession and an a-35 biding one. Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompense of re-36 ward. For ye have need of patience, that, having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.

37 For yet a very little while,
 He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.

38 But 3 my righteous one shall live by faith:
 And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not 4 of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the 5 saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is 6 the assurance of things hoped for, the 7 proving of things not seen.

2 For therein the elders had faith we understand that the 8 worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been made out of things which do ap-4 pear. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, 9 God bearing witness 10 in respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet 5 speaketh. By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had been well-pleasing unto God:

6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that com-ter him. By faith Noah, be- 7 ing warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. By faith A- 8 braham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he became a 9 sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, 11 dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for the 10 city which hath the foundations, whose 12 builder and maker is God. By faith even 11 Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised: wherefore also there sprang 12 of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea shore, innumerable.

These all died 13 in faith, not 13 having received the promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that 14 say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. And 15 if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return. But 16 now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, being tried, <sup>1</sup> offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly received the promises was offering up 18 his only begotten son; even he <sup>2</sup> to whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called:
19 accounting that God <sup>3</sup> is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a 20 parable receive him back. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things 21 to come. By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith 22 Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith 23 Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's com-24 mandment. By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of 25 Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to be evil entreated with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for 26 a season; accounting the reproach of <sup>8</sup> Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the recompense of reward. By faith he 27 forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is 28 invisible. By faith he <sup>4</sup> kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should 29 not touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. By faith the walls seven days. By faith Rahab <sup>5</sup> the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace. And what shall I more <sup>6</sup> say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah; of David and Samuel and the prophets: who <sup>7</sup> through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the <sup>8</sup> power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were <sup>9</sup> tortured, not accepting <sup>10</sup> their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, more-over of bonds and imprisonment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, evil entreated (of whom the world <sup>11</sup> was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. And these all, having <sup>12</sup> had witness borne to them through their faith, received not the promise, God having <sup>13</sup> provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Therefore let us also, seeing <sup>14</sup> we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside <sup>15</sup> every weight, and the sin which <sup>16</sup> doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus <sup>17</sup> the <sup>18</sup> author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of 8 God. For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against <sup>1</sup>themselves, that ye wax not weary, faint-4 ing in your souls. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, 5 striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,

Nor faint when thou art reproved of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,

And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 <sup>2</sup>It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not

8 sons. Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of <sup>3</sup>spirits, and

9 live? For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be

10 partakers of his holiness. All chastening seemeth for the present to be not joyous, but grievous: yet afterward it yieldeth peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the

11 fruit of righteousness. Wherefore <sup>4</sup>lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied

Follow after peace with all 14 men, and the sanctification without which no man shall see the Lord: looking care- 15 fully <sup>6</sup>lest there be any man that <sup>7</sup>falleth short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled; <sup>8</sup>lest there be any 16 fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one mess of meat sold his own birthright. For ye know that even when 17 he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected (for he found no place of repentance), though he sought it diligently with tears.

For ye are not come unto <sup>9</sup>a 18 mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound 19 of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that no word more should be spoken unto them: for they could 20 not endure that which was enjoined, If even a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned; and so fearful was the 21 appearance, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake: but ye are come unto mount 22 Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, <sup>9</sup>and to <sup>10</sup>innumerable hosts of angels, to the general 23 assembly and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Je- 24 sus the mediator of a new <sup>11</sup>covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better <sup>12</sup>than that of Abel. See that ye refuse not him 25 that speaketh. For if they escaped not, when they refused him that warned them on earth, much more shall not we escape, who turn away from him <sup>1</sup>that warneth from 26 heaven: whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more will I make to tremble not the earth only, 27 but also the heaven. And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain.

 28 Wherefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have <sup>2</sup>grace, whereby we may offer service well-pleasing to God with <sup>3</sup>reverence and awe: for our God is a consuming fire.

13 Let love of the brethren 2 continue. Forget not to shew love unto strangers: for thereby some have entertained 3 angels unawares. Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; them that are evil entreated, as being yourselves also in the body.
 4 Let marriage be had in honour among all, and let the bed be undefiled: for fornicators and adulterers God will 5 judge. <sup>4</sup>Be ye free from the love of money; content with such things as ye have: for himself hath said, I will in no wise fail thee, neither will I 6 in any wise forsake thee. So that with good courage we say,

The Lord is my helper; I will not fear:

What shall man do unto me?

7 Remember them that had the rule over you, which spake unto you the word of God; and considering the issue of their <sup>5</sup>life, imitate their faith.

terday and to-day, yea and <sup>6</sup>for ever. Be not carried away by <sup>9</sup>divers and strange teachings: for it is good that the heart be established by grace; not by meats, wherein they that <sup>7</sup>occupied themselves were not profited. We have an altar, <sup>10</sup>whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those <sup>11</sup>beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy place <sup>8</sup>by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, <sup>12</sup>that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let <sup>13</sup>us therefore go forth unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For we have not <sup>14</sup>here an abiding city, but we seek after the city which is to come. Through him <sup>9</sup>then let <sup>15</sup>us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which make confession to his name. But to <sup>16</sup>do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. Obey them that have the rule <sup>17</sup>over you, and submit to them: for they watch in behalf of your souls, as they that shall give account; that they may do this with joy, and not with <sup>10</sup>grief: for this were unprofitable for you.

Pray for us: for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honestly in all things. And I <sup>19</sup>exhort you the more exceedingly to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Now the God of peace, who <sup>20</sup>brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep <sup>11</sup>with the blood of the eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect <sup>21</sup>in every good <sup>12</sup>thing to do

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

<sup>5</sup> But if any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea driven <sup>9</sup> But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: and the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. <sup>5</sup> Gr. from.

<sup>11</sup> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted <sup>5</sup>of God: for God <sup>6</sup>cannot be tempted with <sup>7</sup>evil, and he himself tempteth no man: but each man is <sup>8</sup>tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. Then the lust, when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the sin, when it is full-grown, bringeth forth death. Be not deceived, my beloved brethren. Every good <sup>9</sup>gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

<sup>10</sup> Ye know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath <sup>20</sup> of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and overflowing of <sup>1</sup>wickedness, receive with meekness the <sup>2</sup>implanted word, which is able <sup>22</sup>to save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any one <sup>23</sup>is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding <sup>24</sup>his natural face in a mirror: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he <sup>25</sup>was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, this man shall be blessed <sup>26</sup>in his doing. If any man <sup>27</sup>thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

<sup>2</sup> My brethren, <sup>5</sup>hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come into your <sup>6</sup>synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in vile clothing; <sup>7</sup>and ye have regard to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; <sup>7</sup>are ye not divided <sup>8</sup>in your own mind, and become judges with evil thoughts? <sup>8</sup>Hearken, my beloved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to them that love him? But ye have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves drag you before the judgement-seats? Do not they blaspheme the honourable name <sup>9</sup>by the which ye are called? Howbeit if ye fulfil <sup>8</sup>the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: but if ye have respect of persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is become guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by a law of liberty. For judgement is without mercy to him that hath shewed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgement.

What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and in lack of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. <sup>10</sup>Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith apart from thy works, and I by my works will shew thee my faith. Thou believest that <sup>11</sup>God is one; thou doest well: the <sup>12</sup>devils also believe, and shudder. But wilt

21 thou know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is barren? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in 22 that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? <sup>1</sup>Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and by works was 23 faith made perfect; and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called the friend of God.
 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by 25 faith. And in like manner was not also Rahab the harlot justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way?
 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.
 3 Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing that we shall receive <sup>2</sup>heavier judge-2 ment. For in many things we all stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle 3 the whole body also. Now if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about their 4 whole body also. Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steers-tongue can no man tame; <sup>8</sup> it is a restless evil, it is full of deadly poison. Therewith bless <sup>9</sup> we the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the likeness of God: out of the same mouth <sup>10</sup> cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

 Doth the fountain send forth <sup>11</sup> from the same opening sweet water and bitter? can a fig <sup>12</sup> tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

Who is wise and under- <sup>13</sup> standing among you? let him shew by his good life his works in meekness of wisdom. But <sup>14</sup> if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and be not against the truth. This wisdom is not a <sup>15</sup> wisdom that cometh down from above, but is earthly, <sup>10</sup>sensual, <sup>11</sup>devilish. For where <sup>16</sup> jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every vile deed. But the wisdom that <sup>17</sup> is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without <sup>12</sup>variance, without hypocrisy. And <sup>18</sup> the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace <sup>13</sup>for them that make peace.

Whence come wars and <sup>14</sup> whence come fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your pleasures that war in your members? Ye <sup>2</sup> lust, and have not: ye kill, and <sup>14</sup>covet, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not.
 Ye ask, and receive not, be- <sup>3</sup> cause ye ask amiss, that ye may spend it in your pleasures. Ye <sup>4</sup> adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an 5 enemy of God. Or think ye that the scripture <sup>1</sup> speaketh in vain? <sup>2</sup> Doth the spirit which <sup>3</sup> he made to dwell in us long unto envying? But he giveth <sup>4</sup> more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth 7 grace to the humble. Be subject therefore unto God; but resist the devil, and he will 8 flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your 9 hearts, ye doubleminded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your 10 joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

 11 Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer 12 of the law, but a judge. One only is the lawgiver and judge, even he who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?
 13 Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get 14 gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. <sup>5</sup> For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or 16 that. But now ye glory in your vauntings: all such glory-17 ing is evil. To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

Go to now, ye rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.
 Your gold and your silver are 3 rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony <sup>6</sup> against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure in the last days. Be-4 hold, the hire of the labourers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. Ye have lived 5 delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in a day of slaughter. Ye have con-6 demned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth not resist you.

Be patient therefore, bre-7 thren, until the <sup>7</sup> coming of the Lord. Behold, the husband-man waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until <sup>8</sup> it receive the early and latter rain. Be 8 ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the <sup>7</sup> coming of the Lord is at hand. Murmur not, 9 brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the judge standeth before the doors. Take, brethren, for an 10 example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spake in the name of the Lord.
 Behold, we call them blessed 11 which endured: ye have heard of the <sup>9</sup> patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

But above all things, my 12 brethren, swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but <sup>1</sup>let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgement.

11 Is any among you suffering? let him pray. Is any cheerful?

14 let him sing praise. Is any among you sick? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, <sup>2</sup>anointing him with oil in the

15 name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be for-

16 given him. Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man avail-eth much in its working. Elijah was a man of like <sup>3</sup>passions with us, and he prayed <sup>4</sup>fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months.

And he prayed again; and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

My brethren, if any among you do err from the truth, and one convert him; <sup>5</sup>let him know, that he which convert-eth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1 PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, 2 Asia, and Bithynia, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in 5 heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the

6 last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye have been put to grief in manifold <sup>1</sup>temptations, that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, might be found unto praise and glory and honour at the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and <sup>2</sup>full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: searching what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it testified beforehand the sufferings <sup>3</sup>of Christ, and the

- 12 To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you <sup>1</sup> by the <sup>2</sup> Holy Ghost sent forth from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.
- 13 Wherefore girding up the loins of your mind, be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that <sup>3</sup> is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in the time
- 15 of your ignorance: but <sup>4</sup> like as he which called you is holy, be ye yourselves also holy in all manner of living; because it is written, Ye shall be holy;
- 17 for I am holy. And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear: knowing that ye were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from your vain manner of life handed down from your fathers; but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, even
- 20 the blood of Christ: who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end of
- 21 the times for your sake, who through him are believers in God, which raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope
- 22 might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one another <sup>5</sup> from the heart fervently:
- 23 having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of <sup>6</sup> God, which liveth and abideth. For,

24

All flesh is as grass,
And all the glory thereof as the flower of grass.

The grass withereth, and the flower falleth:

But the <sup>7</sup> word of the Lord <sup>25</sup> abideth for ever.

And this is the <sup>7</sup> word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

Putting away therefore all <sup>2</sup> <sup>8</sup> wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, as newborn <sup>2</sup> babes, long for the <sup>9</sup> spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow thereby unto salvation; if ye have tasted <sup>3</sup> that the Lord is gracious: unto whom coming, a living <sup>4</sup> stone, rejected indeed of men, but with God elect, <sup>10</sup> precious, ye also, as living stones, are <sup>5</sup> built up <sup>11</sup> a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. Because it is contain- <sup>6</sup> ed in <sup>12</sup> scripture,

Behold, I lay in Zion a chief corner stone, elect, <sup>10</sup> precious:

And he that believeth on <sup>13</sup> him shall not be put to shame.

14 For you therefore which be- <sup>7</sup> lieve is the <sup>15</sup> preciousness: but for such as disbelieve,

The stone which the builders rejected,

The same was made the head of the corner;

and,
A stone of stumbling, and
a rock of offence;

16 for they <sup>17</sup> stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.
But ye are an elect race, a <sup>9</sup> royal priesthood, a holy nation,

- a people for God's own possession, that ye may shew forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:
- 10 which in time past were no people, but now are the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
- 11 Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which
- 12 war against the soul; having your behaviour seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.
- 13 Be subject to every <sup>1</sup>ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the
- 14 king, as supreme; or unto governors, as sent <sup>2</sup>by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to them that do
- 15 well. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance
- 16 of foolish men: as free, and not <sup>3</sup>using your freedom for a cloke of <sup>4</sup>wickedness, but as
- 17 bondservants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.
- 18 <sup>5</sup>Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.
- 19 For this is <sup>6</sup>acceptable, if for conscience <sup>7</sup>toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering
- 20 wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is
- 21 <sup>6</sup>acceptable with God. For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for

- was guile found in his mouth: who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, threatened not; but committed <sup>8</sup>himself to him that judgeth righteously: who his own self <sup>9</sup>bare our sins in his body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose <sup>10</sup>stripes ye were healed. For ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and
- <sup>11</sup>Bishop of your souls.
- In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the <sup>12</sup>behaviour of their wives; beholding your chaste <sup>12</sup>behaviour coupled with fear. Whose <sup>3</sup>adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner <sup>5</sup>aforetime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own <sup>13</sup>husbands: as <sup>6</sup>Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not <sup>14</sup>put in fear by any terror.
- Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour <sup>15</sup>unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.
- Finally, be ye all likeminded, <sup>8</sup>ed, <sup>16</sup>compassionate, loving as brethren, tenderhearted, hum-9 ble-minded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for revil-ing; but contrariwise blessing; for hereunto were ye called,

 that ye should inherit a bless-10 ing. For,

He that would love life,
 And see good days,
 Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
 And his lips that they speak no guile:

11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good; Let him seek peace, and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, And his ears unto their supplication:

But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be zealous of 14 that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye:

 and fear not their fear, nei-15 ther be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: be ye ready always to give answer to every man that ask-

16 eth you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meekness and fear: having a good conscience; that, wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of 17 life in Christ. For it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-18 doing than for evil-doing. Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but quicken-19 ed in the spirit; in which also he went and preached unto the the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, <sup>2</sup>wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water: which <sup>21</sup> also <sup>3</sup>after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the <sup>4</sup>in-science toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ; who is on the right <sup>22</sup> hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

Forasmuch then as Christ <sup>4</sup> suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same <sup>5</sup>mind; for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased <sup>6</sup>from sin; that <sup>7</sup>ye no longer <sup>2</sup>should live the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.
 For the time past may suffice <sup>3</sup> to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, wine-bibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries:
 wherein they think it strange <sup>4</sup> that ye run not with them into the same <sup>8</sup>excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give <sup>5</sup>account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. For unto this end <sup>9</sup>was <sup>6</sup> the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

But the end of all things is <sup>7</sup> at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto <sup>10</sup>prayer: above all things <sup>8</sup> being fervent in your love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins: using hospitality one to an- <sup>9</sup> other without murmuring: ac- <sup>10</sup> cording as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourself, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; <sup>11</sup> If any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion <sup>1</sup> for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto <sup>13</sup> you: but inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also ye may rejoice <sup>14</sup> with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached <sup>2</sup> for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God resteth upon <sup>15</sup> you. For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a meddler <sup>16</sup> in other men's matters: but if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this <sup>17</sup> name. For the time is come for judgement to begin at the house of God: and if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that obey not the <sup>18</sup> gospel of God? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and <sup>19</sup> sinner appear? Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

<sup>5</sup> The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory <sup>2</sup> that shall be revealed: Tend the flock of God which is a-

And when the chief <sup>4</sup> Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away. <sup>5</sup> Likewise, ye younger, be sub- <sup>5</sup> ject unto the elder. Yea, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to serve one another: for God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves there- <sup>6</sup> fore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all <sup>7</sup> your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. Be <sup>8</sup> sober, be watchful: your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom <sup>9</sup> withstand stedfast in <sup>6</sup> your faith, knowing that the same sufferings are <sup>7</sup> accomplished in your <sup>8</sup> brethren who are in the world. And the God of <sup>10</sup> all grace, who called you unto his eternal glory in Christ, after that ye have suffered a little while, shall himself <sup>9</sup> perfect, stablish, strengthen <sup>10</sup> you. To him be the dominion <sup>1</sup> for <sup>11</sup> ever and ever. Amen.

By Silvanus, <sup>11</sup> our faithful <sup>12</sup> brother, as I account him, I have written unto you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God: stand ye fast therein. <sup>12</sup> She <sup>13</sup> that is in Babylon, elect together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Mark my son. Salute one <sup>14</sup> another with a kiss of love.

Peace be unto you all that are in Christ.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1 <sup>1</sup> Simon Peter, a <sup>2</sup> servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained <sup>3</sup> a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of <sup>4</sup> our God and Saviour Jesus Christ : 2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord ; 3 seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and god-liness, through the knowledge of him that called us <sup>5</sup> by his 4 own glory and virtue ; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises ; that through these ye may become partakers of <sup>6</sup> the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply and in your patience godli-

8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge of our 9 Lord Jesus Christ. For he that lacketh these things is blind, <sup>8</sup> seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.

more diligence to make your be richly supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Wherefore I shall be ready 12 always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the truth which is with you. And I think it right, 13 as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance ; knowing that the putting off 14 of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me. Yea, 15 I will give diligence that at every time ye may be able after my <sup>9</sup> decease to call these things to remembrance. For 16 we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and <sup>10</sup> coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For 17 he <sup>11</sup> received from God the Father honour and glory, when there <sup>12</sup> came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased ; and 18 this voice we ourselves heard <sup>13</sup> come out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mount. And we have the 19 word of prophecy made more sure ; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a <sup>14</sup> dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts : knowing this first, that no prophesy of scripture is of <sup>15</sup> private interpretation. For no 21 prophecy ever <sup>16</sup> came by the will of man; but men spake from God, being moved by the <sup>1</sup>Holy Ghost.

<sup>2</sup> But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall privily bring in <sup>2</sup>destructive heresies, denying even the Master that bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the way of the truth shall be evil spoken of. And in covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction slumbereth not. For if God spared not angels when they sinned, but <sup>3</sup>cast them down to <sup>4</sup>hell, and committed them to <sup>5</sup>pits of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement; and spared not the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, <sup>6</sup>a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example unto those that should live ungodly; and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, <sup>7</sup>vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds): the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment unto the day of judgement; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. ble not to rail at <sup>8</sup>dignities: whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgement against them before the Lord. But these, as creatures without reason, born <sup>9</sup>mere animals <sup>10</sup>to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their <sup>11</sup>destroying surely be destroyed, suffering wrong as the hire of wrong-doing; men that count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, revelling in their <sup>12</sup>love-feasts while they feast with you; having eyes full of <sup>13</sup>adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised in covetousness; children of cursing; forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of <sup>14</sup>Beor, who loved the hire of wrong-doing; but he was rebuked for his own transgression: a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. These are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved. For, uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just escaping from them that live in error; promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for of <sup>15</sup>whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bondage. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of <sup>16</sup>the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse with them than 21 the first. For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered unto them. It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

3 This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; 2 that ye should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: knowing this first, that 1 in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking 4 after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his 2 coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of 5 the creation. For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and 8 amidst water, by the word 6 of God; by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: 7 but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been 4 stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgement and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of 10 the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the 5 elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein shall be 6 burned up. Seeing that these things 11 are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godliness, looking for and 12 earnestly desiring the 2 coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the 5 elements shall melt with fervent heat? But, ac- 13 cording to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

Wherefore, beloved, seeing 14 that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace, without spot and blameless in his sight. And account that the longsuf- 15 fering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; as also in all his 16 epistles, speaking in them of these things; wherein are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and un- stedfast wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye there- 17 fore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the error of the wicked, ye fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in the grace and 18 knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and 8 for ever, Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

1 THAT which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the <sup>1</sup> Word of life (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us); 2 that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: and these things we write, that <sup>2</sup> our joy may be fulfilled.

3 And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not 4 the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from 5 all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, we have an <sup>3</sup> Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: and he 2 is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. And hereby know we that we 3 know him, if we keep his commandments. He that saith, I 4 know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him: but whoso keepeth his word, 5 in him verily hath the love of God been perfected. Hereby know we that we are in him: he that saith he abideth in 6 him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.

Beloved, no new command- 7 ment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which ye heard. Again, a new 8 commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shineth. He that saith he is in the 9 light, and hateth his brother, is in the darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he 11 that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

I write unto you, my little 12 children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fa- 13

thers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. <sup>1</sup>I have written unto you, little children, because ye know the Father. <sup>1</sup>I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. <sup>1</sup>I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the vainglory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

<sup>18</sup> Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest <sup>2</sup>how that they all are not of us. And ye have an anointing from the Holy One, <sup>3</sup>and ye know all things.

<sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise which he promised <sup>5</sup>us, even the life eternal. These things have I written unto you concerning them that would lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, <sup>6</sup>and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, <sup>7</sup>ye abide in him. And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed <sup>8</sup>before him at his <sup>9</sup>coming. If ye know that he is righteous, <sup>10</sup>ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God: and such we are. For this cause the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if <sup>11</sup>he shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall see him even as he is. And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Every one that doeth sin doeth also lawlessness: and sin is lawlessness. And ye know that he was manifested to <sup>12</sup>take away sins; and in him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth

- not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither <sup>1</sup> knoweth him. My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is <sup>8</sup> righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
- <sup>9</sup> Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another: <sup>12</sup> not as Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
- <sup>13</sup> Marvel not, brethren, if the <sup>14</sup> world hateth you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death.
- <sup>15</sup> Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal <sup>16</sup> life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives <sup>17</sup> for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how doth the love of God abide in him?
- <sup>18</sup> My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and truth. <sup>19</sup> Hereby shall we know that we are of the truth, and shall

<sup>2</sup> assure our heart before him, whereinsoever our heart condemn us; because God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, <sup>21</sup> if our heart condemn us not, we have boldness toward God; and whatsoever we ask, we <sup>22</sup> receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is <sup>23</sup> his commandment, that we should <sup>3</sup> believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us commandment. And <sup>24</sup> he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

Beloved, believe not every <sup>4</sup> spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: and every <sup>8</sup> spirit which <sup>4</sup> confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and now it is in the world already. Ye are of God, <sup>4</sup> my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world. They are <sup>5</sup> of the world: therefore speak they as of the world, and the world heareth them. We are <sup>6</sup> of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is begotten of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not <sup>8</sup> knoweth not God; for God is 9 love. Herein was the love of God manifested <sup>1</sup> in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, 10 that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our 11 sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one 12 another. No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is perfected 13 in us: hereby know we that we abide in him, and he in us, because he hath given us 14 of his Spirit. And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

 15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in 16 God. And we know and have believed the love which God hath <sup>1</sup> in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth 17 in him. Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, even so are we in this world.
 18 There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love.
 19 We love, because he first loved 20 us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, <sup>2</sup> cannot love God whom 21 he hath not seen. And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.
 5 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth <sup>1</sup> Or, in ties read how can

<sup>3</sup> Gr. in.

him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. Here- 2 by we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do his command- 3 ments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
 For whatsoever is begotten of 4 God overcometh the world:
 and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even 5 our faith. And who is he that overcometh the world, but he 6 that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he 7 that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not <sup>3</sup> with the water only, but <sup>3</sup> with the water and <sup>3</sup> with the blood. 8 And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit 9 is the truth. For there are 10 three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and the three agree 11 in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of 12 God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness concern- 13 ing his Son. He that believeth 14 on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. And the witness 15 is this, that God gave unto us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the 16 Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

These things have I written 17 unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God.
 And this is the boldness which 18 we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to

- 15 his will, he heareth us: and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, <sup>1</sup>he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is <sup>2</sup>a sin unto death: not concerning this do I say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is <sup>2</sup>a sin not unto death.
- 18 We know that whosoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keepeth <sup>3</sup>him, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in the evil one. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. My little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

- 1 THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all they that know the truth; for the truth's sake which abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever:
- 3 Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
- 4 I rejoyce greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. For many deceivers are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to yourselves, that ye lose not the things which <sup>2</sup>we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward. Whosoever <sup>3</sup>goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the Son. If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and give him no greeting: for he that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works.

Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your joy may be fulfilled. The children of thine elect sister salute thee.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1 THE elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy 3 soul prospereth. For I rejoiced greatly, when brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou walkest 4 in truth. Greater joy have I none than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.
5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are brethren and strangers withal; who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to set forward on their journey worthy of God: because that for the sake of the Name they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth.
9 I wrote somewhat unto the church: but Diotrephes, who

Therefore, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he doeth, prating against us with wicked words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and them that would he forbiddeth, and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, imitate not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: he that doeth evil hath not seen God. Demetrius hath the witness of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, we also bear witness; and thou knowest that our witness is true.

I had many things to write unto thee, but I am unwilling to write them to thee with ink and pen: but I hope shortly to see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be unto thee. The friends salute thee. Salute the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

1 JUDAS, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: Mercy unto you and peace and love be multiplied.

was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lascivviolousness, and denying <sup>1</sup>our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now I desire to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, how that <sup>2</sup>the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, <sup>3</sup>afterward destroyed

<sup>7</sup> ment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and gone after strange flesh, are set forth <sup>4</sup>as an example, suffering the punish-<sup>8</sup> ment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and set at nought dominion, and

<sup>9</sup> rail at <sup>5</sup>dignities. But Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing judgement, but said, The

<sup>10</sup> Lord rebuke thee. But these rail at whatsoever things they know not: and what they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these things are they <sup>6</sup>de-

<sup>11</sup> stroyed. Woe unto them! for they went in the way of Cain, and <sup>7</sup>ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in the gainsaying of

<sup>12</sup> Korah. These are they who are <sup>8</sup>hidden rocks in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds that without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked own <sup>9</sup>shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved for ever. And to these also <sup>14</sup> Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord came with <sup>10</sup>ten thousands of his holy ones, to <sup>15</sup> execute judgement upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly wrought, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These <sup>16</sup> are murmurers, complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh great swelling words), shewing respect of persons for the sake of advantage.

But ye, beloved, remember <sup>17</sup> ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; how <sup>18</sup> that they said to you, In the last time there shall be mockers, walking after <sup>11</sup>their own ungodly lusts. These are they <sup>19</sup> who make separations, <sup>12</sup>sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up <sup>20</sup> yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love <sup>21</sup> of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. <sup>13</sup> And on some <sup>22</sup> have mercy, <sup>14</sup>who are in doubt; and some save, snatching them <sup>23</sup> out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

Now unto him that is able <sup>24</sup> to guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence of his glory without blemish in exceeding joy, to the <sup>25</sup> only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and power, before all time, and now, and <sup>15</sup>for evermore. Amen.

THE REVELATION

S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

1 THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God <sup>1</sup>gave him to shew unto his <sup>2</sup>servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass: and he sent and signified <sup>3</sup>it by his angel unto his servant John; 2 who bare witness of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, even of all things that he saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him which is and which was and <sup>4</sup>which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne; and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loveth us, and <sup>5</sup>loosed us from our sins <sup>6</sup>by his blood; and he made us to be a kingdom, to be priests unto his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion <sup>7</sup>for ever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, he cometh with the clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am the Alpha and the Omega, saith <sup>8</sup>the Lord God, <sup>9</sup>which is and which was and <sup>4</sup>which is to come, the Almighty.

I John, your brother and 9 partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patience which are in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. I was 10 in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet saying, What thou seest, write 11 in a book, and send it to the seven churches; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamum, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. And I turned to 12 see the voice which spake with me. And having turned I saw seven golden <sup>10</sup>candlesticks; and in the midst of the <sup>10</sup>candlesticks one like unto 13 a son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle. And his head 14 and his hair were white as white wool, white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto 15 burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and his voice as the voice of many waters. And he had in his 16 right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell 17 at his feet as one dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first and the last, and the 18

Living one; and I <sup>1</sup>was dead, and behold, I am alive <sup>2</sup>for evermore, and I have the keys of death and of Hades. Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass hereafter; the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest <sup>3</sup>in my right hand, and the seven golden <sup>4</sup>candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven <sup>4</sup>candlesticks are seven churches.

2 To the angel of the church in Ephesus write;

These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh in the midst of the seven <sup>2</sup>golden <sup>4</sup>candlesticks: I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst try them which call themselves apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false; and thou hast patience and didst bear for my name's sake, and hast not grown weary. 4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave thy <sup>5</sup>first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will move thy <sup>6</sup>candlestick out of its place, 6 except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nicolaitans, 7 which I also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the <sup>6</sup>Paradise of God.

Fear not the things <sup>10</sup>which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; <sup>8</sup>and ye shall have <sup>9</sup>tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life. He <sup>11</sup>that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

And to the angel of the <sup>12</sup>church in Pergamum write;

These things saith he that hath the sharp two-edged sword: I know where thou <sup>13</sup>dwestest, even where Satan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days <sup>10</sup>of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwelleth. But I have a few <sup>14</sup>things against thee, because thou hast there some that hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit fornication. So hast thou <sup>15</sup>also some that hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans in like manner. Repent therefore; or else I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.

18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write;

These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are 19 like unto burnished brass: I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and patience, and that thy last works

20 are more than the first. But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest <sup>1</sup>the woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and to eat

21 things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time that she should repent; and she willeth not to 22 repent of her fornication. Behold, I do cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent

23 of <sup>2</sup>her works. And I will kill her children with <sup>3</sup>death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto each one of you

24 according to your works. But to you I say, to the rest that are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, which know not the deep things of Satan, as they say; I cast upon

25 you none other burden. Howbeit that which ye have, hold

26 fast till I come. And he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works unto the end, 27 to him will I give authority over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of <sup>4</sup>iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to shivers; as I also have received of my Father:

And to the angel of the church in Sardis write; 3

These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and thou art dead. Be thou watchful, and stablish the things that remain, which were ready to die: for I have <sup>5</sup>found no works of thine fulfilled before my God. Remember therefore 3 how thou hast received and didst hear; and keep it, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. But thou hast a few 4 names in Sardis which did not defile their garments: and they shall walk with me in white; for they are worthy. He that overcometh shall thus 5 be arrayed in white garments; and I will in no wise blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an 6 ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; 7

These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and none shall shut, and that shutteth, and none openeth: I know thy works 8 (behold, I have <sup>6</sup>set before thee a door opened, which none can shut), that thou hast a little power, and didst keep my word, and didst not deny my name. Behold, I give of 9 the synagogue of Satan, of them which say they are Jews, and they are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. Because thou didst 10

keep the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of <sup>1</sup>trial, that hour which is to come upon the whole <sup>2</sup>world, to <sup>3</sup>try them that dwell 11 upon the earth. I come quickly: hold fast that which thou hast, that no one take thy 12 crown. He that overcometh, I will make him a pillar in the <sup>4</sup>temple of my God, and he shall go out thence no more: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, 13 and mine own new name. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write;

These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God: I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind 18 and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, 19 that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and 20 repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him,

After these things I saw, and <sup>4</sup>behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, Come up hither, and I will shew thee the things which must <sup>5</sup>come to pass hereafter. Straightway I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; and <sup>8</sup>he that sat was to look upon like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon. And round about the throne <sup>4</sup>were four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their heads crowns of gold. And out of the throne <sup>5</sup>proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; and <sup>6</sup>before the throne, as it were a glassy sea like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. And <sup>7</sup>the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. And the <sup>8</sup>four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying,

Holy, holy, holy, <sup>is</sup> the Lord God, the Almighty, which was and which is and <sup>1</sup>which is to come. And when the living creatures shall give glory and honour and thanks to him that sitteth on the throne, to him that liveth <sup>2</sup>for ever and ever, the four and twenty elders shall fall down before him that sitteth on the throne, and shall worship him that liveth <sup>2</sup>for ever and ever, and shall cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Worthy art thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honour and the power: for thou didst create all things, and because of thy will they were, and were created.

<sup>5</sup> And I saw <sup>3</sup>in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back, close sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no one in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look thereon. And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look thereon: and one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion that is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath overcome, to open the book and the seven seals thereof. And I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the <sup>4</sup>seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

And when he had taken the <sup>8</sup>book, the four living creatures and the four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having each one a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. And they sing a new <sup>9</sup>song, saying, Worthy art thou to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and didst purchase unto God with thy blood <sup>men</sup>of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, and mad- <sup>10</sup>est them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; and they reign upon the earth. And I saw, and I heard a <sup>11</sup>voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thou- <sup>12</sup>sands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every created thing which <sup>13</sup>is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, <sup>2</sup>for ever and ever. And the four living crea- <sup>14</sup>tures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worship- ped.

And I saw when the Lamb <sup>6</sup>opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come. And I saw, and behold, a <sup>2</sup>white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown:

and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying,

4 Come<sup>1</sup>. And another horse came forth, a red horse; and to him that sat thereon it was given to take<sup>2</sup> peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come<sup>1</sup>. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon had a balance in his hand.

6 And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, A<sup>3</sup> measure of wheat for a<sup>4</sup> penny, and three measures of barley for a<sup>4</sup> penny; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not.

7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature

8 saying, Come<sup>1</sup>. And I saw, and behold, a pale horse; and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Hades followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with<sup>5</sup> death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: and they cried with a great voice,

10 saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? And there was given them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, which should be killed even as they were, should<sup>6</sup> be fulfilled.

And I saw when he opened<sup>12</sup> the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; and the stars<sup>13</sup> of the heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs, when she is shaken of a great wind. And the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And the kings of the earth,<sup>15</sup> and the princes, and the<sup>7</sup> chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; and they<sup>16</sup> say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: for the great day of their wrath<sup>17</sup> is come; and who is able to stand?

After this I saw four angels<sup>7</sup> standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel<sup>2</sup> ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, saying,<sup>3</sup> Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we shall have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads. And I heard the number of<sup>4</sup> them which were sealed, a hundred and forty and four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:

6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand:

7 Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand:

Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation, and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their

10 hands; and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto the 11 Lamb. And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped 12 God, saying, Amen: <sup>1</sup> Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God <sup>2</sup> for ever and ever. Amen.

whence came they? And I <sup>14</sup> say unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore <sup>15</sup> are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no <sup>16</sup> more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for <sup>17</sup> the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

And when he opened the <sup>8</sup> seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I <sup>2</sup> saw the seven angels which stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.

And another angel came and <sup>3</sup> stood <sup>4</sup> over the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should <sup>5</sup> add it unto the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, <sup>4</sup> with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. And the angel <sup>5</sup> <sup>7</sup> taketh the censer; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it <sup>8</sup> upon the earth: and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

And the seven angels which <sup>6</sup> had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

And the first sounded, and <sup>7</sup> there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast <sup>1</sup>upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea be-

9 came blood; and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of the 11 waters; and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.

13 And I saw, and I heard <sup>2</sup>an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound.

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss.

4 That is, Destroyer.

And he opened the pit of the 2 abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And out of the 3 smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And 4 it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God on their foreheads. And it was given them 5 that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it striketh a man. And in those days men 6 shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them. And the <sup>3</sup>shapes 7 of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's faces. And they had hair as the hair 8 of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they 9 had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to war. And 10 they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months. They have 11 over them as king the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name <sup>4</sup>Apollyon.

The first Woe is past: be- 12 hold, there come yet two Woes hereafter.

And the sixth angel sound- 13

ed, and I heard <sup>1</sup>a voice from the horns of the golden altar 14 which is before God, one saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound at the great river Euphrates.
 15 And the four angels were loosed, which had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of 16 men. And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: I heard the 17 number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and 18 brimstone. By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their 19 mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them 20 they do hurt. And the rest of mankind, which were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship <sup>2</sup>devils, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, 21 nor hear, nor walk: and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.
 10 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire; and he had in his hand <sup>2</sup>a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the earth; and he cried with a great voice, <sup>3</sup>as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. And when <sup>4</sup>the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. And the angel which <sup>5</sup>I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right hand to heaven, and <sup>6</sup>swore by him that liveth <sup>3</sup>for ever and ever, who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, <sup>4</sup>and the sea and the things that are therein, that there shall be <sup>5</sup>time no longer: but <sup>7</sup>in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants the prophets. And the voice which <sup>8</sup>I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth upon the sea and upon the earth. And <sup>9</sup>I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as honey. And I took the little <sup>10</sup>book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter. And <sup>11</sup>they say unto me, Thou must prophesy again <sup>1</sup>over many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

- 11 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: <sup>2</sup>and one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship <sup>2</sup>therein. And the court which is without the temple <sup>3</sup>leave without, and measure it not; for it hath been given unto the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under foot <sup>3</sup>forty and two months. And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, <sup>4</sup>clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees and the two <sup>4</sup>candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth. And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man shall desire to hurt them, in this manner must he <sup>6</sup>be killed. These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they <sup>7</sup>shall desire. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make war with them, and overcome <sup>8</sup>them, and kill them. And their <sup>5</sup>dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their <sup>9</sup>Lord was crucified. And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their <sup>5</sup>dead bodies three days and a half, and suffer not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

And they that dwell on the <sup>10</sup>earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell on the earth. And after the three <sup>11</sup>days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which beheld them. And they heard a great voice <sup>12</sup>from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And in that hour <sup>13</sup>there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake <sup>6</sup>seven thousand persons: and the rest were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

And the seventh angel <sup>15</sup>sounded; and there followed great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ: and he shall reign <sup>7</sup>for ever and ever. And the four and <sup>16</sup>twenty elders, which sit before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, saying, We give thee <sup>17</sup>thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou hast taken thy great power, and didst reign. And the nations were <sup>18</sup>wroth, and thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

19 And there was opened the temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his <sup>1</sup>covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; <sup>2</sup>and she was with child: and she crieth out, travailing in birth, and in pain to be delivered. And there was seen <sup>3</sup>another sign in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads <sup>4</sup>seven diadems. And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about to be delivered, that when she was delivered, he might devour her child. And she was delivered <sup>5</sup>of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and <sup>6</sup>unto his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels <sup>going forth</sup> to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more <sup>8</sup>in heaven. And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole <sup>2</sup>world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. And I heard a <sup>10</sup>great voice in heaven, saying, <sup>3</sup>Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accuseth them before our God day and night. And they overcame him because <sup>11</sup>of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their life even unto death. Therefore rejoice, <sup>12</sup>O heavens, and ye that <sup>4</sup>dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

And when the dragon saw <sup>13</sup>that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man <sup>14</sup>child. And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And <sup>15</sup>the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. And the earth helped <sup>16</sup>the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon waxed wroth <sup>17</sup>with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and hold the testimony of Jesus: and he stood upon the <sup>18</sup>sand of the sea.

And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of 3 great authority. And I saw one of his heads as though it had been smitten unto death; and his death-stroke was healed: and the whole earth won-4 dered after the beast; and they worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? and who is able to war with him?

 5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority 2 to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, even them that dwell in the heaven.
 7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation.

 13 doeth great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. And 14 he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, who hath the stroke of the sword, and lived. And it was

 17 able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name. Here is

And I saw, and behold, the 2 heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of harpers harping with their 3 harps: and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even 4 they that had been purchased out of the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God 5 and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no lie: they are without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim unto them that <sup>1</sup>dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe and tongue and people; and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgement is come: and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth a mark on his forehead, or upon his 10 hand, he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is <sup>2</sup>prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment goeth up <sup>3</sup>for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. 11

And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead which die <sup>4</sup>in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; for their works follow with them. 12

And I saw, and behold, a 13 white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto <sup>5</sup>a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out 14 from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the earth is <sup>6</sup>over-ripe. And he that sat on the 15 cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped. 16

And another angel came out 17 from the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel 18 came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel cast his 19 sickle into the earth, and gathered the <sup>7</sup>vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the great winepress, of the wrath of God. And the 20 winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in

6 heaven was opened: and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed <sup>3</sup> with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts

7 with golden girdles. And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth <sup>4</sup> for ever and

And I heard a great voice <sup>16</sup> out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.

And the first went, and <sup>2</sup> poured out his bowl into the earth; and <sup>5</sup> it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and which worshipped his image.

And the second poured out <sup>3</sup> his bowl into the sea; and <sup>5</sup> it became blood as of a dead man; and every <sup>6</sup> living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.

And the third poured out <sup>4</sup> his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; <sup>7</sup> and <sup>5</sup> it became blood. And <sup>5</sup> I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou Holy One, because thou didst thus <sup>8</sup> judge: for they <sup>6</sup> poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy. And I heard <sup>7</sup> the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.

And the fourth poured out <sup>8</sup> his bowl upon the sun; and it was given unto <sup>9</sup> it to scorch men with fire. And men were <sup>9</sup> scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of the God which hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.

And the fifth poured out his <sup>10</sup> bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and <sup>11</sup> they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.

And the sixth poured out <sup>12</sup> his bowl upon the great river, the river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come 13 from the sunrising. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as 14 it were frogs: for they are spirits of <sup>1</sup>devils, working signs; which go forth <sup>2</sup>unto the kings of the whole <sup>3</sup>world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day of 15 God, the Almighty. (Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.) 16 And they gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew Har-Magedon.

 17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple, from the throne, saying, It is done:
 18 and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since <sup>4</sup>there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty.
 19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains 20 were not found. And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the judgement of the great harlot that sitteth upon many waters; with whom 2 the kings of the earth committed fornication, and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her fornication. And he carried 3 me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast, <sup>6</sup>full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. And the 4 woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and <sup>6</sup>decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations, 7 even the unclean things of her fornication, and upon 5 her forehead a name written, <sup>8</sup>MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the 6 woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the <sup>9</sup>martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. And the angel said unto 7 me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and the ten horns. The beast that 8 thou sawest was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, <sup>10</sup>and to go into perdition. And they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written <sup>11</sup>in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that he was, and is not, and <sup>12</sup>shall come. Here 9 is the <sup>13</sup>mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which

- 10 the woman sitteth: and <sup>1</sup>they are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. And the beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goeth into perdition. And the ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. These have one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. These shall war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they also shall overcome that are with him, called and chosen and faithful. And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her utterly with fire. For God did put in their hearts to do his mind, and to come to one mind, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city, which <sup>2</sup>reigneth over the kings of the earth.
- 18 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was <sup>2</sup>lightened with his glory. And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and is become a habitation of <sup>3</sup>devils, and a

and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all thine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; 13 and cinnamon, and <sup>1</sup>spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and <sup>2</sup>slaves; and 14 <sup>3</sup>souls of men. And the fruits which thy soul lusted after are gone from thee, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are perished from thee, and men shall find them no more 15 at all. The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping 16 and mourning; saying, Woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and <sup>4</sup>decked with gold and precious 17 stone and pearl! for in one hour so great riches is made desolate. And every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as <sup>5</sup>gain their living 18 by sea, stood afar off, and cried out as they looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like the great 19 city? And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou 20 heaven, and ye saints, and ye apostles, and ye prophets; for God hath judged your judgement on her. 21 And <sup>6</sup>a strong angel took up a stone as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Babylon, the great city, be cast down, and shall be found no more at all. And 22 the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, <sup>7</sup>of whatsoever craft, shall be found any more at all in thee; and the voice of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; and 23 the light of a lamp shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the princes of the earth; for with thy sorcery were all the nations deceived. And in her 24 was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all that have been slain upon the earth.

After these things I heard 19 as it were a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, Hallelujah; Salvation, and glory, and power, belong to our God: for true and 2 righteous are his judgements; for he hath judged the great harlot, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and he hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand. And 3 a second time they <sup>8</sup>say, Hallelujah. And her smoke goeth up <sup>9</sup>for ever and ever. And 4 the four and twenty elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God that sitteth on the throne, saying, Amen; Hallelujah. And 5 a voice came forth from the throne, saying, Give praise to our God, all ye his servants, ye that fear him, the small and the great. And I heard 6 as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice

- of mighty thunders, saying, Hallelujah: for the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigneth.
- 7 Let us rejoice and be exceeding glad, and let us give the glory unto him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And it was given unto her that she should array herself in fine linen, bright and pure: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are bidden to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are true words of God. And I fell down before his feet to worship him. And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren that hold the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.
- 11 And I saw the heaven opened; and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon, <sup>1</sup>called Faithful and True; and in righteousness he doth judge a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

And I saw <sup>4</sup>an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid heaven, Come and be gathered together unto the great supper of God; that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of <sup>5</sup>captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of them that sit thereon, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, and small and great.

And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought the signs in his sight, wherewith he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image: they twain were cast alive into the lake of fire that burneth with brimstone: and the rest were killed with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, even the sword which came forth out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain <sup>6</sup>in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

And I saw thrones, and they 4 sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the second death hath no <sup>1</sup>power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him <sup>2</sup>a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down <sup>3</sup>out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night <sup>4</sup>for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up <sup>1</sup>the dead which were in it; and death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and Hades <sup>2</sup>were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even the lake of fire. And if any <sup>3</sup>was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

And I saw a new heaven <sup>21</sup>and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth are passed away; and the sea is no more. And I saw <sup>5</sup>the <sup>2</sup>holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. And <sup>1</sup>I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall <sup>6</sup>dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, <sup>7</sup>and be their God: and he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first things are passed away. And he that sitteth <sup>5</sup>on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, <sup>8</sup>Write: for these words are faithful and true. And <sup>1</sup>he said unto me, They are come to pass. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that over- <sup>7</sup>cometh shall inherit these things; and I will be his God,

- 8 and he shall be my son. But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.
- 9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb.
- 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and shewed me the holy city Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God: her <sup>1</sup>light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal:
- 12 having a wall great and high; having twelve <sup>2</sup>gates, and at the <sup>2</sup>gates twelve angels; and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children
- 13 of Israel: on the east were three <sup>2</sup>gates; and on the north three <sup>2</sup>gates; and on the south three <sup>2</sup>gates; and on the west three <sup>2</sup>gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve apostles
- 15 of the Lamb. And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the <sup>2</sup>gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height thereof are equal.
- 17 And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. And the building 18 of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city was pure gold, 19 like unto pure glass. The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, <sup>2</sup>sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, <sup>4</sup>jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. And the 21 twelve <sup>2</sup>gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several <sup>2</sup>gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, <sup>5</sup>as it were transparent glass. And I saw no 22 temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. And the city hath no need of 23 the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, <sup>6</sup>and the lamp thereof is the Lamb. And the nations shall walk 24 <sup>7</sup>amidst the light thereof: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory into it. And the 25 <sup>2</sup>gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there shall be no night there): and they 26 shall bring the glory and the honour of the nations into it: and there shall in no wise 27 enter into it anything <sup>8</sup>unclean, or he that <sup>9</sup>maketh an abomination and a lie: but only they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. And 22 he shewed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of <sup>10</sup>the Lamb, in 2 the midst of the street thereof. And on this side of the river and on that was <sup>11</sup>the tree of life, bearing twelve <sup>1</sup>manner of fruits, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be <sup>2</sup>no curse any more: and the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be therein: and his servants shall do him service; and they shall see his face; and his name shall be on their foreheads. And there shall be night no more; and they need no light of lamp, neither light of sun; for the Lord God shall give them light: and they shall reign <sup>3</sup>for ever and ever.

And he said unto me, These words are faithful and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly come to pass. And behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book.

And I John am he that heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. And he saith unto me, See thou do it not: I am a fellow-servant with thee and with thy brethren the prophets, and with them which keep the words of this book: worship God.

And he saith unto me, Seal not up the words of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness <sup>4</sup>still: and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy <sup>4</sup>still: and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness <sup>4</sup>still: and he that is holy, let him be made holy <sup>4</sup>still. Behold, I come quickly: and my <sup>5</sup>reward is with me, to render to each man according as his work is. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end. Blessed are they that wash their robes, that they may have <sup>6</sup>the right to come to the tree of life, and may enter in by the <sup>7</sup>gates into the city. Without are the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one that loveth and <sup>8</sup>maketh a lie.

I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things <sup>9</sup>for the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright, the morning star.

And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let him take the water of life freely.

I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add <sup>11</sup>unto them, God shall add <sup>11</sup>unto him the plagues which are written in this book: and if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, <sup>12</sup>which are written in this book.

He which testifieth these things saith, Yea: I come quickly. Amen: come, Lord Jesus.

The grace of the Lord Jesus <sup>13</sup>be <sup>14</sup>with the saints. Amen.

CLASSES OF PASSAGES.

- I. Strike out "S." (i.e. Saint) from the title of the Gospels and from the heading of the pages.
- II. Strike out "the Apostle" from the title of the Pauline Epistles, and "of Paul the Apostle" from the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; strike out the word "General" from the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude; and let the title of the Revelation run "The Revelation of John."
- III. For "Holy Ghost" adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."
- IV. At the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc., add the marginal note "The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to man (see chap. xviii. 26) or to God (see chap. iv. 10)."
- V. Put into the text uniformly the marginal rendering "through" in place of "by" when it relates to prophecy, viz. in Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xlii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25.
- VI. For "tempt" ("temptation") substitute "try" or "make trial of" ("trial") wherever enticement to what is wrong is not evidently spoken of; viz. in the following instances: Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; xxii. 28; John viii. 6; Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9; Heb. iii. 8, 9; 1 Pet. i. 6.
- VII. Substitute modern forms of speech for the following archaisms, viz. "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons; "are" for "be" in the present indicative; "know" "knew" for "wot" "wist"; "drag" or "drag away" for "halé."
- VIII. Substitute for "devil" ("devils") the word "demon" ("demons") wherever the latter word is given in the margin (or represents the Greek words δαίμων, δαιμόνιον); and for "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") substitute either "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons").
- IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, in" and the text "with" exchange places.
- X. Let the word "testament" be everywhere changed to "covenant" (without an alternate in the margin), except in Heb. ix. 15-17.
- XI. Wherever "patience" occurs as the rendering of υπομονή add "steadfastness" as an alternate in the margin, except in 2 Cor. i. 6; James v. 11; Luke viii. 15; Heb. xii. 1.
- XII. Let ἀσσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6) be translated "penny," and δηνάριον "shilling," except in Matt. xxii. 19; Mark xii. 15; Luke xx. 24, where the name of the coin, "a denarius," should be given.
- XIII. Against the expression "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" add the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" etc.; viz. in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. i. 3; xi. 31; Eph. i. 3; Col. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3. And against the expression "our God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and our Father"; viz. in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; James i. 27. And against the expression "his God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and his Father", viz. in Rev. i. 6.

XIV. Let the use of "fulfil" be confined to those cases in which it denotes "accomplish," "bring to pass," or the like.

MATTHEW.
